Two little boys were badly burned by a kerosene oil explosion near Houston, Texas. —Balloting continued at Albany yesterday for U. S. Senators without change. —Two-thirds of the business part of the town of Warrenton, N. C., was burnt Friday night; losses about half covered by insurance. —The Miami oil and soap works, at Cincinnati, burned yesterday morning; loss $200,000; insurance about $60,000. —Crowd at the Coney Island races very large; weather very warm. —Directors of the Augusta & Knoxville railroad refused an offer of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad Company to subscribe $300,000 to the capital stock, money to be used to build a branch to Elberton, on the city of Augusta will retain control of the stock. —A woolen factory and leather factory at Appleton, Wis., burnt; loss $60,000; three hundred men thrown out of employment. —A large distillery burned at Bethany, Pa.; loss $150,000; partially insured. —An attempt to burn two Roman Catholic churches at Quebec has been discovered and thwarted. —An officer was killed and several sailors were injured by an explosion on the British iron clad Monarch, in Galetta bay.

New York markets: Money 2@3½; sixty day cotton dull and easy at 11 1-16@11 3-16; wheat a shade lower, ungraded spring $1 14, corn heavy and fully 1c lower, ungraded 56@57 cents, spirits turpentine easy at 45 cents, rosin firm at $2 05@2 10.

There is much demoralization reported among the employes of the canal company in the Isthmus. They are all despondent and in the dumps.

Surely the good people of Onslow county cannot be "forment" the drug-shop bill? We are amazed. Can such things be? But, seriously, how will New Hanover vote?

Robert Bonner says his two horses, Rarus and Edwin Forrest, can beat 2:10. He thinks Rarus can beat 2:08. They have made 2:10¼. He expects to trot them in the fall against time.

Grant says he indorses all that Sherman said in reply to Mr. Davis. Sherman has been proved by Senator Hampton to have wilfully slandered him and to have lied deliberately. Grant was proved a falsifier by President Johnson. "Birds of a feather," etc.

On the 14th inst. the British House of Commons passed a resolution declaring that legislative measures should be taken to give local communities the power to protect themselves against the operation of the liquor traffic. It is not thought that the House of Lords will pass the bill.

Some of the Radical organs have discovered that Grant is a dead weight to any man of his party seeking office. He received 306 votes for President at Chicago, and came near being nominated. We do not care how much ungrateful Radicals kick Grant, but it looks mean in view of their own records.

"The Lone Fisherman," of New York State, Wheeler by name, once heard of in connection with the Vice Presidency under the Fraudulent Administration, actually received 34 votes for United States Senator in the New York Legislature. Senatorial timber is very scarce, evidently, in the big State. It is knotty, crooked, sappy, twisted and in parts rotten.

Grant says, "I captured Lee's army." You did, and it took over 200,000 men and over eleven months to do it. You lost more men in killed and wounded than Lee had during the entire eleven months and you know it, oh, Ulysses. So dry up about your capture. We heard one of your officers say in 1865, that no man in the Union army was so much indebted for his reputation to the silence of brother officers as you were. So don't bray.

About the first article we wrote on the new revision afforded us opportunity to say that it would be revised, we had no doubt, and certain other corrections made. That this will be done we are almost assured. Those who have examined it have noticed in the back part certain changes proposed by the committee of American revisers that were not adopted. The best American critics not on the committee approve of nearly all of the rejected emendations. We are informed that an American house will issue a New Testament as corrected by the American revisers, and it will be copyrighted as "The American Version."

The New York Times condoles the Czar by telling him that he can hire an Ohio man to take his place, and then he can retire under an assumed name and spend his days in quiet in some other land. It says, and the suggestion is both weighty and timely:

"That monarch could not do better than to send for a list of Ohioans not yet appointed to office, and to make a bargain with half a dozen of them, and whenever one of his substitutes should be killed by the Nihilists he could laugh in his sleeve or other convenient place, and feel thankful that Ohio still had other men waiting to accept profitable positions."

It says, further, that Alexander III. is safe from the plots of his own family. They all desire greatly that he should live. They are not anxious to take their turn. It says:

"In former days the immediate heir of the Czar was always engaged in conspiring against him, and, in most cases, killed him at an early period of his reign."

Mr. Hale, in his last letter to the Fayetteville Examiner, says:

"A Boston lady is very much pleased with the Revised New Testament, because, as she says, "it leaves out hell and all these horrid things."

That "Boston lady," like so many others who have given an opinion of the merits of the new revision, criticized before reading. The famous and witty Sydney Smith, when one of the chief contributors to the Edinburgh Review, in the first year of this century, said, "review the book then read it." There is a plenty of "hell" in the new revision, and it is as hot as the "hell" of the old, for it is a translation of the same word. Some falsifier telegraphed from London to certain American papers that there was no "hell" in the new revision, and this lie has gone the rounds. The Bostonian jumped at a conclusion, but that is better than jumping the truth or jumping into the place translated "hell."

Superior Court.

The following were the only important cases which claimed the attention of the Court on the last day of the session.

Matthew P. Taylor vs. National Bell Telephone Company. The defendant moved for a new trial. On the count for breach of contract the Court required the plaintiff to remit of the recovery of $900 to $500, which was agreed to, and a new trial as to that issue was refused; and as to the second count, for the libel, the Court refused to set aside the verdict, or to grant a new trial, and required a judgment on the verdict for $5,500. From this judgment the defendant appealed. The appeal not being accompanied by any bond other than for the costs, does not operate to stay the execution, which will go on.

Matthew P. Taylor vs. James M. Ormes. The plaintiff submitted to have the demurrer to the first cause of action sustained. As to the answer to the second cause, for libel, on the motion of the plaintiff the Court ordered the answer filed by the agent of the defendant to be stricken out, and allowed a judgment by default against Ormes, with a writ of enquiry to ascertain the damages. From which the defendant appealed.

