PIAZZ Group Is For Young Jewish Singles

By Adrien Chandler

It is always nice to have a warm and friendly place to celebrate a Jewish holiday. Pizazz, Charlotte's young single group, provided such an opportunity at the end of the Jewish New Year observance.

About 75 people gathered September 25 at the home of Cindy Moritz to enjoy a traditional break-fast, sharing each other's good food and company. It was a pot luck affair, each person bringing a favorite covered dish or dessert. It is Pizazz's most popular annual event, attracting a mix of native Charlotteans and newcomers who want to mark the end of the holiday. Many thanks to Cindy for being such a good hostess!

For those of you unfamiliar with the group, Pizazz is an organization comprised of young, single, Jewish people whose main goal is to provide social events for Charlotte area Jewish singles in their early 20s to mid-30s. Pizazz offers monthly programming, ranging from summertime baseball games to uptown nightlife tours, parties, lectures and all 'round good times. It's a great way to mix, meet and mingle.

If you would like to get involved, our next open meeting is November 10 at the Armstrong House. We would love to see you there and hear your ideas for future programming. Some upcoming events include:

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9 — Volleyball game followed by dinner, 7-9 p.m., $1 cover, at Hawthorne Methodist Church. Dinner at Kenilworth Cafe.

DECEMBER — A bona fide Chanukah party! Time and place to be announced. Check mail for upcoming events. Contact the JCC, 366-0357, to receive notices and additional information.

The JCC is pleased to announce that Ms. Cary Bernstein has rejoined the professional staff as Director of Children's Programs. A UNC-Greensboro graduate in Child Development, Cary comes to us with experience in working with pre-school through adolescent youngsters. She has served as a volunteer for B'nai B'rith Youth Organization, and is a former Director of Youth Services for the Charlotte JCC.

Ms. Terri Cathcart, chair of the JCC Children's Committee, recently convened that group to begin program planning with Cary.

We all join in a heartfelt welcome to Cary!

Chai Raffle

Many thanks to all who lent their support to the Chai-Lites annual fund raiser, The Chai Raffle. The bulk of the proceeds were presented to the JCC Board of Directors in the form of a $1,250 contribution to be used toward the purchase of a JCC van. The van will be a welcome boost to the Chai-Lites as well as all the seniors in the community for whom transportation has been problematic.

Winners of the 1985 Chai-Lites Raffle are:

Lonny Shved - Framed watercolor by Annie Goldberg.
Robert Klein - Hand crocheted afghan.

Ralph Kier - Framed watercolor by Annie Shapiro.

A Note From JACKIE

By Jackie Fishman
Adult Program Director

A special and personal welcome to Cary Bernstein, new Director of Children's Programs at the "J" - I'm glad you're here! I look forward to working with Cary on many joint projects and activities for our membership.

In the short time I've been a part of the JCC staff, I've become aware of the complexities presented by the current lack of a real "home" for the JCC. As we all anxiously await the move into the new facility, it becomes difficult to find the right spot to stage a program, event or class. We've received tremendous help from Temple Beth El, Temple Israel, the Unitarian Church, Providence Baptist Church, to name a few, in dealing with this problem; however, it seems that as Dorothy learned, "There's no place like home."

To those of you who continue to take advantage of and enjoy our programming, many thanks. To those of you who are a bit hesitant to jump in, we'll be glad to see you in the new building. Transitions are never easy. With our hard work, your support and lots of enthusiasm from all of us, we're well on our way to strengthening the future of Charlotte's Jewish Community Center.
