The State Canvass.

Judge Merrimon speaks at Winston on Oct. 18th.

Leach, Latham and Jarvis will speak at Granville on 10th inst.

Judge Fowle will address the people of Pitt on 30th inst., and Wilson on 16th.

The rads of Franklin are importing negroes from Warren county for election purposes.

Yeates is pushing things in his district. The sky is bright. Tyrrell will give an increased majority.

There is to be a grand Democratic rally and barbecue at Weldon on the 10th. A number of prominent speakers are to be on hand.

Eight white men, sixty negro men, and forty little darkies greeted the arrival of Judge Settle at Raleigh and escorted him to the Yarboro' House.

Respass took seventy-five drinks of water when he spoke at Camden Courthouse. Latham said to the crowd, that it was the first time he had ever seen a wind mill run by water.

Maj. Yeates writes the Elizabeth City Economist from Plymouth: "Our prospects are brighter than they were two years ago. I believe the general ticket will sweep this Senatorial District by 1,000 majority."

The Democrats of Cumberland had a large and interesting meeting at Pate's mill Saturday. There was a flag raising, and a number of ladies were present. Speeches were made by W. F. Campbell and Benj. Robinson.

The dirt-thrower of the Raleigh Constitution is hurling epithets at Hon. George Davis. As Tennyson told Christopher North, so it might be said now: "I can stand your censure but can not forgive your praise."

Rocky Mount Mail says of the attempt upon the Nash election results:

"We are reliably informed that large numbers of Edgecombe and Halifax negroes are flocking to Nash and hiring themselves as cotton pickers, and in this it is easy to see the game which the leading white Radicals are attempting to play. With $500 Sharp and company can colonize into this county and support a sufficient number of negroes to defeat our whole county ticket if they are not spotted and prevented from voting on the day of election."

Gov. Vance and Settle had a discussion at Johnson's store, in Wake. The News says:

The main discussion was very spirited. Gov. Vance was feeling remarkably well, his voice was much better than for some days. The large and enthusiastic crowd seemed to imbue him with renewed vigor, and he just went for the Judge with gloves off, and handled him as if he was on a rack. The Judge took it well, and bore up under it like a martyr. In Gov. Vance's rejoinder he was eloquent and brought out facts that were crushing and unanswerable. Judge Settle had charged that Maj. Russ had said that at a certain time during the war, Gov. Vance had returned from Richmond and had said to him (Maj. Russ) that the war must be prosecuted with new vigor, and that there was no reason why he (Gov. Vance) should not be next President of the Southern Confederacy.

Gov. Vance denied that he had ever said any such thing.

Judge Settle asked him if it was not true.

Gov. Vance replied: "No it is not; I answer every question you ask me, now are you in favor of civil rights?"

NO ANSWER.

Here is a pleasant episode in the Johnston county campaign. Woodson, of the Wilson Advance, is a clever fellow, and delights in contributing to the comfort of others. We copy from the Raleigh News. Settle was speaking:

"The sun was shining upon Judge Settle, and, with his customary gallantry, Woodson raised an umbrella and held it over the Judge for one hour and a half. When Gov. Vance rose to speak Woodson again stepped up, with a bright face and polite address, and proposed to hold the umbrella over him. Vance smiled but declined, saying: 'No man in America can put me in the shade.'"

Cattle Stealing—Two of the Thieves in Custody.

A gentleman of this city called on Justice Gardner, a few days since, and complained that he had lost several head of cattle recently from his place on the west side of the river, having had a fine cow stolen from him the night previous. The magistrate promised that he would take the matter into consideration and do what he could for him. Mr. W. P. Holland was put on the track, and soon succeeded in obtaining what he supposed to be a clew to the missing stock and the thieves who had stolen them. It seems that a butcher in the southern part of the city, of whom he had made some inquiries without success, soon afterward sent for him and stated that two colored men had called upon him later with two quarters of beef to sell. He gave Mr. Holland the names of the two men, and they were subsequently arrested, whereupon one of them, named John McGill, proffered to tell what he knew about the matter. He said that Charles Howard, Paris Brown and himself, all living on the Howard plantation, adjoining that of Col. J. D. Taylor, in Brunswick county, visited the plantation of the latter gentleman on the night of the 5th instant, and stole a fine cow, which they had butchered, and that the two quarters of beef alluded to were portions of Col. Taylor's cow.

In company with McGill, Mr. Holland visited the scene of the robbery for the purpose, if possible, of identifying the property, and was piloted by McGill to the place where the cow was butchered, the entrails, hide, horns, &c., of which were found buried in a hole in the rice field. While the investigation was in progress, however, McGill, seizing a favorable opportunity, suddenly made a dash for a thick piece of woods near at hand and succeeded in making his escape, being still at large; but his two companions in iniquity, Charles Howard and Paris Brown, were safely lodged in jail, where they will await further investigation into the matter.

There appears to be but little doubt that the cattle stolen from the gentleman alluded to in the outset owe their disappearance to the same source.

Meeting in Cape Fear Township.

The Democratic voters of Cape Fear township, in this county, assembled at Castle Hayne, yesterday, for the purpose of electing a county Executive Committee for that township.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. A. J. Graddy, whereupon Mr. David S. Saunders was elected Chairman and Mr. J. Johnson Secretary.

The object of the meeting was stated, upon which a vote was taken and Mr. Jno. W. St. George was elected as one of the County Executive Committee.

The meeting then adjourned, after which the Tilden and Vance Club was called to order, and Mr. J. H. Currie, of this city, made a most capital speech, setting forth the wrongs we had received from Radical rule, and showing conclusively that the only hope we have is in the success of the Democratic party. Mr. Currie is an effective speaker and is sure to accomplish good for the party wherever he addresses the people.

A Scrimmage.

A fight took place on the wharf yesterday morning between two men, one white and the other colored, during which the former struck the latter over the head with a dinner pot. The pot was fractured and the head of the colored individual slightly bruised. The two men were arrested and taken to the Marshal's office, where they were recognized in the sum of $50 each for their appearance before the Mayor's Court to-morrow morning.
