MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The mandamus case of Chalmers vr. Myers was tried at Jackson, Miss.; a verdict was given for the plaintiff, and an appeal was then taken to the Supreme Court. —— The London Times, on recent events in France, says that if French statesmen continue to be wanting, the republic will go headlong to ruin. ——Pope Leo has appointed Mgr. Northrop to the vacant See of Charleston, S. C., in succession to the late Bishop Lynch. ——Ex-Empress Eugenie has returned to London; she was notified by the French Government that her presence in France was not desirable; the Orleans Princes agree to their expulsion; the political panic at Paris is unabated; the Cabinet is virtually defunct; a military pronunciamento is freely talked of; fund holders are throwing their stocks on the market. ——The N. C. Legislature has extended for two years the act providing for the settlement of the State debt. ——Two negroes murdered H. H. Rudd in his store in Walker county, Ga.; they were captured and jailed at Chattanooga, Tenn. ——In Russell county., Va., two white men were taken from jail by masked men; it is believed they were lynched by persons whom they had swindled out of about $18,000 worth of cattle. ——The Princess Louise embarked for Bermuda; the Marquis of Lorne left for Canada; all Charleston turned out to see them and the German artillery fired a salute. ——Southern Pacific Railroad officials think that the recent accident on that road was caused by an attempt to rob the train. ——Part of the town of Wilkesbarre, Pa., is sinking into a coal mine which underlies it. —— New York markets: Money 3@4 per cent.; cotton steady at 10 3 16@10 7-16 cents; southern flour steady at $4 30@6 85; wheat, ungraded red $1 01@$1 16; corn, ungraded 62@70c; rosin firm and quiet at $1 60@1 67½; spirits turpentine dull and weak at 32½.

There is a report that the city treasurer of Savannah is a defaulter.

The Langtry played to a large house in Memphis and was very courteously treated.

France seems to be getting in a bad way. The London Times thinks the great want is true statesmanship. There is a panic and a Ministerial crisis.

There is talk of appointing Gen. Jo Johnston as one of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. It is said Grant, Cameron and other influential Republicans favor it.

Rose Eytinge's name is pronounced Etting. She gave great satisfaction in Richmond, as she always does, for she is really a fine artist, and her support "was very good," says the State.

There is thought to be some doubt as to the Senatorial complexion after March 4th. Mr. Randall writes to his paper, the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle:

"Talking with Ben Perley Poore, the veteran journalist, I called his attention to the "mortuary statistical probabilities" involving about fifteen Republican Senators who are under the check of Democratic Governors and Legislatures. He admitted that it was a broad margin of uncertainty, but added that the future must determine upon which side the Lord would be next December."

The Democrats in the House will insist upon a consideration of the tobacco bill before the tariff bill is taken in hand. The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch writes:

"If anything is done for tobacco it will be done through the Senate tariff bill. So far the Senate has voted for twelve cents, but the tobacco men hope, if action is taken, to secure a reduction to eight cents."

They are much dissatisfied with the proposed duty on sugar, and say it is practically prohibitory.

It is said the party lash has to be used sharply in Washington to keep the Republican members all in line, as some seem much inclined to go after a low tariff. There are several Western members who are ready for a bolt. Mr. J. R. Randall writes to the Augusta Chronicle concerning the outlook as follows:

"The Republican leaders know that they cannot carry the next Presidential election, unless the protected industries, with their prodigious capital and huge army of workingmen, can be assured that they will fare better under the existing order of things political than under a Democratic administration, with its free-trade shibboleth. The Western men are to be plumply told that the fat will be all in the fire unless the party stands as a unit for the Eastern money power and its mammoth monopolies. This kind of argument is expected to be irresistible."

— Mr. W. B. Lee, well known throughout this section of the country, left for Texas on December 18th, with his family, eleven in all.—Robesonian.

L. A. Smith, Esq., Newberne, N. C., says: "I know Brown's Iron Bitters to be a good remedy for malarial troubles." †

Spirits Turpentine.

— Rhea is billed for Charlotte on the 9th of July.

— The old town academy at Charlotte is burnt.

— Rutherford has a man six feet ten inches tall. He is said to be the tallest in the State.

