THE WATCHMAN.

SALISBURY, N. C., April 2[illegible], 1896.

Arrival and Departure of Trains:

NORTH BOUND.

No. 36—Local,	10:20 a. m.
No. 38—Vestibule,	9:38 p. m.
No. 12—Local	8:10 p. m.

SOUTH BOUND.

No. 35—Local,	9:12 p. m.
No. 37—Vestibule,	8:17 a. m
No. 11—Local,	10:20 a. m.

W. N. C.

No. 11—Leaves,	9:30 a. m.
No. 12—Arrives,	7:55 p. m.

YADKIN RAILROAD.

No. 45—Arrives,	9:30 a. m
No. 46—Leaves,	1:00 p. m.

LOCAL NEWS.

☞We have on our books a good many names of subscribers who are behind with the WATCHMAN, and this week we will mark them with a cross. If your time is out we hope you will come in and renew at once.

Some of our farmers report rain as needed very badly.

A site has been purchased whereupon to build a Reformed church.

We understand from good authority that Salisbury will soon have another large roller mill.

The boiler and engine for the new laundry have arrived and will soon be placed.

We congratulate our neighbor, the World, sor its enterprise and push. It is now a nice six column paper, clean and newsy.

Salisbury has at last got a move on, and from this on will keep pace with the foremost towns in the State.

Rev. C. P. King left Mouday morning for Columbia, S. C., on business connected with the new Lutheran college.

William, the infant son of W. A. Eames died Sunday evening at 2 o'clock and was buried Monday evening at half past three o'clock.

Rev. R. W. Boyd, of Barium Springs, was here Tuesday returning from Durham where he had been working in the interest of the orphanage. He succeeded in raising about a thousand dollars.

Bostian was called and carried Bostian home where all that Medical skill could do was done. It was thought that Bostian would die, but at last accounts he was resting very well.

Mr. H. M. Jones died about 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home on Bank street. The funeral was held Wednesday evening at 4 o'clok, and his body was buried with masonic honors.

The Lutheran Synod of North Carolina convenes at Concord today and will continue until Sunday. Rev. C. R. King, Mr. Jas. D. Heilig and others from Salisbury will attend

Mr. Moses Trexler who shot his daughter some time ago was brought to Salisbury and tried last Friday and placed in jail, but gave security Saturday and was released.

Saturday night about 9 o'clock Bob Bostian, col., was knocked down by Clarence Hargrave, also col., and for awhile Bostion's life was despaired of. It seems that Hargrave was Bostian's girl when Bostian came upon them and cursed Hargrave whereupon Hargrave hit him in the head with something tied up in a piece of cloth, knocking him senseless and fracturing his skull. Hargrave then ran and has not since been heard of. Dr. Littleton was called and carried Hargrave home where all that medical skill could do was done. It was thought that Bostian would die but at last accounts he was resting very well.

The machinery is now being placed in the Kesler mill and the mill will probably be in operation by the latter part of next month. A great many of the houses are already occupied by hands who will be employed in this mill.

J. L. Shuping is getting out some engine beds on the Dr. Eames mountain.

ROCKWELL ACADEMY ITEMS.

Sunday school was organized at St. Peter's last Sunday with good attendance for the first time.

Misses Jennie Trexler, Minnie and Lillie Park visited Miss Maggie Ridenhour last week.

Mr. Geo. Houck, of Mill Bridge, and Miss Minnie Huffman, of Salisbury, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller last Saturday night.

There will be a grand picnic at Rockwell academy on Ascension day. We hope everybody will bring a large basket of good provisions, and especially Mr. Lemly.

Miss Elen Holshouser has the measles.

Mr. G. M. Cress, of Mt. Pleasant, ant, gaid his best girl a visit last Sunday.

This is leap year. Look out old batchelors, for the girls are going to make good use of their time, as they know you are all so bashful.

FILIUS.

WOOSIDE LOCALS.

Mr. Beverly, of Virginia, is opening his quarry on the Safrit land. He will be ready for work within a few days and will want at least 100 hands.

We had the pleasure a few days ago of taking a ride through the country; and as we passed by the beautiful trees the works of nature presented itself to our minds, perhaps not sufficiently studies presents to our view one of the most pleasing aspects we can dwell upon. Let us behold creation, the work of an awise, and glorious God. The glorious king of day glides hastily on in his magnificent chariot, the heavens, and sits behind the western horizon not only to present to our minds this day by honoring them with his presence as he has honored us but also to give place to the graceful queen of night with her host of shining companions. First we will view the winter as it seemed to die but has come to life. How often did we see the snow mantle of snow resting on hill and dale, and the graceful boughs of the silvery pine gleaming in beauty through its feathery folds. Spring approaches with all its fascinating charms.

Everything seemed to be animated with a new life and beauty. Earth is decked in beautiful robes of green, its farms and gardens are gracefully diversified with flowers of every kind, its by paths and forests are decorated with blosoms of sweet fragrance.

What pleasure do we listen at the harmous songs of the cheerful birds as they fly about from tree to tree.

Again with what gratitude and delight do we contemplate the flower gardens and the large green pastures as they seem to meet the bright rays of the shining sun with a smile and above all with what pleasure do we behold the broad grassy meadows with here and there a beautiful wild flower springing up still wet with the dew of heaven. A little later the harvest fields appear as though they were a sheet of shining gold. The sound of the reapers is heard on every side binding and gathering home their sheaves Blessed emblem of that day and hour when the son of man shall gather his children home to glory.

A little later we contemplate with delight the graceful silks and tassels that hang in beauty around the whispering corn.

While going along we were studying the most interesting scene of nature as it presented itself to us.

A little later and we will bid adieu to Spring with all its charms and loveliness. Its gay flowers of sweet fragrance are laid low and we remember them only with a sigh, and hope that if our lives are spared we shall ere long enjoy these fragrant beauties again.

SNIPS.

Wonderful cures are being affected by Rheumacide, the new constitutional cure for rheumatism. From two to six bottles does the work. It is a scientific vegetable compound slow but safe, certain and powerful. Sold in Salisbury by Theo. F Kluttz & Co., and Edwin Cuthrell.

FAITH ITEMS.

Mr. George Fisher a rock hauler of this county. He has been hauling some large engine boilers through Faith from the Phillips mountain over to the railroad with seven horses hitched to his big wagon!

The Y. M. C. A. Bible reading will be at 5 o'clock Sunday evening.

Dr. McNairy lost a pocket book containing three five dollar bills.

J. T. Wyatt who had the Parks quarry bonded has just paid Mr. Parks $420 for the quarry and eight and one-half acres of land in one-forth of a mile from the railroad.

We had a big rain Friday night that done a lot of damage to the farm lands.

ORPHAN.

Administrator's Notice.

The undersigned having qualified as administration upon the estate of W. L. Kistler, deceased, all persons having claims against the said estate are hereby notified to present them for payment on or before the 13th day of April, 1897, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment.

JESSE W. MILLER, Admr.
April 13, 1896. T. C LINN, Atty.

Executors NOtice.

Having qualified as executor of the estate of Sarah Jane Ramsay, deceased, I hereby notify all persons indebted to make prompt payment and all persons having claims against the said estate to present them to the undersigned duly authenticated on or before the 23rd day of March 1897, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. This the 23rd of March 1896. JAMES H. RAMSAY.

March 26th, Executor.

Free Silver.

We have made special arrangements with the manufactories to sell fertilizer at reduced prices. You will save your silver by seeing us before you buy. Cheap and on easy terms.

J. M. PEELER & CO.
Woodsiee, N. C.