Education Event Planned With Queens College

The Women's Division of the Charlotte Jewish Federation, in conjunction with Queens College, will present its annual educational event on October 23, at 7:30 p.m. on the college campus. A panel discussion of the controversial topic, "The Media: Response to Terrorism", will be followed by guest speaker, Daniel S. Mariaschin. His topic will be "Terrorism Against Jews: What Is Our Response?"

The Education Committee, cochaired by Jill Newman and Lee Blumenthal, feels fortunate to have obtained an excellent panel of local, prominent and knowledgeable citizens. The panelists will be Rich Oppel, Editor of The Charlotte Observer; Bill Walker, News Manager of WSOC-TV; and Kathy Merritt, News Director of WFAE, National Public Radio at

Daniel Mariaschin

UNCC. Moderator will be Dr. Harry Chernotsky, Assistant Professor of Political Science at UNCC.

Mr. Mariaschin is Assistant to the National Director of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and Director of National Leadership for the agency. An authority on the politics of the Middle East, he has written and lectured extensively on that subject. He has also worked as a radio news reporter and announcer.

A summa cum laude graduate of the University of New Hampshire and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, he earned his Masters Degree in contemporary Jewish Studies at the Philip W. Lown Center at Brandeis University. He will provide a unique perspective to round out the evening as he talks about terrorism as a Jewish issue.

Watch your mail for the invitation and additional information.

Leadership Forum To Be Held

On Sunday, October 6, Women's Division will host leadership women of the community on a mini-mission to Shalom Park. Foundation President, Mark Bernstein, will welcome the group; Foundation Building Chairman, Bill Gorelick, will lead participants on a tour of the new education and recreation buildings. Afterwards, the leaders will address the issues important in shaping Charlotte's Jewish future in the 1980s and '90s.

A box brunch will be served. Louise Bernstein and Carol Waldman are coordinating the event.

Our Apologies

In the Sept. issue, the New Year supplement, the gremlins were at work again. To Susanne Ross of Love and Cheesecake and Donna and Norman Levin, we are sorry that your names were misspelled. To Ed Caulfield of Bradford & Co., we really didn't mean to give you the last name of another prominent Charlottean. And to Phil and Barbara Guller whose names appeared correctly in the greeting box, we are indeed sorry that your "Happy New Year" seemed to have fallen off on its way to the printing press. Please accept our apologies.
