Listen to our Tale of Woe.

This is the way an exchange pleads in its affectionate appeal to its delinquent subscribers:

The office "devil" is seven weeks behind on wages, and kicks on sour three times a day. He may get mad and leave.

The paper dealers won't trust any more.

Our woodshed is empty and a cold winter coming. (The neighbors have all bought pad-locks.).

The cow has dried up and the baby is living on lime water.

The bensaw on a stump, and the McKinley bill has boosted the price of codfish.

Our summer pants are worn through the patches, and the tailors are simply alone.

The grocer's boy said he had orders not to call any more.

Our wife says something noise in door.

We have borrowed money to pay postage on this letter. If you don't send us the money please write us your ideas of the quickest and easiest method of suicide.

Sickness is a curse sister.

The Best Salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.
