Ha Lailah

JCC Raffle

Ha Lailah is having its annual raffle; first prize, a JCC membership and the second prize a coupon for the class of your choice at the JCC. The third prize is an Entertainment '86 book. Raffle tickets are $1 each, or a baker's dozen (13) for $10. Drawing will be on January 21. Send checks to Wendy Rosen, 9813 Red Rock Rd., Matthews, 28105.

Children's Library

Donations to the Becky Shulimson Memorial Children's Library will be used to purchase books for the Children's Library at the new JCC. A list of books has been compiled by Jenny Rosenthal for this purpose. Books will be purchased by the Fund and a bookplate inserted in each book. Thank you cards will be mailed to the donors and a card will also be sent in memorium or in honor of someone. Donations of $5 or more are to be made payable to Ha Lailah and mailed to Vicki Neumann, 6001 Donegal Dr., 28212 or to Lee Blumenthal, 2360 Rock Creek Dr., 28226.

November Meeting

Ha Lailah's November meeting was a huge success. Mary Ellen Whitley of Ivey's VIP service taught us about fashion and presented makeup by Estee Lauder and hair designs by Directives.

Entertainment '86

Ha Lailah is selling the Entertainment '86 books. The price for the books has remained the same but they are filled with many new and interesting things. For your $20 tax deductible investment you will receive coupons for many restaurants, from the fanciest to the "carry out." Also, the menus for all the restaurants are included. Not only is there a section for theater, entertainment and a hotel directory, but a section called Shopping Spree filled with coupons from a variety of stores from around the Charlotte area. For more information call Brenda Manes, 364-9338.

If you are interested in Ha Lailah's programs, call Wendy Rosen 847-3841.

Charlotte Chapter

Charlotte Chapter members, Linda Goldberg, Roberta Naimark, Jane Abel and Helen Rosenbaum dressed in costumes to deliver 50 styrofoam pumpkins to children at Charlotte Memorial and Presbyterian Hospitals on October 30. This was the chapter's fifth year of hospital visits to the children on Halloween. Many thanks to Jane Abel, chairperson, and all members who participated in this uplifting project. The children loved it!

Gift Wrap

Once again Charlotte Chapter will be gift wrapping at Cotswold Mall from December 13 through December 24. Anyone interested in setting

ORT

Contrary to popular belief, ORT is alive and growing in Charlotte. We have had a busy autumn of membership teas and are proud to welcome our new members: Nancy Bernstein, Jodi Cohen, Susie DeSaino, Mary Dubin, Jodi Pinion, Lori Sklut, Lenora Stein and Jean Strauss.

Our October event was enjoyed by all those who were present to hear Dr. Barbara Ballard Wheeler speak about women and sexuality.

The next three months promise to be exciting and busy ones. On December 11, join us to meet Rabbi Marc Wilson and hear what he has to say about "Facing the Annual Christmas Dilemma." We will also hold a Chanukah candlelighting service to be held at the home of Cathy Katz, 1200 Kingscross Drive.

January heralds a phonathon and our annual ORT Sabbath, to be held this year at Temple Israel. In February we look forward to a "Polaroid and Pizza Party." The ORT "Lox Box" is back! Mark your calendars for February 16.

All our programs are "open" so please come and bring a friend.

— Marcy Mehlman

the booth up on December 12 please call Jody Pinion at 542-3244. If you are interested in working the booth please call either Tobey Silber, 542-9935 or Susan Bruck, 847-4268.

News From Temple Beth El

The Men's Club's monthly Sunday morning breakfast met with much success again on November 17 at which a discussion was held on the historical background of apartheid in South Africa. Discussion leaders were Harry Berzack and Ms. Leslie Hill-Davidson, both of whom were able to speak authoritatively through direct personal experience.

The Men's Club will also be sponsoring a New Year's Eve Party to be held at Fellowship Hall of the Temple. The $15 charge per person will include a live band, hors d'oeuvres, set-ups, favors and a catered dinner by the House of Hunan. For reservations and/or further information please call the Temple office, 366-1948 or Harold Breitman, 803-831-2311.

The Sisterhood, too, has been very busy. Gladys Lavitan and her inimitable book reviews were featured at the Joint Sisterhood meeting on Nov. 14. The annual attic sale will be held Dec. 15-17. Rabbi Harold Krantzler spoke to the congregation at Shabbat services on Nov. 8 about the Biennial Convention of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations which he recently attended in Los Angeles. Other representatives at the convention were Helen Krantzler, Roland and Jane Heller, and Sally Schrader.

Temple Beth El joined seven churches in an Interfaith Thanksgiving service on Nov. 27 at Friendship Baptist Church.

Lenora Stein has joined the temple staff as a part-time religious school librarian.

The Confirmation Class recently visited Cincinnati, the cradle of American Reform Judaism, where they toured the Hebrew Union College and the historic Plum Street Temple.
