

- In And Around The JCC -

Farewell From Irene Komor

Dear Friends,

Many of you know I'm leaving the JCC, but for those of you who don't let me make it official. In the fall, I'm going back to graduate school in guidance and counseling at UNCC while I am awaiting the birth of Leo's (my husband) and my child in January.

Thanks to your support of the JCC's children's programs, I've learned more about children's development than from any text. I'm sure my new knowledge will be put to the test.

Meanwhile, Camp Maccabee is a blast! Everyone is having fun and we have a wonderful staff. The last session of camp, August 12-23 at Gus Purcell Day Camp in Matthews, promises to be a wonderful learning experience in a beautiful natural environment.

The following week, beginning August 26, Mother's Morning Out (MMO) will run on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In early October, children's classes will begin and continue for one ten-week or two five-week sessions through mid-December. With your support the JCC can continue to offer high quality programming for your children.

Again let me thank those who have supported the JCC children's programs by volunteering their services and by continuing to bring their children to the myriad program locations. My gratitude to everyone who has helped me through stressful moments with a warm, encouraging word. My best wishes for a good year to all of you. I look forward to chance encounters with you and your children throughout the year.

L'Litryot and Shalom,
Irene Komor

JCC Membership Appreciation Event Set For Aug. 10

The Jewish Community Center in recognition of the support provided by its membership during this transition year is sponsoring a Membership Appreciation Pool Party on Saturday, August 10 at 7:30 p.m. at Idlewild Olympic Club Pool. The "J" will provide music and dinner free of charge to Center members. The "J" will invite all newcomers who moved to Charlotte within the past year. Special effort will be made by existing JCC members to accompany newcomers where possible to the adult pool party. Bring your bathing suit.

The leadership of the Center will be on hand to discuss progress at the new building site and to listen to membership suggestions and ideas regarding our future plans.

Those wishing to join us for dinner must RSVP by August 6 by calling the JCC office 366-0357.

Jackie Fishman is the new JCC Program Coordinator. She has returned to Charlotte after eight years, the majority of which was spent in St. Louis, Mo. She was an adult program administrator for Webster University and St. Louis University. She has a Masters in Education from UNCC. This past year she taught English at East Mecklenburg High School.

Jackie is married to Joe Beresford; they have two children, Sam 3½ and Lia 1.

Swim Team Banquet - Aug. 27

Under the leadership of Lance Timmons, our swim team completed another successful season. We placed third - just 24 points out of first place. We would like to recognize Lance; Jeffrey Shapiro, his assistant; the swim team members; David Fox, chairman; and all of the 21 parent volunteers who contributed so much to the success of the swim team.

The swim banquet will be held on Tuesday, August 27 at the Idlewild Swim Club. It is to be a swim-pizza party to begin around 6:30 p.m. with pizza served around 7 p.m. If you plan to attend, please call the JCC at 366-0357 for reservations. Awards will be presented at the party.

Baseball Has Winning Season

Under the excellent coaching of Elliott Sanderson and his coaching staff, the JCC Youth Baseball team won all of their games. This was the first season for the JCC to have a coach-pitch baseball team. The team played in the National League with the Harris YMCA. Assisting Mr. Sanderson with coaching were Steve Kaufmann, Les Gordan, Jay Jacoby and Sam Tepper. The team celebrated their success with an ice cream party following their last game. Congratulations to them and the staff for their winning season.

Youth Soccer

The JCC Youth Soccer for fall will be starting soon. We look forward to Andrew London returning to coach the 6 to 8 year-old team and Alan Kronovet to coach the 9 to 11 year-old team. As in the spring, our teams will be in a league with the Harris YMCA. Practice will begin around mid-August with games starting around mid-September. An exact schedule of days and dates will be forthcoming in the "Keeping Posted."
