STATE AND LOCAL

Head waiters—Barbers.

A bootless enterprise—Going barefoot.

Gen.——never drew his sword but once, and that was in a raffle.

We hear of no serious damage in this section from the recent severe storm.

Dr. R. E. King Dentist, will be in his office in Warrenton on the 10th, and remain several weeks.

Baker the Painter, has decorated most of our stores with new signs, they all look clean and pretty.

We see patent churns, hats, medicines and a little of every thing else, for sale on the Court yard.

We are glad to see Capt. A. M. Noble, representing the firm of W. H. Morris & Sons, of Norfolk Va. in our place this week.

There are eight persons confined in the jail at this place, all colored, out of this number several no doubt will be sent "on up," by his Honor.

Mr. Arther Cooke, (more familliarly known as "uncle Arther," a citizen of this County, aged 81 years; killed last week 2 wild turkeys.

The Roanoke wanted but a few inches of being as high on Monday last, as it was during the great fresh-et of 1873.—W. Gazette.

Ferry boats at the South end of the bridge drew a brisk trade on Monday, also at Fox Swamp on the Nashville road about 1 mile from town.

The March number of Our Living and Our Dead, is on our table. This work is both creditable to the editors and the State, and should be sustained

C. M. Cooke, Esq., Senator from this district is here this week in attendance on our Court We are glad to see him looking so well

Capt. Edward J. Parker, of Gates county, N. C., slaughtered a hog a few days since, 2 years and 6 months old, that weighed 753 pounds.—Kinston Gazette.

There were more indictments made by the Grand Jury last week, than at any term since the war. Several hundred were indicted for not paying their taxes.—Warrenton Gazette.

We had no services in any of our churches the last Sabbath. We heard several gentlemen remark that we missed it badly, both in Church and State.

We are in receipt of the Speech of Hon. A. S. Merrimon, delivered in the United States Senate on the 19th February last, on the Louisiana affairs.—We have not yet read it.

The abutment at the southern end of the bridge at this place sunk 12 or 18 inches last Monday morning about day break. We are looking every minute to see that end move around a little.

Pride is the source of most of our misfortunes; it is a canker-worm that preys upon the very bud of happiness, and often makes those who have great possessions as miserable as the meanest beggar.

Persons attending Court, who live on the South side of the river, have to take the ferry at the bridge, as the water extends around the abutment at that end.

The Forty-third Congress disolved on the 4th inst., to meet no more forever, and it gives us most exquisite pleasure to make this announcement. Let all clap their hands and rejoice.

The new sign in front of the Eagle Hotel is quit pretty, but we are told that the dinning-room at meal times is much better looking than the sign, and is decidly more attractive.

We notice in our town this week, Bro's., Blow of the Oxford Leader, and Rogers of the Rural Messenger, these gentlemen both represent excellent papers, and we wish them each a long list of subscribers.

The Roanoke News, has entered upon its 4th volume "The News boasts of a larger subscription list than any paper ever before published in Weldon." The News deserves success and we are glad to hear that it is succeeding.

We have received from the Secretary Rev. R. H. Whitaker, the proceedings of the eighth annual session of the N. C. State Council of the Friends of Temperance which was held at Kinston on the 17th and 18th of November last.

SENATE.—As soon as the new Senators were sworn in, Morton offered resolutions acknowledging the Kellogg government in Louisiana and for the admission of Pinchback as Senator from that State. They were laid over.

He gave notice that he would call up the latter, perhaps on Monday.

We notice the following members of the bar in attendance on our Court this week:

Messrs. Busbee, Moore, Harris, Jones, Lewis, Batchelor and Gatlin, Raleigh; Messrs. Edwards, and Kennedy from Oxford; Messrs. Cooke and Hawkins of Warrenton; G. W. Blount Esq., Wilson; Messrs. Davis, Cooke, Green Spencer and Bullock, Franklin.

Another colored gentleman who had partaken very freely of benzine, on Monday last, attempted to ride his spavined horse frame across the water at the south end of the bridge, received a beautiful ducking. He will patronize the ferryman hereafter

FIRST NEW POTATOES.—The first new Irish potatoes of the season were in market yesterday, but they only asked $1 a peck for them. The old folks tell us that this is earlier than they were ever known to be brought into this market before.—Wilmington Journal.

A tract of land lying three miles from Durham was sold at public sale in front of M. A. Angier's store Saturday last at $25. an acre. The same land would not have sold for more than half that amount five years ago. See what our town is doing.—Tobacco Plant.

"The blackguardism of John Young Brown," is an expression used by the Milwaukee Sentinel. John Young Brown may have been guilty of blackguardism, but it was merely in thoughtlessly uttering the name of Benjamin F. Butler in the hearing of gentlemen. —L. C. Journal.

MONTGOMERY, March 6th.—The House of Representatives, by a unanimous vote, expelled a negro member named Gaskin for proposing to do certain things in his legislative capacity for three hundred dollars. The committee examining the charges consisted of three Democrats and one white and one colored Republican, and reported unanimously that he was guilty.

They say now that Bunyan stole his Pilgrim's Progress from a Dutch book entitled 'Dat Boeck van den Pilgrim.' As the rascally tinker was universally recognized as the most accomplished Dutch scholar of that or any other age, this story is probably true.

After all, was not John Young Brown wrong? If we had to describe all that is pusillanimous in war, cowardly in peace, forbidden in morals, infamous in politics, and damnable in every thing, we should call it—well, upon the whole, we should call it Butlerism too.—L. C. Journal.

CAROLINA HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE. —We have received the Febuary number of this beautiful and interesting monthly. It contains a life like engraving of Maj. Seaton Gales of Raleigh, N. C. We wish the Magazine abundant success. Price $2.00 per annum, address, J. A. Bonitz, Goldsboro N. C.

