

Lazy, Hazy, Crazy

JCC

Days of Summer

Israeli Scouts playing games with Camp Maccabee children.

Swim meets were big events during the summer. Competition was really keen!

Lance Timmons, Swim Coach

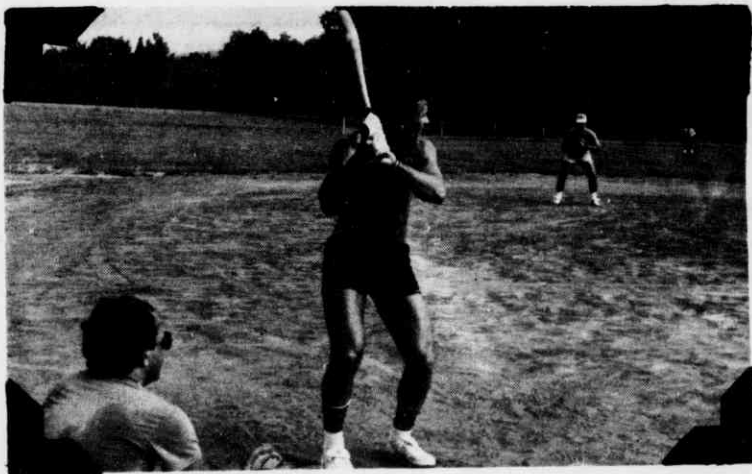

"Stalwarts" at the pool (L to R): Larry Widis, Hal Weisman, Patti Weisman, Florence Widis.

First "gym class" at the new JCC during "Imagination Tour."

Two generations of sun worshippers (L to R): Larry Segal, Miles Levine, Nancy Segal, Nicki Levine, Shelley Shneer. The "babies" are the Levine twins, Rachel Schneer, and on Shelley's lap, Adam Segal.

Camp Maccabee - Session I (3 & 4-yr. olds). Top row - (L to R): Counselors, Missy Van Glish, Willie Newsome, Mark DiDonato. Upper row of children (L to R): Melissa Stewart, Sean Ostrow, Russell Manes, Eric Goldstein, Howie Lintz. Lower row (L to R): Robby Sachs, Evan Rosenbaum, Beth Eisenberg, David Sheffer.

Final city-wide swim meet.

Batters Up—The JCC Softball teams met faithfully every Sunday morning. Pictured at bat (top picture) is Joey Mazur; in bottom picture Alan Rosenberg is about to take a swing.

Israeli Scouts at Camp Maccabee. They played games and music with the campers.

JCC Job Openings

Children's Director

Responsibilities include program development and supervision of part-time workers. Manage new after-school care program, Mother's Morning Out and summer day camp. Plan and organize full children's program for pre-schoolers to teenagers. Work closely with lay committees. Masters Degree and experience in Center work or related field preferred. Immediate opening.

Health & Physical Education Director

Responsibilities include program development and supervision of two full-time professionals (Health Club Manager and Aquatics Director). Develop ongoing Health & Physical Education programs for all age groups. Good public relations and leadership skills a must. Work closely with lay committees. Masters Degree in Physical Education and experience in Center work or related field preferred. Opening in the fall.