TO PLANTERS.

GILES & HAWES HAVE OPENED TWENTY CASES Negro Wool Hats, which for quality and durability have never been surpassed in this market. They have a store house, in which they have placed their common Hats. As they expect to do a good wholesale business, they keep a large assortment on hand. Their goods are bought directly from the manufactory—not from a New York House, hence they can afford to sell at the very lowest prices. They ask only a comparison between their hats and those of any other make ever offered in Wilmington. We can supply country merchants with any style of Hats or Caps to suit their customers. Oct. 1st, 1856. 22
