Weather Report.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, Jan. 29—4:35 P. M.

Probabilities.

The barometer will probably continue to rise on Tuesday from New England to Florida, with cold northwest winds diminishing in force; rising barometer, with clearing weather and northwest winds, prevail on the lakes; northerly winds veer to the east, with increasing cloudy weather on the Gulf coast.

Dangerous winds are not anticipated for to-night on the South Atlantic or Gulf coasts.—Brisk northwest winds will prevail on the middle and east Atlantic.

Pavements.

Orders will soon be issued from the Mayor's office to repair and renew pavements in different parts of the city, now neglected. We suggest giving a trial to the lime rock pavement such as is going down on Seventh. There is nothing like limestone or marl for making substantial pavements, in our opinion.

Smuggling.

We find the following in the Washington Patriot of Saturday: "The customs officers at Wilmington, N. C., has telegraphed to the Treasury Department the fact of the smuggling ashore, at that port, of a large quantity of dutiable goods from the German bark Rhea. Orders have been given the Collector to take measures for the forfeiture of that vessel on this account."

A Weather Guide.

Two drachms of camphor, half a drachm of pure saltpetre, half a drachm of muriate of ammonia, and two ounces of proof spirits, in a glass tube or narrow phial, will make a pretty sure wea her guide. In dry weather the solution will remain clear. On the approach of change, minute stars will rise up in the liquid; while stormy weather will be indicated by the very disturbed condition of the chemical combination.

The Circus.

Haight & Co.'s circus opened here yesterday and the spacious pavilions were crowded both in the afternoon and at night. Much disappointment was experienced over the failure of the expected balloon ascension, which was indefinitely postponed on account of the wind being too high for the æreonaut to venture, he having a notion that he might drop into the ocean. A part of the performance was very good and some of it barely ordinary. La Petite Annie and Master Willie displayed some remarkable feats on horseback, considering their size and age, and the Miaco Brothers also rode very well. The most interesting and enjoyable feature of the entire exhibition, however, were the tricks of the performing dogs and monkeys, which were truly wonderful. The menagerie did not comprise as large nor as fine a collection of animals as we expected to see, but to those who have never witnessed such an exhibition there was much to interest and admire.

We hate to own it, but Haight & Co. have certainly taken a big pile of money from Wilmington.

All About Peanuts.

In a late number of the New York Commercial Advertiser there is an article from a correspondent, Eli Perkins, entitled "All About Peanuts," from which we make the following extract, at the same time not vouching for its correctness in every particular:

I now called on Dibble & Worth, No. 188 Pearl street, large peanut dealers. Mr. Worth had been down in North Carolina and is well acquainted with the culture of peanuts.

"How are they raised?" I asked.

"Well, many gentlemen have plantaions of 500 and 600 acres, all in peanuts. D. McMillan, the President of the Cape Fear (N. C.) Agricultural Society, has a mile square—a place almost as large as Central Park—covered with peanuts.

"They raise from 30 to 60 bushels to the acre. The ground is ploughed in the spring by the negroes, and the peanuts are planted in hills like potatoes. The vines grow like cucumbers. In the fall they are ploughed up, the peanuts sticking to the vines in clusters. After laying on the ground for a few days to dry they are taken away and run through a threshing machine. The hogs are turned into the field and soon root out and eat all the nuts left in the ground. Large droves of hogs are thus fattened in the fall. The threshing machine used was invented by Thos. Caldwell in 1858, and it is so arranged as to fan out all the light peanuts which have no meats in them. Peanuts are called in the South gubernuts, pinders and ground peas. Mr. W. I. Gore, of Wilmington, is the best authority on peanuts. He has done more to produce a uniform market than any other man. He buys a great many thousand bushels, sorts them over, divides the good ones from the bad and puts them on the market. His peanuts, marked "W. I. G., A. AA or AAA," are known everywhere in commerce."

Local Note.

— Yesterday was pronounced by many the coldest day of the season.

— See notice under head of "Lost and Found" of a large brass key lost.

