ELECTION RETURNS.

Calais, (Maine) April 8th.—The municipal Elections came off yesterday, resulting in the choice of Lawrence, the "Republican" candidate for Mayor, by 200 majority.

St. Louis, (Mo.) April 8th.—Home, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, is elected, together with their whole ticket by a large majority.

Cleveland, (Ohio) April 8th.—The election yesterday resulted generally in favor of the Democrats.

New Haven, (Conn.) April 8th.—One hundred and nine towns elect 69 opposition, and 60 Democrats to the House—44 towns yet to hear from. The Senate is doubtful.

Hartford, April 8th.—The Senate undoubtedly belongs to the opposition. The House is close and doubtful. No choice for State officers.

[SECOND DESPATCH:]

Hartford, April 8.—There has been no election of State officers by the people.

GREAT ROBBERY—THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS WORTH OF DIAMONDS STOLEN.

New York, April 8.—The extensive Jewelry establishment of Messrs. Ball, Black & Co., on Broadway, opposite the Park, was robbed this morning of $30,000 worth of diamonds, supposed by the employees, four of whom have since been missing.—Nat. American.

We learn that John D. Taylor was nominated by the Convention held at Whiteville, Columbus county, on the 7th to represent the Senatorial District of Bladen, Brunswick and Columbus, in the next Legislature.

Wilmington Herald.

THE CONTRAST BETWEEN THE TWO PRESIDENTS.

Mr. Graham, of North Carolina, Secretary of the Navy under Mr. Fillmore's Administration, lately addressed a meeting at Granville in that State called to ratify the nomination of Mr. Fillmore as a candidate for the Presidency. He said that the crisis when Mr. Fillmore assumed the reins of Government was as threatening as it is now, but the firm hand of that wise and great man calmed the waves of tumult, and restored peace to the country! He thought him, above all statesmen, the man best fitted for the Presidency, safest for the South. "He (Mr. Graham) had nothing unkind to say against the respectable gentleman who now filled the Presidential chair, but he could not forget that whilst Mr. Fillmore had "turned out of office every Free-Soiler in his own State, Mr. Pierce had discharged from office the Collector of the port of New York, because he would not use the patronage of his place in rewarding Free-Soilers."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Senate.—Mr. Mason, from the committee on Foreign Relations, reported resolutions to the effect that no farther legislation is necessary in order to put an end to the treaty with Denmark, regulating the payment of Sound Dues. The subject was made the special order of the day for Monday next.

Mr. Cass presented a memorial from the self-styled Legislature of Kansas, and moved its reference to the committee on Territories. After debate, the subject was laid aside and the Bounty Land bill was taken up.

After an argument from Mr. Foote, in favor of its passage, the subject was laid aside.

Mr. Greer spoke on Kansas affairs, denying the right of Congress to interfere with the domestic affairs of the territory. Adjourned.

House.—Mr. Mace, by unanimous consent, presented the Constitution of Kansas, with a memorial from the Legislature on the subject. Referred to the committee on Territories. A motion to print 10,000 copies was referred to the committee on Printing.

Mr. Bingham, from the committee on Elections, made a report declaring S. S. Marshall entitled to his present seat in the House from the 9th district in Illinois. Also, declaring the seat of the 8th district, in the same State, vacant. The consideration of the subject was postponed. Mr. Keitt made a speech on the subject of Southern politics. On motion of H. Marshall, Mr. Pringle's resolution, looking to the suppression of the Coolie Trade, and declaring it piracy, was adopted. Adjourned.

April 8.—SENATE.—Mr. Pearce, of Maryland, reported a bill to remit duties on goods or merchandize destroyed by fire. Passed.

Mr. Sumner reported a bill supplementary to the act to limit the liabilities of ship owners.

Mr. Mason reported a bill making farther satisfaction for Virginia Land Warrants.

Mr. Greer resumed his speech on Kansas Affairs.—When he had concluded the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Deficiency Bill pending, Mr. Zollicoffer replied to Mr. Smith justifying his voting for the new American platform. Subsequently, several political speeches were made. After the transaction of some unimportant business, the House adjourned.

FERRY BOAT DISASTER.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—The jury in the case of the Steamferry Boat New Jersey, rendered a verdict attributing the disaster to the worn out, leaky, defective boiler, inefficiency of Richards, who inspected it; to the general unfitness of the boat for the transportation of passengers, and the omission of the company to man, equip, and provide the means of escape in case of fire, explosion, or collision. The verdict exonerates the officers of the boat, who did all in their power, under the circumstances, to save those on board. A preamble, approved by only a portion of the jury, censured the company in the strongest possible manner.

