RESOLUTION FOR COUNTING THE ELECTORAL VOTE SUBMITTED IN SENATE —BILLS INTRODUCED—THE ELECTORAL COUNT RESOLUTION TAKEN UP IN THE HOUSE—THE REPUBLICANS FILLIBUSTER TO PREVENT A VOTE ON THE PREVIOUS QUESTION

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—Mr. Ingalls submitted a resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate will be ready to receive the House of Representatives in the Senate Chamber on Wednesday, February 9th, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of being present at the opening and counting of the votes for President and Vice President of the United States; that two persons be appointed tellers on the part of the Senate, to make a list of the votes for President and Vice President of the United States, as they shall be declared; that the result shall be delivered to the President of the Senate, who shall announce the state of the vote, which shall be entered on the Journal, and if it shall appear that a choice has been made agreeably to the Constitution such entry on the Journal shall be deemed sufficient declaration thereof.

Mr. Wright objected to the present consideration of the resolution, and it was laid over and ordered to be printed.

Bills were introduced and referred as follows:

By Mr. Morgan, to extend the postal service to foreign countries. Referred to committee on Post Offices and Post Roads.

By Mr. Call, for the improvement of certain rivers and harbors in the State of Florida. Tabled and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Call forwarded to the Clerk the credentials of his colleague, Charles W. Jones, elected for the term commencing March 4th, 1881. Read and filed.

The Indian Land-in-severalty bill was then taken up and discussed at some length, but at 4.35 the Senate without action on it, went into executive session, and when the doors were reopened, adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A motion to dispense with the morning hour was defeated—80 to 32, and the Speaker, as the regular order, directed the Clerk to finish the reading of the bill which was pending at the expiration of the last morning hour.

Mr. Money, of Mississippi, chairman of the committee on Postoffices and Post-roads, reported back the resolution directing the committee to inquire into the expediency of establishing a telegraphic postal system under the government of the United States; and also into the cost of reproducing facilities for transmitting telegraphic messages equal to those now possessed by existing corporations; and into the cost of operating the same, and granting the committee leave to send for persons and papers. House calendar.

Mr. Bicknell, of Indiana, called up the resolution proposing a joint rule for counting the electoral votes.

Mr Speer, of Georgia, asked Mr. Bicknell to yield to him to call up the contested election case of Yeates vs. Martin.

Mr. Field, of Mississippi, hoped the gentleman would not do that. The report in that case had just been presented, and the House should be allowed two or three days to examine it.

After some time spent in a vain attempt to arrive at some determination in reference to the time to be consumed in debate, Mr. Speer gave notice that he would call up the election case to-morrow after the morning hour.

Mr. Cobb, of Indiana, from the committee on Appropriations, reported the District of Columbia appropriation bill, which was ordered to be printed and recommitted.

Mr Bicknell then demanded the previous question on the Morgan electoral resolution.

Mr. Conger, of Michigan, raised the question of consideration in favor of Mr. Field.

The vote by division stood 119 to 110 in favor of taking up the electoral resolution. Messrs. Stephens, Felton and Speer, of Georgia, voted with the Republicans.

A vote by yeas and nays resulted yeas 130, nays 124, in favor of taking up the electoral resolution. This was a strict party vote except that Messrs. Felton, Speer and Stephens of Georgia, voted in the negative with the Republicans. Of the Greenbackers, Ladd and Stevens voted in the affirmative, and Jones, Lowe, Russell of North Carolina, Murch, Gillet, Weaver and Yocum in the negative.

Mr. Becknell again demanded the previous question.

Mr. Conger moved a call of the House.

The Speaker ruled that the motion was not in order, since the last vote taken showed more than a quorum present.

Mr. Conger appealed from the decision of the chair.

Mr. Blount moved to lay the appeal on the table.

The Republicans then abstained from voting and left the House without a quorum. This, of course, compelled another call of the House. In this way the Republicans continued to fillibuster until 4 o'clock. After half a dozen roll calls the House refomed itself in exactly the same situation which it had been three hours previously, or, as Mr. Reagan of Texas, expressed it, the House merely went up for a while and then came down again.

The tactics of the Republican side were to answer to their names on a call of the House, but to remain silent upon the motion to table the appeal, thus leaving the House without a quorum, and forcing a call of the House.