— There will be an emergent meeting of St. John's Lodge, F. & A. M., this evening, at 7 o'clock.

— We return our thanks to Messrs. Zimmerman & White for the present of an excellent office chair cushion.

— The Templeton Troupe have engaged the Opera House for Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of the present week.

Delinquent tax-payers must look out or their property will be sold. See notice from City Clerk and Treasurer in another column.

— An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of New Hanover will be held at the Commercial Exchange this evening, at 8 o'clock.

— Messrs. George R. and Wm. A. French are laying a most substantial brick pavement on Dock and Fourth streets, around their dwellings.

— There was a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen held last evening to hear and consider the report of the Committee on Retrenchment.

— Mr. Murphy McNair informs us that the fire which consumed his dwelling could not have been accidental, as all the fire was put out before the family retired.

— Thanks to Mr. R. L. Harris for late copies of the Chimney Corner and N. Y. Ledger. Persons desirous of getting the latest and best should go to his stand on Front street.

— We are indebted to the Committee of Invitation for a complimentary ticket to the second annual hop of the "G. B.'s," to take place at Bond's Hall, Enfield, February 13th.

— The dangerous porch on North side of Market, between Front and Second streets, was taken down yesterday, very much to the satisfaction of pedestrians who frequent that thoroughfare.

— Orders were issued from the city authorities on Monday morning to suppress the turbulent bar room on Second, between Princess and Market streets, where the fight occurred on Saturday night.

Rose Watkins.

A brief note from Harry Watkins, the great comedian, in the Petersburg Index, which is intended as a correction of a slight error of that paper in reference to the genealogy of Rose Watkins, says:

Although both Mrs. Barney Williams and her sister, Mrs. W. J. Florence, are highly estimable ladies, who have won an enviable and deserved distinction in their profession, yet there is no relationship existing between themselves and Rose Watkins; this lady is the youngest sister of Mrs. John Hoey, so long the idol of the New York public as the leading actress of Wallack's great company, but now retired to private life. Previous to the "late unpleasantness" Rose W. was better known in this section as Mrs. Chas. Howard, and also in England, where the London Times, in a long analytical critique, pronounced her "the finest comedienne of American rearing that had ever appeared on the British stage."

A Threatened Row.

A difficulty occurred in the vicinity of the circus tent, yesterday, which at one time threatened to lead to serious consequences.—One of the attaches of the circus caught a colored woman in the act of looking under the canvass at the performance, when he seized her pretty roughly and pushed her away. Others say he struck her with a whip. At all events a large crowd of colored people immediately collected around the man and he was in a fair way to be converted into "sausage meat" when some of the policemen appeared on the scene and the man was taken to the Guard House. As he was doing nothing more than was required of him under the circumstances, we can only look at the action of the policemen in the premises in the light of a brilliant strategic move in order to prevent a serious difficulty, they having acted on the principle that it was easier to capture one man than forty or fifty. At any rate the malcontents were very well satisfied with the turn of affairs.

Superior Court.

In this tribunal, yesterday, about half the civil docket was called over and cases set for trial for the next two weeks. The trial of cases will commence this morning, at 10 o'clock, beginning with No. 8.

A Fashion Sheet.

We find on our table a profusely illustrated and handsomely printed fashion sheet entitled "H. & B. Emanuel's Journal of Fashion," for February, being the first number of a monthly paper purporting to be issued in this place. It contains a good deal of interesting matter about fashions, &c.

The Opera House.

A fine and very attentive audience greeted "Blind Tom" last night, to listen to his wonderful performance. We noticed the familiar faces of many of our prominent musicians among the audience and the general expression of opinion was, "it is indeed wonderful."

Taken as a pianist simply, "Blind Tom" will not rank with many professionals we have heard, even in this city, but when his age, and misfortunes are taken into consideration, his playing and imitations are indeed marvelous.

