THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

SALISBURY, N. C., OCT. 5TH, 1909.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENTS.

Items of interest are solicited. Write briefly and accurately. Items written on both sides of the paper and those not accompanied by the author's real name go to the waste basket.

PINEY WOODS.

October 4.—The many readers of THE WATCHMAN have not been surfeited with items from Piney Woods by this correspondent for the past few months. The pencil has been idle. The events, or happenings, have not been such as to inspire in one a frequency of writing Summer has gone and we are now facing 1910. Times have been pretty dull for some time, but with the South Bound railroad almost touching us we look for a prosperous 1910.

The Mason Bros. & Luck Constructing Co. have camps at the Bald Mountain, and are making pretty good headway grading the road bed. Several of our men are being employed.

Farmers are busy sowing oats, but little corn has been gathered yet. The corn crop is short this season especially on bottom land.

Eli Arey, son of D. C. Arey, who has had a severe case of typhoid fever, is doing very well. Dr. Allen is the attending physician.

Cupid has been at work in our section The contracting parties were Early Morgan and Miss Polly Whitley. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Whitley, Sunday morning October 3rd, by Esquire W. C. Carroll. We extend to them best wishes and a long and happy life.

While moving his saw mill, W. C Lisk got one of his mules hurt right badly. The carriage of the mill slipped, while going down hill, which inflicted a bad wound in his mule's thigh.

Miss Lillie Shaver, of New London, visited homefolks over Sunday.

Luther Basinger is building himself a dwelling house, also, C. L Basinger has the framing of his up.

More telephone lines are going up. A B. Lisk has built one to Bringle's Ferry. The Joint Stock Co., haven't but one grounded line running into their board, and that will be made metallic this week. The South Bound people say we have the best rural telephone system they ever saw.

The recent frosts have been making lizzards hunt winter quarters.

Miss Mamie Fry, operator at Piney Woods switchboard, is running in THE WATCHMAN'S contest. Any one wanting to subscribe to The Watchman or Record, she would be glad to receive their subscription.

Southerner went 'possum hunting the other night and captured some nice slick tails. We would like to have the editor of THE WATCHMAN with us when we get them fat

Mr. Wyatt's family, who have had typhoid fever, are all able to be up we are glad to note.

Berry, son of J. I Basinger, has chills.

Mock Morgan will sell fertilizer for the Farmers' Union.

SOUTHERNER

DOWNWARD COURSE

Fast Being Realized by Salisbury People.

A little backache at first.
Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak.
Urinary disorders quickly follow.
Diabetes and finally Bright's disease.
This is the downward course of kidney ills.
Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Salisbury citizen.

J. J. Williams, 805 N. Lee St. Salisbury N. C., says: I suffered more a loss, from kidney trouble for several years. My kidneys were very inactive I had severe pains through the small of my back, felt dull and lacked energy. The kidney secretion were full of sediment and very unnatural. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, and deciding to give them a trial, I procured a box at McPhersons & Co.'s drug store. I used them as directed and received such great benefit that I obtained a further supply. In a few weeks I was free from pain and the kidneys were normal. I am glad to recommend this excellent remedy.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NEW LONDON.

Work Begun at Whitney on Southbound. W. W. Crowell Hurt.

New London, N. C., Oct. 6.—Mrs. A. M. Norton was called to the beaside of her sister in Weldon, a few days ago.

A good many of our citizens went to Salisbury Friday to take in the Sells Floto circus.

D. I. Tolbert, of Kannapolis, was in town on business last week.

J. J. Kelly, of Pittsburg, Pa, who has been here for several days, and who returned to his home a few days ago, is back with us again.

Clarence Misenheimer, of Attapulgus, Ga., who has been visiting friends and relatives here for the past week, returned to his home Saturday.

Z. V. Ross left Friday for Cleveland, where he will teach this fall. He will be principal of the Cleveland High School. The school opened Monday with two other teachers besides Mr. Moss.

Several carloads of tools was switched off here last week. They were going to Whitney, where the work began Monday on the Southbound. Several steam shovels are expected soon. They have the right-of-way nearly cleared off, all the way, and have begun moving dirt in several places along the line. There has been several men here all the week awaiting for the tools to arrive so that they could get to work. The line has been changed near Whitney. Instead of crossing near Stokes ferry and coming down the river by Whitney, it is to cross the river just above the dam and go between the dam and Fort Finley, the club house of the Whitney Company. The steel bridge across the river is to be about fifteen feet above the dam. The road then goes on the same route that was first settled on.

H. E Ross and family, of Whitney, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ross.

E T. Russell, who has been working in Salisbury for the past month, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family here.

Misses Mary and Temple Lefler, who have been working in Albemarle, spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs C A Lefler

Marshall Davis, of Eldorado, was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Mary Foard, of South River, is the guest of Mr and Mrs. H. S. Trott.

J. R. Littleton visited his daughter this week, Mrs. Marshall Davis, of Eldorado.

W. W. Crowell, of Richfield, got his arm seriously hurt Monday morning while working in the lumber shop of J. A Ritchie. He was working with the dressing machine, which he thought had a hot box. He reached his hand underneath to feel if the boxing was hot, when his right arm came in contact with the knives. Almost all of the flesh on one side of his arm from his hand to his elbow was cut and torn off. The wound was dressed by Drs. Allen, of New London, and Whitley, of Albemarle. Later the arm was amputated at the elbow by the same doctors. Mr. Crowell is in his 84th year. His son, W. M. Crowell, of Spencer, is at his bedside.

Edd Cotton spent Sunday with friends in Albemarle.

The Missionary Conference met in Spencer September 29 and 30 Miss Onnie Ross and Miss Albea, were delegates sent from here. After conference dismissed Miss Onnie Ross visited in Salisbury.

A M. Norton went to Albemarle Monday on business.
