Stann Reiziss

Susan Jackson

Irving Edelman

Dr. Stann Reiziss was elected first vice president for 1985-86 and 1986-87 of the Association to Advance Ethical Hypnosis. He is a certified hypnotherapist and director of Hypnosis Information and Referral here.

Susan Jackson has been named training and development associate, BarclaysAmerican Corp., Charlotte. She was formerly adult program director of the JCC.

Gov. Jim Martin has made eight appointments to the 24-member N.C. Council on the Holocaust. Among them are Susan Cernyak-Spatz and Roslyn Greenspon.

Alexis Lerner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lerner, won in the 14 and under girls doubles tennis category of the 1985 Pepsi Junior Indoor Championship. It was held at the Charlotte Tennis Club.

Irving Edelman, an educator/administrator with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools since 1947, will retire on Feb. 13. He will be kept busy, however, with hopes of completing his doctoral program, begun two years ago, plus continuing his interests in piano, writing and perhaps some part-time teaching. Come June he expects to be at Wimbledon to watch a son-in-law compete in the tennis tournament there.

TO LIFE has received a $10,000 grant from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation.

Lina (Mrs. Herman) Levine won third place in the Guild of Charlotte Artists Exhibit shown in the Lobby of the Knight Publishing Building.

Elizabeth Klein To Receive BBW Human Relations Award

By Meryle Elko

Charlotte Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women is proud to announce Elizabeth Klein as the recipient of its 1986 Human Relations Award.

As Student-Family Coordinator of the Charlotte Exchange Student Program, Elizabeth Klein's role required her to act as an arbitrator when problems arose between host parents and the students. On many occasions, her involvement had prevented small issues from becoming major disputes.

After World War II, Elizabeth participated in resettling Latvian refugees. She counseled Russian Jewish refugees, locating sources and supplies for them, driving them to appointments and jobs, to Temple and assisting their children with school problems and college applications. She still remains close to many of these families.

The success of the Hornet's Nest Girl Scout Council's program can be attributed to such leaders as Elizabeth Klein. She was chairperson of the Program Committee. In this capacity, Elizabeth worked with senior girls with their "Public Relation Aid" program and served on the Girl Scout Board of Directors for many years.

Elizabeth Klein's understanding of civic needs was illustrated by her involvement in the Unaccompanied Minors Program of the Lutheran Family Services. This program is for "Boat Children" who have escaped Vietnam and who have left their families behind. Elizabeth and her family have been a support for Thanh and Tuyet Nguyen for the last 2½ years.

She has served on the boards of the YWCA, Matthews PTA, Charlotte Hadassah, Charlotte B'nai B'rith Women and Temple Beth Shalom Sisterhood. In addition, Elizabeth was past president of Temple Beth El Sisterhood and vice chairperson, Providence precinct, of the Democratic Party.

This award will be presented on Feb. 19 at Temple Beth El. Seating for this catered luncheon will be at 11:30 a.m.; lunch served at noon. Cost is $7.50 per person. Your check, made payable to Charlotte BBW and received by Feb. 14, is your reservation. If more than one reservation is made, please include names of all people attending. Checks are to be mailed to: Human Relations Award, 2425 Quail Lake Drive, Charlotte, NC 28210. For more information call Dorothy Shapiro, 364-3724 or Meryle Elko, 552-6633.