THE VICTORY IN RHODE ISLAND.—The Providence Transcript says of the victory in Rhode Island:

"We are proud of our victory. This entire American State Ticket has been either secured by a large majority, or placed beyond the reach of contingency as to its ultimate success. Mr. Brown and Mr. Parker will be elected without the shade of a doubt, by the Grand Committee of our still American Legislature.—Notwithstanding the defection of our Mr. Rose, and the omnipotency of his influence against us, notwithstanding the treachery of another leading man in the order, notwithstand the herculean efforts of the FOREIGN, alias Democratic party all over the State, notwithstanding the rum, the speeches and harrangues, the treats of employers and fair promises of political office-hunters, we have nobly won the victory. The American party has shown its power and efficiency in this State. It has done it fairly, honestly, nobly. It has done it because its principles are such as commend themselves to the honest convictions of the people. We shall repeat the same thing next Fall, if nothing unforeseen happens, and the Foreign party continues to dispence as much money as it has done, and we think 'a little more so.'"

"Coming events cast their shadows before." The Americans have elected their tickets in Vicksburg, Missippi; Cambridge, Maryland; Gettysburg, York, and Lewistown, Pennsylvania, by improved majorities over former converts.

FILLMORE AND DONELSON IN INDIANA.—Large and enthusiastic meetings have been held in Indiana to ratify the American nominations, and a State mass meeting will be held in Vincennes on the 12 instant.

AMERICAN VICTORY AT WELLSBURG.—The Americans of Wellsburg have elected their ticket for municipal officers by handsome majorities. The opposition ticket was made of three old line Whigs and two Democrats. Marks, American, was elected by 70 majority, and the entire American ticket for the town council was elected by majorities ranging from 31 to 69.

MORE VICTORIES IN NEW YORK.—The Americans are carrying all before them at the April town elections in New York.

In Chittenango they have doubled their majority of last year.

In Glenn's Falls their majority is about 200.

In the new county of Schuler they carry a majority of Supervisors. In the county of Schenectady they elect six out of nine Supervisors.

It is worthy of note that in almost every instance the Americans were compelled to contend against a fusion of Democrats and Republicans.

New York may be considered as safe for Fillmore and Donelson by at least 20,000 majority.

"Ma, here is a word in the paper I want to know. What is a homicide?"

"A homicide is one who murders another."

"Well, Ma, when Jack Snipes killed our old tom cat, that was a Tommycide, wasn't it?"

"Pshaw, child, go away and don't bother me."

Why is a man making love to a married woman like a sheriff levying on the wrong man's goods? Because he's the victim of "a misplaced attachment."

LAUGHING.

Laughing does a person good
Muscles exercising;
Helping to digest the food—
So 'tis not surprising
That by laughing all grow fat,
Chasing off the yellows,
Dark blue Devils, and all that—
Laugh, then, jolly fellows.

LOVE.—A Yankee poet thus describes the excess of his devotion to his true love:

"I sing her praise in poetry;
For her at morn and eve,
I cries whole pints of bitter tears,
And wipes them off with my sleeve."

AMERICAN PARTY.

The Albany Statesman, the new American paper, well remarks:—"What is the reason that this new American party, composed as it is of the disjointed fragments of all parties, shows such vitality? The answer is simple.—Because it is founded in the popular heart and leans in undoubting faith on the patriotism of the nation. Demanding that the bible shall be in our common schools—claiming that to the children of the soil belong, first, its rewards—seeking to arrest the tide of foreign pauperism and crime that is deluging the land—rebuking the selfish ambition that would divide the Union, and asserting the right of Americans to control the country whose freedom was obtained at such a sacrifice, they appeal, and loudly, to the true and good of every party, that the responsive "God be with you!" comes up like the swell of the sea, from every tide. Strong in youth, strong in the right, and strong in the consciences and hearts of the people, it will survive all shocks in the future, as it has in the past. Deserters only commit suicide, doubters and trimmers are laid aside, while opposers are vanquished. Courage, then, Americans. Never since your existence as a party, have the skies looked so promising!

ENTHUSIASM AT THE WEST.

The St. Louis Intelligencer says:

"Enthusiastic meetings of the American party are taking place in all parts of the country. The spirit of 1840 is aroused, and promises to sweep the land like a tornado. We put down Missouri for Fillmore and Donelson by 10,000 majority sure. And if such things can be done in Missouri what may we not expect elsewhere? Roll on the ball!"

KENTUCKY.

The Louisville Journal says:

"To our political friends every where we can say that the prospects of our party are bright and daily brightening. Throughout the whole South there is not an American whose voice is not strong and enthusiastic in favor of the American nominations, and there is every reason to believe that long before next November the entire conservative strength of the country, North, South, East and West, will be enlisted in favor of it. Let our friends of the Union do their whole duty, and the victory of next November will be one of unparalleled glory.'