At 4.15 a motion to adjourn was defeated —yeas 127, nays 129. Another call of the House was ordered, and then at 5 10 the House adjourned.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

HOUSE OF COMMONS IN SESSION ALL NIGHT—DEBATE CONFINED TO THE IRISH MEMBERS—MR. GLADSTONE DECLARES HE CANNOT ACCEPT A COMPROMISE—REJOICINGS IN IRELAND OVER RESULT OF THE STATE TRIALS.

[By Cable to the Morning Star.]

LOLDON, Jan. 26, 2 P. M.—The House of Commons was still in session at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The discussion is confined principally to the Irish members, who are repeatedly called to order, but the debate is good humored.

Right Hon. L Fairplay, deputy speaker, has relieved the speaker.

Premier Gladstone reentered the House at twenty minutes past 10 o'clock, and was loudly cheered.

Right Hon. M. E Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has been absent four hours during the night. The Conservatives are also working by relays.

Mr. Gladstone, about 1 P. M., declared that he could not accept a compromise, but if a vote be now taken on the main question the adjourned debate on Mr. Forster's bill would be resumed to-morrow, today's sitting having virtually gone.

DUBLIN, Jan. 26.—As soon as the result of the State trials was known in Dungarvar the town was brilliantly illuminated and bands paraded the streets. Mention of the traversers' names was cheered, and the surrounding hills were ablaze for twenty miles.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—The House of Commons is still sitting.

At half-past 10 o'clock this morning the repeated motion for adjournment was moved by the Home Rules and successfully resisted by the government with the assistance of the Conservatives, which early in the evening was promised to Sir Stafford Northcote, the Conservative leader.

Mr. Parnell arrived in the House shortly after 10 o'clock this morning and was enthusiastically received by his supporters.

It is impossible to tell how long the struggle will continue. Mr. Dillon, Home Rule member for Tipperary, is now speaking.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to Reuters Telegram Company this evening, says a report has reached here that Gen. Skobeloff's forces have stormed Geek Tepe. There are no details of the action.

In the House of Commons to-day, the speeches of the Irish members were mostly rambling and uninteresting.

Mr. Dawson, liberal member for Carlowborough, said that Mr. Foster was seeking to impose laws against which the country would rise en masse.

Mr. Gladstone's speech, in which he declared he could not accept the compromise, was in reply to the suggestion of Mr Parnell, that a division might now be taken if the government would agree to postpone debate on Mr Foster's bill until Thursday.

Mr Stafford Northcote intimated the intention of the Conservatives to continue the session if necessary.

The House divided at 2 o'clock, P. M., and Mr. Gladstone's motion to give precedence to Mr. Forster's protection bills was carried by a vote of 251 to 53

The House then adjourned until Thursday.

The Times, in an editorial article this morning says: "The Dublin trial is sufficient to show the helplessness and inadequacy of the ordinary law to repress all illegal organization and agitation of large dimensions, but that the perplexity of the Dublin jury will not prevent Englishmen from forming their own conclusions in regard to the real character of the agitation. If no supplementary legislation is forthcoming, the miscarriage of the Dublin trial will be hailed in some quarters as establishing and sanctioning license."

Mr. Gladstone, replying to the correspondent who inquired as to the truth of the rumor that he is about to enter the House of Lords because of ill health, says it is perfectly groundless.

The Globe, this evening, says the horse armory and White Tower containing the armory at the tower of London, have been closed to the public in obedience to instructions to the War Office, issued on account of apprehended Fenian disturbances.

LONDON, January 26, 6 P. M.—Gen. Skobeloff telegraphs from Geek Tepe, on the 24th, announcing that the Russians on that day captured Geek Tepe and Gengil Tepe, after nine hours' desperate fighting, and that the Tekke Turcomans are in full retreat. "Their loss," he says, "was immense. They were pursued and cut down for a distance of fifteen verats. Our victory is complete. We captured a quantity of arms, ammunition and prisoners. Our loss is now being ascertained. Our troops fought heroically."

THE LEGISLATURE SUCCEEDS IN ELECTING U. S. SENATOR.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

NASHVILLE, Jan. 26.—The thirtieth ballot for Senator stood—Jackson 70, Maynard 25, Rose 1. As soon as Mr. Jackson was declared elected he was lifted out of his seat and escorted to the stand, where he said he would do whatever lay in his power to allay all sectional agitation and bring prosperity to the country.