Among his concertative pieces we were especially pleased with Gottschalk's "Last Hope" and Thalburg's "Mois." His singing is peculiar and some of it very good. His imitations are wonderful and amusing, especially, tuning the Scotch fiddle, the harp and the guitar. His description of hearing the fiddle, speaking of himself in the third person, and his novel method of spelling was entertaining. He was placed with his back to the audience and any article displayed to the manager, was spelled to Tom by sounds on the piano, and he would immediately spell the article correctly and promptly. The performance closed with the "Battle of Manassas," which was fine and elicited hearty applause.

On the whole, it was a rare and wonderful entertainment and we advise all readers to go to-night, and see and hear for themselves this strangely gifted musical prodigy.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

[Condensed from the Raleigh Sentinel.]

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Jan. 27.

The Senate was called to order at the usual hour, Mr. President Warren in the chair.

CALENDAR.

The first business in order was the motion of Mr. Moore to reconsider the vote by which was defeated the bill to regulate the fees of county officers.

The motion prevailed and the bill passed its third reading—21 to 16.

Mr. McClammy, from the committee on penal institutions, presented a report with accompanying documents and a bill, on the matter of investigation into the manner in which the contract is being carried out in the erection of the penitentiary, which was made the special order for Monday next at 11 o'clock, and ordered to be printed.

The special order, the bill to amend the charter of the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad Company, was considered.

Mr. Troy submitted a substitute for the bill to meet the objections urged to the original bill.

Mr. Troy explained the substitute. It proposes to use the surplus labor of the convicts in the penitentiary in the construction of the road, and to feed and clothe them in the meantime, with a provision to shorten their term of servitude dependent upon their character and conduct.

Mr. Troy moved to strike out the section in regard to the pardoning power.

Mr. Worth moved to modify the bill by striking out the provision requiring the Penitentiary Board to farm out the convicts to this road by giving them authority so to hire them. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend by submitting the convict labor to competition, and he called the previous question on the passage of the bill. The amendment was adopted, and the bill passed its third reading—21 to 11.

The bill to establish a county by the name of "Graham," being the special order for 12 o'clock, was put upon its third reading.

The bill passed its third reading—21 to 15.

Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, moved to reconsider the vote and to lay that motion on the table. Adopted.

The bill to promote the mining interests of the State was put upon its third reading.

The bill passed its third reading—25 to 6.

Mr. Murphy reported from the committee of conference on the bill to change Sampson from the 4th to the 5th judicial district, recommending the adoption of the Senate bill simply transferring Sampson to the 5th district, and not interfering with Richmond; also proposing to pay Judge Buxton for holding this extra court.

Mr. Cowles called the previous question on the adoption of the report. Agreed to and the report was agreed to—23 to 12.

The bill to establish, near Wilmington, a hospital for the insane, was put upon its second reading, the question being on the substitute offered by the committee.—[The bill proposes to authorize a contract with private individuals to care for, on the plea of the State Asylum, such insane persons as cannot gain admission to that Asylum, and at the rate per case paid by the State for the support of patients in the State Asylum.]

Mr. McClammy said the substitute was satisfactory to all concerned.

Mr. Murphy explained and urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. Edwards opposed it and moved to postpone its further consideration till Monday at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Murphy supported the bill at some length.

Mr. McClammy moved to postpone till Tuesday next. Concurred in.

The bill to provide for additional accommodation for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, proposing to purchase the buildings of the Hillsboro' Military Institute, was laid on the table.

The bill to provide for an additional Lien failed to pass its second reading.

Price, col., introduced a bill to incorporate the Cyrenian Company, of Wilmington. Referred.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, introduced a resolution to rescind the resolution to adjourn on Wednesday next, and that the General Assembly adjourn sine die on Wednesday, February 7th. Adopted.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Jan. 27.

The House was called to order at the usual hour.

Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, moved to postpone the unfinished business in order that he might move a reconsideration of the vote by which the House, yesterday, concurred in the Senate amendments to the bill to aid in the completion of the Western Division of N. C. R. R. He was in attendance upon the penitentiary committee when the amendments were concurred in.

