☞ The CAROLINA WATCHMAN will be sent to any address, in clubs or singly, from this time to the 20th November next, for one dollar in advance.—Circulate the documents—Send on your clubs.

THE TRIBUNE, Mr Helper's paper, will appear in a day or two.

Fine rains on Sunday and Monday last. The gardens are looking well, and vegetation generally is vigorous.

Persons wishing to get good pictures of themselves should call at the art gallery on the corner of Main and Fisher streets. There is a daguerreian artist there now and no mistake.

I. O. O. F.—The members of N. C. Lodge, No. 26, are requested to attend the meeting Tuesday night next. There is important business requiring attention.

BINGHAM SCHOOL.—We invite attention to the notice of the Bingham School. The high character of this school has made it a house hold word in North Carolina.

The Fayetteville Eagle notices a swindler of Hotels, printers, &c., who passes as a ventriloquist, slight of hand performer, &c. He passed there as a Prof. Ashley. If he should come west he will probably change his name.

☞ THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE EXAMINER are notified that our terms are strictly cash, and that no paper will be sent, after this issue, to persons in arrears. We hope that all will come forward, pay up old scores and renew for the WATCHMAN.

DELIGHTFUL WEATHER.—After copious showers, sun-shine and pleasent weather. Vegetution is lexuriant, crops promising, and the farmers ag ceable and cheerful. What a happy effect delightful weather and timely seasons have upon our surroundings!

POMEROY'S DEMOCRAT.—This Champion of newspapers has entered on the war path against Grant and his tools with renewed energy. It is very popular with the masses, and its extensive circulation will enable it to exert a telling influence in the summer campaign Success to its efforts.

CATAWBA CLASSICAL HIGH SCHOOL.—This excellent institution of learning, favorably situated at Newton, N. C., in a healthy section of the State and conducted by able and experienced instructors, deserves favorable consideration of the public. See advertisement in another column.

ROWAN MILLS.—These popular mills are now in excellent repair, and are turning out very fine flour, &c., &c. Messrs Emmert, the enterprising proprietors, understand their business thoroughly, and guarantee satisfaction. They desire to purchase large quantities of wheat for which they will pay the highest cash prices. They will exchange flour for wheat, or grind for toll to suit the public. See their card.

☞ The Associate left last evening to join the editorial Excursion party going north, and will be absent about two weeks. He will visit Richmond, Elmira, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Rochester, Canandaigua, Geneva, Watertown, Montreal in Canada, Binghamton, the Wyoming Valley in Pa., other large Cities and points of interest. He will correspond with this paper, and when he returns give a sketch of whatever he may see or hear of public interest.

☞ Our city has been very quiet the last week. Trade has been rather dull, owing we suppose to favorable weather for farm work and the beginning of harvest. Busy seasons on the farm make tradedull. It shows how much we are all dependent on the working classes, and especially the farmers, for prosperity and thrift. There are none so independent as the quiet industrious farmer. We hope he may be richly rewarded this year—that his crops may be abundant and his household prosperous and happy.

GOVERNOR VANCE RELIEVED.

The Charlotte Despatch says, Governor Vance yesterday received a despatch from Washington informing him of the relief of his political disabilities.

The people of the whole State of North Carolina will be delighted to hear this, and the friends of Governor Vance everywhere will congratulate him.

A freeman now, the people of North Carolina can again honor him as they would. And Z. B Vance, their prince, their king among men, their Governor who took the State through the great struggle in which North Carolina patriotism and the self-sacrificing heroism of her sons and daughters became immortal in song and story, will now take the place in public counsels of the country for which his talents, statesmanship, patriotism and personal integrity peculiarly fit him.

JOHN ALLEN KETCHIE.—It is reported that this notorious character has again made his appearance in this county.

On last Saturday near the road leading to Bringles Ferry, about five miles from this place, while returning to her home from Town, Miss M. Bisher, a highly respectable young lady, 16 years of age, was forcibly dragged from her mule and her person violated by a white villain, blacked. She declares it was John A. Ketchie. The fiend concealed himself behind a tree on the side of the road, and as the lady came up, sprang out and seized the bridle, stopped her nag, violently dragged her from the saddle into the woods, perpetrated his hellish purpose and disappeared, leaving the girl nearer dead than alive, bereft and ruined. He has not yet been apprehended, although diligent search has been made for him. The search should be kept up, and every good citizen should feel an interest in ridding the community of such a miscreant. His crimes are many and cry to heaven for punishment.

☞ The Rev. C. H. Bernheim will preach in the Lutheran church, Salisbury, next Sunday morning, and also at night.

JOHN B. HUSSEY, ESQ.—We were very much pleased to see in our office on Friday last, this talented young lawyer from Catawba, who was en route home from Colorado, Montana, Utah, and other distant climes.

Mr. Hussey went out with the view of prospecting the country, and to locate a colony if the advantages there were as favorable as represented

He returns home under the conviction that North Carolina is the best place after all. The fond expectations which had been raised by the tales of travelers were not realized, and Mr. Hussey comes back with the determination to devote his services to building up and improving the financial and political condition of his native State.—News.

Congress adjourned on Monday last, having been in session six months and passed four hundred and sixty bills.

A CARD.—To the voters of Rowan county

Having announced myself a few days before the nominating convention of Rowan county as a candidate for High Sheriff of said county, subject to said convention, and, it having been reported that I intended to allow my name to be run for said office regardless of said nomination. I take this method to inform my friends and any one else interested, that I am not a candidate, but will support the nomination made on that day.

CHANGE IN THE BANKRUPT LAW.—Congress, Thursday, passed a bill amendatory of the bankrupt law. It allows all exemptions allowed by any State law on the 1st of January, 1871. It also exempts a widow's dowerd or other estate in lieu therefor, if the State law so provides; also life insurance to the amount of $5,000. The time during which bankrupts may be discharged upon payment of fifty per cent, of their indebtedness is extended until July 1, 1873; judgments obtained against persons or property before petition in bankruptcy are filed are to be first and fully satisfied. Changes in the methods of appointing registers, in the matter of marshals' fees, and other less important particulars, are also made.

The London Standard, of a recent date, says: "The political campaign just opened in the United States has caused hundreds of street riots, men and women have been shot down for their political sentiments, and a reign of violence and bloodshed has been inaugurated which we pray England may never see."
