(L to R) Norman Levin, USCSFI Pres. Robt. Spivak, and Harry Swimmer.

Eric Seitlin

The U.S. Committee Sports For Israel elected Harry Swimmer a National Vice-President for the next four years. The election came at the USCSFI annual meeting held in Philadelphia in November. Norman Levin has been appointed to the board.

Dr. Harold Josephson has authored Biographical Dictionary of Modern Peace Leaders which includes sketches of such peace advocates as Mohandas Gandhi and Dag Hammarskjold, as well as many lesser known leaders. Josephson teaches history at UNCC and directs the university's Center of International Studies.

Rabbi Robert Seigel has been elected Chairman of the Charlotte Area Clergy Association for 1986.

Lisa Vernon, Director of Temple Beth El's Religious School, has qualified for the title of Reform Jewish Educator granted by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. The certificate was presented at the Conference of National Associations of Temple Educators in Toronto, Canada.

Stuart Schwartz is the new director of the York County Museum.

Several of our young people participated in the first major regional chess tournament in Cressville, TN Dec. 7-8. Those attending representing the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Scholastics Chess Association (CMSCA) were Rafi Goldberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Goldberg, a student at First Ward, who placed third in his division; Craig Kaufmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kaufmann, also of First Ward, received a second place trophy in his rating section. His brother, Scott Kaufmann, of McClintock Jr. High, placed second on the Jr. High level. In the individual novice awards, David Fox, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Fox, of Providence Day, took first place. His brother, Michael Fox, also participated. At the Primary grade level (K-3), Michael Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richie Klein, of Beverly Woods Elem., placed fourth. Daniel Goldberg, son of Dr. and Mrs. Trevor Goldberg, of Providence Day (K-3) was also on the team. President of the CMSCA is Larry Goldberg.

Richard A. Klein has been named to serve as a member of the UJA National Campaign Cabinet for the Campaign year 1987.

Dr. Scott Menaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Menaker, is now associated with Dr. Stephen Spiegler in the practice of General Dentistry.

Eric Seitlin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Larry Seitlin, a second grader at Beverly Woods School, played offensive tackle for the SouthPark Falcons of the Mecklenburg Football League. The Falcon's 8-1 record made them county champions. This was Eric's second year on the team; he started every game.

Mike Kane has published a pamphlet "The AT&T Break-Up: How You Can Save Up To 80%." Call him to learn more about this.

Cindy Solow has been named to the 1986 "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" directory. She is a student at UNCC.

At the recent United Synagogue of America convention at the Concord Hotel in N.Y., Hugo Rosenberger was elected Honorary Director and Jerome Levin was elected to the advisory board.

Temples Seek Unaffiliates

very important promise. When the six months are up, no one will twist your arm about joining. If we have lived up to our promises we won't have to. If we haven't, then we won't have earned your affiliation."

All three presidents and the hard working board members agree on one thing beyond the basic offer: they can and will live up to their promises!

For any reader of the Charlotte Jewish News not currently affiliated with one of the three Temples and not having received the letter, please call the Federation Office at 366-5007 to arrange for your free membership.

The Virginia Livingston Fund

This fund, in memory of the mother of Jill (Mrs. Ed) Newman, will be used to purchase some art work for the new building. Checks are to be made payable to The Foundation indicating that they are for this fund.