Our Spring term of the Court is in session this week, with his honor Judge S. W. Watts on the bench. We are so lazy trying to lengthen out our subscription list and impress delinquents, with the necessity of paying up, that we have not had the time to write up our editorial side as it should be. So we have used the scissors very freely, sufficient apology we trust.

HON. A. W. VENABLE.—This gentleman notwithstanding the infirmities of age have made a visible impression on him is occasionally seen on our streets mingling freely in social conversation with his friends, and entertaining and instructing them by his treasures of wit, anecdote and wisdom. Oxford Leader.

Dr. Congleton with his wonderful cure lives, makes the Court yard ring with his poetic effusions, in praise of his different medicines.

He puts 'Antalgie' in a glass and stirs it around.

Turns it up to his mouth and swallows it down.

He then opens another bottle that you may try,

And then you can brush away the blue-tail fly.

ATTENTION SHERIFFS.—In the recent murder trial in Pasquotank county, Judge Eure of the 1st Judical District, decided that the fact of a man not having paid his taxes disqualifies him from acting as a juror. We learn that this is in accordance with a recent decision of the Supreme Court.—If this be so, Sheriffs should hereafter when required to summon a venire to leave out all who stand in the category.

Two trappers from Alamance county set their traps in Harris township, in February last and in four weeks, captured the following prizes: 24 minks, 2 Otters, one weighing 16½ lb, 2 foxes, 2 crows, 2 cats, 1 squirrel, 1 snipe, 1 partridge, 1 snow bird and 1 buzzard. They then with their spoils took their departure for Greensboro to sell their furs and feathers. The thrilling novel entitled "trapping in Harris township," by an unknown author, is now in print and will soon be given to the public, sold only by subscription, see the agent and subscribe at once.

Mr. Richard Hight of this county number his children as follows, 66 grand children, and 16 great grand children, and 13 children, making in all 95. He is quite an active old man now.

The chuck luck man did not meet with much success in town this week. One of our citizens said, him in very emphatic language, that the people of Franklin were tired of swindlers, and advised him to take up his box and walk, which he did. In the name of the good people of Franklin, we thank our friend for ridding him away.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainments given by the young ladies and gentlemen of this place on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, for the benefit of the Church, we are glad to state were quite successes. The house was filled with intelligent and appreciative audiences, and all seemed to enjoy the performances very much.—We are sorry that a want of space and time prevents our giving a more extended account. We can only give the names of the plays—on the first night the beautiful domestic drama of "Ben Bolt," followed by the laughable farce entitled "Our Gal." The second night the amusing drama, "Loan of a Lover," followed by the farce, "Mischievous Nigger."

WHICH ARE CHEAPER?—The officers of the Penitentiary report 316 illiterate convicts. By great economy they are each supported and guarded at a cost of 42 cents a day. These illiterates therefore cost the state $3981.60 a month. This sum will feed, clothe and educate 663 children. The cost of the Penitentiary building will exceed that of the school-houses required. Now which are cheaper, public schools, or public prisons?—Children's Friend.

Section 15 of the act of February 8, 1875, provides: That a bank check, draft, order, or voucher for the payment of any sum whatsoever, drawn upon any bank, banker, or trust company, shall be subject to a stamp tax of two cents.

By this enactment, checks, &c., drawn on time, are liable to the stamp tax, as well as those payable at sight or on demand; so also are receipts and all other vouchers, taken by banks, bankers, or trust companies for the payment of money by them.

THE EFFECT.—A Northern exchange says the effect of the Civil Rights bill will only be to cause a few thick lipped niggers to have their mouths jammed down their throats and a few poor hotel keepers to be dragged before United States Courts to go through the mockery of a trial. In a little while the law will be repealed, after making the grave of the Republican party, which has been dug by the white men of the country, a little deeper than before. The title of the bill should have been: "An act to provide for the more effectual burial of the Radical party."

THE BAR ROOM CASE.—The case in which Francis Holmes, colored, indicted Mr. W. H. Gerken for refusing to sell him liquor at his saloon on North Franklin street, was heard yesterday afternoon at the Court House by United States Commissioner McQuigg. There was a large attendance of whites upon the occasion but there were very few colored people present, thus evidencing how small is the interest they take in the matter.

The indictment was framed under the new Civil Rights law which, after a patient hearing, and a masterly argument for the defence by M. London, Esq., the Commissioner decided to have no bearing in the matter and the case was dismissed.

Wil. Journal.

GOOD THINGS.

It is time to stop talking about the softening influence of women. A Massachusetts man who has four wives has just been sent to the penitentiary for stealing horses.

Said a gentleman to his mistress, "you are very handsome." "Pooh!" said the lady. "So you would say if you did not think so." "And so you would think," answered he, "though I should not say so."

There is to be no change in the new spring styles. Poor relatives will be cut the same as last.

A Pennsylvanian boasts that he makes a soap that would wash a politician's character as white as snow:—There must be a good deal of lye about that soap.

A Missouri woman who applied for a situation as car driver, being asked if she could manage mules, scornfully replied: Of course I can, I've had two husbands.

What makes you look so glum, Tom? Oh, I had to endure a sad trial to my feelings. What on earth was it?—Why, I had to tie on a pretty girl's bonnet, with her mother looking on.

A wicked boy, upon whose shoulders his mother was expressing her resentment with both slippers, let too proud to cry, and kept up his courage by repeating to himself, Two soles that beat is one.

The name of Mr. H. C. Jones' new hack, which runs every day from this place to Franklinton is "THE ROSE BUD," it is both pretty and comfortable. *