Stealing Money.

Phil. Turner, the colored boy charged with stealing ten dollars in money from Celia Osborn, colored, had a preliminary hearing before Justice Millis yesterday morning. The evidence appeared to be quite conclusive as to his guilt, and at the close of the examination the defendant was ordered to give a bond with good security for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was sent to jail.

Local Note.

— First Sunday after Trinity.

— Receipts of cotton yesterday 52 bales.

— Day's length 14 hours and 34 minutes.

— Crops are looking finely all along the line of the railroads from Wilmington to Washington.

— Only one case for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning, and that was turned over to a magistrate.

— The box-sheet for the "Pirates of Penzance" appears to be pretty rapidly filling up. Better secure a seat at once.

— The Washington excursionists have about recovered from their fatigue, but they will never tire of talking about the trip.

— Rev. J. W. Craig will conduct services at Dudley's Grove, in the southern part of the city, this afternoon, at half past 4 o'clock.

— Public sentiment in Washington, as ascertained by the late visitors from this city, was pretty generally with Garfield as against Conkling.

— Rev. C. M. Payne having returned there will be the usual services in the Second Presbyterian church to-day at 11 A. M., and 8.15 P. M.

— The Register of Deeds issued eight marriage licenses during the past week, of which four were for white and four for colored couples.

— A fishing party for the "Snapper Banks" has been arranged—to start from the city at 7:30 P. M. Thursday next, on the steamer Passport. See advertisement.

— George Jackson, a prominent colored man, formerly a deputy sheriff under Schenck, and who has since frequently officiated as a tax collector, died yesterday.

— We would suggest to our tax listers the propriety of giving our mechanics and working men an opportunity of listing their taxes at such hours as would not require a loss of time, which is money to them.

— The assessors for the townships outside of the city will meet in the Commissioners' room at the Court House on Thusday, the 23d inst., for the purpose of taking the lists of those residents of the city having property in those townships.

— Judge Graves doesn't wish to be "interviewed," but he is against prohibition. As a private citizen, he thinks Surry, Yadkin and Wilkes counties will vote against the prohibition bill by a very large majority. The Judge lives in Surry.

— Arrangements which were desirable and important to be made before the corner-stone of the new three story brick building on the grounds of the Orphan Asylum, at Oxford, N. C. (for the use of the boys), was laid, has induced the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of the State to defer the celebration on the 24th instant until a future day, which will be as soon as the arrangements are completed, of which due notice will be given.

The Colored Republicans.

George W. Price, Jr., who was chairman of the delegation of colored Republicans appointed by the Convention held at Raleigh last month to protest against the unfair distribution of Federal offices in this State, and who was selected as their spokesman on the occasion of their interview with President Garfield on Wednesday last, says that the following is a correct version of the President's reply on that occasion. In reply the President said he sympathized deeply with them in this phase of the situation: that he had no means of knowing the standing of such applicants from North Carolina as were appointed to offices, save through the representations of the party leaders in the State; that it had been his belief, and he had exemplified that belief in his action, that the colored race should be promptly recognized whenever an opportunity offered, as in the appointment of Douglass as Recorder of Deeds and Bruce as Register of the Treasury. He admonished the delegation that they should be particularly cautious in recommending one of their own race for an office, because if any mistakes were made, or the object of their choice should prove unworthy of his trust, it would have a greater influence to prejudice such appointments than if the appointee were a white man with the same faults. He promised them that if they recommended any individual appointments within his gift he would give their wishes due consideration.

The delegation, Price says, were perfectly satisfied with the result of their visit to the President and other officials.

Colored Firemen.

At a regular meeting of the First Ward Bucket Company the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Emanuel Nichols, Foreman; Elisha Gause, 1st Assistant; Richard Gause, 2nd Assistant; George Hayes, President; Sam. Riley, Treasurer; Sandy Robinson, Secretary; Daniel Bryan, Chairman of the Sick Committee.

Unmailable Matter.

The following is the unmailable matter remaining in the city postoffice up to this date:

Samuel Simpson, Stump Sound, N. C., no stamp; Wm. A. Bridges, Cainhoy, S. C., stamp cut from a government envelope—not good for postage; Henry B. Car, no destination.

Daily Weather Bulletin.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations named, at 8.00 P. M. yesterday, Washington mean time, and also the amount of rainfall in inches for the twenty-four hours ending daily at 3 P. M., except Tuesday, when it is 48 hours, as furnished by the Signal Officer of this city:

Our Crowning Effort.

THE READERS OF THE "STAR" DOUBTless remember OTTERBOURG'S advertisement in last Sunday's issue, addressed especially to "Friends in the Country," said advertisement showing in plain English the advantages gained by ordering a Dress Suit, a Business Suit, Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery, and every thing in the Men's Wear Line from OTTERBOURG'S Popular Iron Front Store. Everybody remembers, certain, and Otterbourg refers to it with much pride. This past week orders have been pouring in from all sections of the country. Suits ranging in price from $6.00 to $35.00, Ulsters, Dusters, Shirts, Underwear—even down to a stylish Scarf; all these have been sent by Mail and Express to delighted patrons. One old gentleman, way down in Georgia, writes for five (5) Suits, to be shipped C.O.D., subject to the approval of himself and his four sons. Our enterprise is appreciated even out of the limits of our own State; indeed business has increased ten fold since the introduction of the order system.

OTTERBOURG is offering Bargains in Clothing and Furnishing Goods, and is driving a swift business—thanks to Fair Dealing and a Well Selected Stock. Verily, our efforts have been CROWNED WITH SUCCESS. ☞ SEND ON YOUR ORDERS. je 19 1t
