

Chanukah Recipes

Most people in the U.S. associate potato latkes as the main dish for Chanukah; in Israel it might be doughnuts. In actuality, any food which is fried is apropos for Chanukah. A delicious dish to be prepared for this holiday is kreplach. There is practically no limit to the variety of fillings for them. They are particularly delicious in soup on a cold winter night, but they become even more delicious as a main or side dish when they are fried.

Kreplach

Prepare a noodle dough as follows:

2 cups flour
2 eggs
1 tbs. water
½ tsp. salt

Place unsifted flour on a board and make a well in the center. Drop the eggs, water and salt into it. Work into the flour with one hand and knead until smooth and elastic. Roll out and stretch as thin as desired but don't let it dry. Cut into 3-inch squares and place a tablespoon of one of the following mixtures on each. Fold over the dough into a triangle. Press edges together with a little water. Cook in boiling salted water 20 minutes, or until they rise to the top. Drain, then fry. Makes 24 or more, according to how thin you roll the dough.

Meat Filling

1 tbs. oil or fat
½ lb. ground beef
½ cup minced onions
¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper

Heat the oil in a skillet and cook the meat and onions in it for 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Add the salt and pepper. Cool before placing in squares of dough.

Kasha Filling

1 cup minced onions
3 tbs. chicken fat, butter (if dairy) or oil
1½ cups cooked kasha
½ tsp. pepper

Lightly brown the onion in the fat/butter/oil. Stir in the kasha and pepper.

Cheese-Potato Filling (Dairy)

½ cup minced onions
3 tbs. butter
1½ cups mashed potatoes
½ cup pot cheese
1 tsp. salt
1/8 tsp. pepper
1 egg
Sour cream

Lightly brown the onions in the butter. Add the potatoes, cheese (if pot cheese unavailable, use a rather dry large curd cottage cheese), salt, pepper and egg, beating until smooth. Serve with sour cream.

Chicken Filling

1½ cups ground cooked chicken
4 tbs. browned minced onion
1 egg yolk
¼ tsp. salt
Dash pepper
1 tsp. pepper

Blend all the ingredients together.

Chicken Liver Filling

½ lb. chicken livers
½ cup minced onions
2 tbs. chicken fat or oil
2 hard-cooked egg yolks
1 tsp. salt
1/8 tsp. pepper

Cook the livers and onions in the fat or oil for 10 minutes, mixing frequently. Grind or chop the livers, onions, eggs, with the salt and pepper. Cool before placing in squares of dough.

Army."

• Joseph Birkenstock, chairman of the Populist Party in Wisconsin, active in the anti-Semitic paramilitary group called Posse Comitatus.

• Robert H. Weems, Jr., of Mississippi, a former Populist Party chairman, involved with the National States Rights Party for over a decade and connected with the Klan. The current chairman of the Party is John Couture, a Wisconsin attorney and longtime right wing activist.

While it would be a mistake to exaggerate the Party's significance, continued monitoring is needed in view of its ability to draw upon the considerable resources of Liberty Lobby, and though farmers have not yet sought extremist remedies for their problems, there is no absolute assurance that they will not do so in the future.
