Jewish Singles To Hold "Sun & Fun" Weekend

An exciting weekend for Jewish singles, sponsored by Temple Israel of Norfolk, will again be held at the Cavalier Oceanfront Hotel complex in Virginia Beach, August 23-25. It is an opportunity to join with Jewish singles from the entire Eastern Seaboard and especially from North Carolina, Virginia, Washington, D.C., Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

A full program of dining, worship, music, dancing, sports, discussions and swimming in the ocean or indoor pool will make this a complete vacation. The cost is $170 per person, double occupancy, which includes Friday night dinner and social, national entertainer on Friday night, Saturday morning continental breakfast, Saturday evening cookout and beer bash, Saturday evening live band, and Sunday brunch. For those who do not require hotel accommodations, the cost is $70.

This will be the third year that Temple Israel has sponsored this event. Last year there were over 600 singles who attended. Temple Israel had 204 hotel rooms at the Cavalier filled with singles from all over the East Coast. Additional hotels at the beach had to be used for the overflow since the entire allotment of reserved rooms at the Cavalier was used. This year Temple Israel has reserved 300 rooms for the event and an anticipated turnout of over 750 singles.

For reservations and further information, please contact Temple Israel, 7255 Granby Street, Norfolk, Va., phone: 804/489-4550.

Becky Shulimson Children's Memorial Library Established

By Vicki Neumann

Ha Lailah Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women recognized a need for a strong Jewish library in our community. It was decided to focus particularly on a children's collection to be used by everyone.

With the prospect of a multi-million dollar educational facility being built by the Charlotte Jewish community, it seemed appropriate to place a well stocked section of children's Judaic materials at the finger tips of all children entering the media center.

A list of available books has been compiled by one of our members, Jenny Rosenthal, who has a masters degree in library science and is presently the librarian at Temple Beth El.

We chose to name this section of the library after Becky Shulimson, a charter member and life member of Ha Lailah. Her untimely death, at 35, touched all our members in a way that we still feel difficult to accept. Because of her involvement in Jewish community affairs and her strong feelings toward Jewish education, we felt it was appropriate to memorialize her in this manner.

With a contribution made by the Blumenthal Foundation, stationery, cards and book plates were acquired to begin this project. Our intent is to be able to purchase books

Young Professionals "Chill Out"

The Young Professionals of B'nai B'rith Men are sponsoring the Second Annual August Freeze for all Lodge members and families on Sunday, August 25 from 4 to 9 p.m. There will be activities for everyone, from a hiking path to paddle boats and canoes, and of course, a cookout! The theme is Hawaiian so dress appropriately. For further information, or to reserve your place, call: Eric Sklut, 365-0154 or Ed Abel, 366-3309.

based on a minimum contribution of five dollars. As we accumulate funds, books will be purchased and catalogued for community use.

This project will provide an essential and much needed portion of the library in the new facility to be opened next spring.

For further information or to make a contribution in honor or in memory of someone contact Vicki Neumann (568-6074) or Lee Blumenthal (366-3398).

Temple Beth El News

A new organization has been established to promote and further the social interests of its members. The Temple Beth El Social Club was organized at a covered-dish dinner on June 8. Officers are Sidney Cojac, president; Murray Rosen, vice president; Micki Schiffman, secretary; Julian Saly, treasurer; Jane Heller, social coordinator. The enthusiasm generated at the June gathering carried over to July 14, when Bastille Day was commemorated with a "Gay Paree" party. Hors d'oeuvres, wine and desserts were served, followed by music and dancing with a French flair. Future events, including short trips to points of special interest, are in the planning stage.

On June 28, when Rabbi Krantzler was attending the national convention of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, Hilbert Fuerstman, a Temple member of long standing and a student of the Bible, presented the sermon. Lisa Vernon, Director of Education, conducted the Service and Torah reading and also led the Saturday morning service and Torah study.

On July 12, a special Oneg Shabbat was celebrated in honor of Elizabeth and Walter Klein's fortieth wedding anniversary. Hosts were the children of the honorees.