Any one may do a casual act of good nature; but a continuation of them shows it is a part of the temperament.

Among the curiosities lately plated in a Museum, is a mosquito's bladder containing the souls of twenty-four misers, and the fortunes of twelve editors. It is nearly half full.

ANOTHER ARCTIC EXPEDITION.—We learn from the New London Star that Dr. Kane, accompanied by Mr. Henry Grinnell, was recently in that city for the purpose of "examining the ship Resolute, with a view of her fitness for another conflict with icedom." From this we might be led to infer that another expedition to the North Pole—probably to explore the newly discovered polar sea—was projected. The expedition is a laudable one and promises rich laurels to whomsoever shall undertake to successfully accomplish it.

The N. Y. Herald of Sunday contains the subjoined paragraph:

"About two years ago a negro woman named Diana, was purchased from her owner, S. F. Gould, Esqr., of Edgefield, South Carolina, by abolitionists residing in this city. Among the contributors to the fund for freeing her was Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, whose rifle practice has gained him such notoriety lately. Diana came to this city and nursed her mother until she died, when, having no relatives or friends here, and being out of employment, she naturally enough desired to return to the home of her childhood, where her husband and children are still living. Hearing that Col. M. Frazer, a neighbor of her former master, was in the city, she called upon him at the Astor House, and piteously begged of him to take her back to her old home, as she was heartily sick of freedom, and yearned like St. Paul "for her kindred after the flesh." Col. Frazer consented to do so. Before leaving for the South yesterday, he brought her to the Herald office to afford us another instance of the fact that a sensible negro prefers slavery when it is associated with home comforts, to freedom such as the blacks experience at the hands of the nigger worshipers at the North. Diana is a stout, healthy woman, about forty years of age. She was originally bought for $250, her owner freeing her for less than her worth, at the solicitation of her well meaning but mistaken friends."

MR. FILLMORE IN NEW ENGLAND.

The Boston Journal, one of the most conservative papers in New England, says:

"We believe—and are willing to place our opinion on record as a prediction—that the name of Fillmore will in time rally the great bulk of the American party in Massachusetts, and with a favorable prospect of carrying the State. We cannot of course anticipate the reply of Mr. Fillmore to the letter informing him of his nomination, but if he accepts it upon the broad platform of the American principles, he will carry the State. Gen. Taylor's chances were not more favorable in 1848 than those of Fillmore seem to be now, but he carried the State by a handsome majority. The prospects of General Scott were not brighter at the time he was nominated, yet Massachusetts was one of the few States which gave him a plurality. It is too early in the campaign to expect any enthusiasm for Fillmore. Indeed, the nomination was made too early. But there will be a waking up before the November election which will surprise those amateur politicians who cannot see an inch beneath the surface."

A VALUABLE WOMAN.—Miss Peggy Land, a young woman of Pickens District, South Carolina, about twenty-four years of age, after trying weaving, carding, spinning, and sewing, last year, went to farming, and made cotton which netted her $100. Her corn crop was two hundred and fifty bushels, worth sixty cents, per bushel, and she made thirty-five bushels of wheat, worth one dollar and fifty cents a bushel! She accomplished this herself, without assistance of hiring.—She ploughed, drove the cart, cut her wheat and cribbed her corn.

The late Major——, so well known, when once importuned by a diminutive tailor, for payment of a bill, contemptuously exclaimed, 'If you were not such a little reptile, I would kick you down stairs.' 'Little reptile!' remonstrated the dun, 'and what if I am? Recollect, Major, that we all can't be great brutes.'

Henry S. Jennings was one of the delegates from Illinois to the recent American Convention at Philadelphia, and refused to support Fillmore and Donelson. Since his return home he has ascertained that his course was NOT approved by his constituents,—consequently he has recanted. He says that he shall now do all in his power for the election of Fillmore and Donelson.

Florida Republican.

The speech recently delivered in New York by Andrew Jackson Donelson, the American nominee for the Vice Presidency, is generally admired. Its concluding sentence, says a Washington paper, is worthy of being made one of the mottoes of the American party. It reads:—"We have left the old parties, who were unable to tranquilize the land, and Stand on a platform national from beginning to end, American in every feature of it."

PROTECTION FROM LIGHTNING.

THE Subscriber would call the attention of persons wishing protection from Lightning to his

IMPROVED CONDUCTORS.

The points are composed of Steel, plated with pure Silver presenting seven distinct points in one. The rods are connected with nuts, forming one continuous rod, insulated with glass, about five feet apart, the staples firmly fixed in the wall of the building, placing the rod three inches from the building and out of the influence of nails and other attractive materials, and cutting off all connection between the rod and building.

Orders sent to me or left at A. A. McKethan's will be promptly attend to.
