

The Chai-Lites

- In And Aro

Lillian Felner was the lucky winner of a complete beauty makeover on September 23, when the Chai-Lites spent the morning on a shopping trip at SouthPark. Dutch treat lunch was at Barclay's Cafeteria.

Rabbi Marc Wilson welcomed the JCC's Senior Adult Group, the Chai-Lites, to the Temple Israel Succah on October 2. The group listened with interest as he spoke about the Sukkot holiday and the significance of the traditional Lulav and Esrog. Lila Josephson accompanied a class from the Nursery School as they brought a snack to share with the visiting Chai-Lites and presented them with the gift of several songs. The group's activities culminated with luncheon as guests of Hadassah at their 50th Anniversary celebration.

Other October Chai-Lite events included a visit from Abe Luski and Baila Pransky of the Yiddish Vinkl, a trip to the Armstrong House for a view and armchair tour of the new JCC facility, lunch with the students of the Hebrew Academy, and a presentation by Marcia Lampert of Tri-County Visiting Nurses, Inc.

November will bring a lecture series specifically designed for seniors and sponsored by the Mecklenburg Mental Health Center.

A note of continuing thanks to our tireless volunteer drivers. We couldn't do it without you!

Cultural Arts Committee Sponsors Special Programs

On November 21 at 7:30 p.m., The Charlotte Symphony will present a free Fall Pops Concert for members of the Jewish Community Center. Jordan Tang, Associate Conductor, will conduct a series of light pieces including Mozart's Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro," Bizet's Toreador song from "Carmen," selections from "Faust" by Gounod, Leigh's "Man of La Mancha" and "Broadway Tonight."

The concert will last approximately one hour and refreshments will be served immediately following. Please bring the kids and join us for this autumn treat!

The JCC Cultural Arts Committee will sponsor a tour of Charlotte's newly remodeled Mint Museum on December 1, at 3:30 p.m. Stu Schwartz, committee member and the Mint's Curator of History, will present an orientation to the new facilities and will be available to answer questions about the collection. Suggested donation is $2 for adults, $1 for students, children under 12 free.

Opening exhibits will include works by Kohlmeyer, a contemporary artist and sculptor; photos by Ansel Adams; "Glad Rags," a costume display of 1920s flapper finery and in the Poster Gallery, the prize winning children's posters created for the Museum's grand reopening.

Please add this event to your late fall and holiday calendar now. Call the JCC at 366-0357 to reserve your spot on the tour.
