Chai-Lites Help To Realize A Dream - A Van

The JCC's Sr. Adult Group, the Chai-Lites, continue to enjoy their Monday get-togethers for a program and lunch. Three of our November meetings were thought-provoking sessions that led to spirited discussions. Ms. Helene Koenigsburg, R.N., Mecklenburg Mental Health Services, held us as we explored the following topics: How to Be Heard in Your Own Family; Family Changes; What to Do When Others Around You Are Fussing. We also heard a lecture on contemporary Jewish literature prepared and presented by Ms. Jenny Rosenthal of the Charlotte Mecklenburg Public Library.

Mrs. Annie Goldberg, representing Chai-Lites, presented a $1250 check to Miles Levine, JCC President, at the Oct. Board of Director's Meeting, to be used towards purchase of JCC van.

December's programs will feature a speaker from Kaiser Permanente Medical Care Program, a Health Maintenance Organization for seniors, and a Chanukah pot luck party in conjunction with the students from the Hebrew Academy. Chai-Lites' biggest news is the VAN! The beautiful new van, a gift made possible by many friends and supporters of the JCC (including the Chai-Lites), is on the move!

Silent Auction

The Second Annual JCC Silent Auction, held on Saturday evening, November 3 at Charlotte's Marriot Executive Park, was attended by over 200 JCC members, friends and guests. They enjoyed the hors d'oeuvres, cocktails, dinner and dancing. Larry Farber's band played throughout the evening as guests perused the wide array of auction items displayed in the ballroom. From mink coats to room heaters, cultured pearls to outdoor grills, bidders were encouraged to write down their intended donations for the vast selection of items available. Linda Greenfeld, Chairperson of the 1985 Auction, her committee people and the JCC staff wish to extend their thanks to all who made the event a successful, entertaining and congenial evening.

We are pleased to report that our drive to collect private funds for the purchase of a van for the JCC has been gaining momentum. The JCC Board advanced the difference between what we collected and the price of the van so that we can begin making good use of it and not wait any longer.

We gratefully acknowledge the following who have purchased one or more shares at $250 per share:

| # of shares | # of shares |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Chai-Lites 5 | Nat Ades 1 |
| Berger Family 4 | Trevor Goldberg 1 |
