

Charlotte BBW Presents
"Parenting With a Purpose"

"Parenting With a Purpose" is Charlotte B'nai B'rith Women's newest program. On the third Thursday of every month, professionals are invited to speak with parents on different aspects of parenting. Our first program featured Dr. Paul Putterman, Pediatrician, and Dr. Scott Goodman, Pedodontist, who answered questions on various medical and dental problems and developments. Other programs have included hazards in your home and community, suicide prevention, television and your child, and a CPR class through the American Red Cross. All classes are open to the community and babysitting is provided. While the parents are learning to become more effective in their parenting role, the children get an opportunity to socialize.

scheduled: Feb. 20, Pat Sigefield of the Public Library will speak on how a child develops through books and what to look for in a book for the appropriate age of the child. March 20, a representative from Piedmont Airlines and AAA Motor Club will discuss traveling with children. April 17, "safety and your child" by a representative from the Charlotte Police Department giving advice and information. In May, we will hear from child psychologist and author of Parent Power, John Rosemond. This program will be in the evening so all interested parents can attend.

If you would like more information contact Judy Miller, 542-5921 or Meryle Elko, 552-6633. This program is open to the community.