The motion to postpone was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Ashe moved to reconsider.

Mr. Welch moved to lay that motion on the table; lost.

The motion to reconsider was then put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Johnson, of Buncombe, moved that the House do not concur, and that a committee of conference be had.

After some debate, the motion to non-concur and raise a committee of conference prevailed.

Mr. Harris, of Guilford, introduced a bill in relation to the salary of the Governor; calendar.

Mr. Brown (by request of the Representative from Henderson,) introduced a bill to lay off and establish a new county by the name of "Badger;" calendar.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill in relation to the public debt being the unfinished business it was taken up. The question recurred upon Mr. Sparrow's amendments.

Mr. Sparrow occupied the floor in support of his amendments, but afterwards withdrew them at the request of his friends.

Mr. Welch moved to lay the bill on the table.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion to table did not prevail—yeas 57, nays 34.

The bill then passed its third reading, ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to protect bona fide purchasers of real estate was taken up, being the special order.

The bill passed its second and third readings with but little debate.

The bill to allow the commissioners of Sampson county to levy a special tax was taken up and passed its second reading—yeas 63, nays 9.

On motion of Mr. Ashe the bill amendatory of and supplementary to the act to raise revenue was taken up.

Mr. Ashe offered a substitute for the bill which was adopted and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Brooks the bill to authorize the commissioners of Brunswick to issue bonds was taken up and passed its second reading.

The bill in regard to writs of mandamus was taken up and passed its several readings.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

— Snow in Charlotte last Thursday.

— Five insane persons are confined in Craven jail.

— Harvey Tucker, shuffled off his mortal coil a few days ago, "being at the time 138 years old." He was a native of Buncombe county, North Carolina.

— The great silver mine reported to have been discovered on the property of Mr. Ephraim Clayton, in Madison county, turns out to be a magnificent hoax.

— Rt. Rev. Bishop Gibbons, of this Diocese, administered the Sacrament of Confirmation, on Sunday morning at the Catholic Church in Newbern. Several adults as well as children were confirmed, and the Bishop preached morning and evening.

— At Raleigh, on Friday night, Gen. Mat. Ransom, after four ballotings in the Democratic-Conservative caucus, was unanimously nominated to the United States Senate, to fill the vacancy made by the expiration of the term of service by J. C. Abbott, of New Hampshire.

— Thos. S. Deaver, Shepherd of the Radical flock of Madison co., and U. S. Commissioner, is still hounding down the honest people of that county. Three days of each week, the Carolina Citizen says, are devoted to the examination of cases brought before him by his sons and sons-in-law. Arrests are frequently made on blank warrants and the parties bound to appear at the Federal Court without proof of their guilt. Great excitement consequently prevails, and God only knows where the thing is to end.

— The Carolina Citizen, at Asheville, says: We are glad to learn that a number of Republicans of this section who opposed the Convention measure last summer have expressed themselves in favor of the action of the Legislature in the passage of an act to amend the constitution. They say that they were as anxious as any one for these changes in the constitution but were fearful of the constitutionality of the convention measure, but now knowing that the legislative mode is unquestionable they will give it their hearty support.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring,
He caught such a cold that he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate Batrachian! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head, or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised, but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and their throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

A Stable Institution.—Just at the period when all stable-men were complaining that the horse-ointments of the day were unstable remedies, the MUSTANG LINIMENT made its entree in Missouri, without any flourish of trumpets, and within one year, became the favorite embrocation for the external distempers and injuries of horses and cattle in all the Western and Southern States. From that time to this, it has never had a rival in the estimation of accomplished horsemen; nor is its household reputation as a cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore nipple and caked breasts, tumors, mumps, sore throat, earache, tooth ache, bruises, burns, wounds and sprains a whit behind its celebrity as a horse Liniment. The Mothers of America know its value, and apply it promptly to the external injuries of the "rising generation," and in fact there is not a city or township in the United States where the MUSTANG LINIMENT is not regarded by both sexes and every class as a blessing to the community.