— Charlotte Observer: There were thirteen fertilizer drummers at the Central Sunday, and thirty-five commercial men representing other lines, making in all forty-eight drummers at this hotel in one day.

— New Berne Journal: In New Berne, though we have but one dealer, the price of coal is kept down to $6.25. —— Died, on Monday morning last, at 3 o'clock A. M., Frank J. Fulford, in the 29th year of his age.

— Greensboro Patriot: Ben Ellis, a negro man who has been confined in jail at Lexington for train robbery, escaped Saturday night by removing the brick from the fire place in his cell, and letting himself to the ground by means of a rope made from his blankets. —— The reported case of small-pox at Warm Springs terminated fatally. The victim was a small boy.

— Raleigh Visitor: During the sleet of last Tuesday the Rev. Joseph H. Wheeler fell, and sustained injuries which have kept him confined to his room ever since. —— Thos. Roseboro, colored, from Iredell county, made his escape from the penitentiary yesterday morning. He was a cook. —— Out of 256 men conducting the mercantile business in this city in the year 1873, there are only 37 of that number engaged in business now.

— Charlotte Journal: The estimate of unpicked cotton in the county has grown to 1,000 bales, a greater part of which will probably never be gathered. —— A serious affray occurred at the R. & D. freight depot yesterday between Cal. Phifer and one of Mr. Edward's drivers, which resulted in Phifer's being struck deaf by a blow over the left ear with an iron bar in the hands of the driver. —— There is now some talk in Charlotte of organizing a Board of Trade, the object of which shall be to encourage the establishment of new enterprises in and around the city. —— Winston-Salem dots: A little son of Albert Brindle was shot through the hand by the discharge of a pistol. —— Waughtown is a very flourishing village two miles from Salem.

— Raleigh News-Observer: His friends and the public generally will be pleased to hear of the reappointment of Mr. T. C. Harris to his old place in charge of the Geological Museum. —— Died, at Selma, N. C., Mr. John A. Waddell, of typho-malarial fever, after an illness of twenty-nine days. Mr. Waddell was a very clever gentleman and was a son of Mr. Maurice Q. Waddell. ——For some weeks there had been rumors that the firm of W. T. Blackwell & Co. was to be dissolved, Mr. Blackwell withdrawing after disposing of his interest. A week ago we published the fact that the sale had been made, but were in error in saying that Mr. Blackwell reserved a royalty on the Durham bull brand. It was an actual sale of his entire interest in the business, the purchasers being Mr. S. H. Austin, Jr., of Chicago, who represents as a partner the firm of M. E. McDowell & Co., and Mr. Julian S. Carr, of the old firm of W. T. Blackwell & Co. The amount paid for the interest of Mr. Blackwell was about $300,000. This includes the trade mark, the famous "Durham Bull," as well as all the interest of Mr. B. in the firm, the factory, &c. Mr. Blackwell engages not to enter into the manufacture of smoking tobacco. The new firm is a stock company, the name being the Blackwell Durham Tobacco Company, and is composed of Mr. Carr, who holds half the stock, or $250,000, and Messrs. McDowell & Co., and Mr. Austin, who hold the other $250,000, making the total stock $500,000.

The Christian Association of the Front Street Methodist Church.

Quite an interesting meeting of the above organization was held at the Front Street Methodist Church on Tuesday evening last. Besides the transaction of the usual business of the Association, and the delivery of an able address upon "WORDS" by Capt. Robert Smith Radcliffe, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

President—Thos. E. Davis.
Vice President—Wm. M. Poisson.
Secretary—W. H. Shaw.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. M. Parker.
Visiting Committee—Miss Annie Davis, Miss Eliza Williams and Mrs. Sallie O. Poisson.

The Ebenezer Church Trouble.

The Ebenezer (colored) Baptist Church is said to be in a state of siege, the friends of Parson White and those who are endeavoring to get him to vacate his pastorate of the church, both endeavoring to gain possession to the exclusion of the other. In fact, we understand that a delegation from each of the two factions remains constantly in the building, night and day, reliefs being supplied at stated intervals. How the representatives of the two factions pass the time we have not understood, but they certainly have plenty of leisure on their hands for social converse, or otherwise.

Painful Accident.

Quite a painful accident happened to Col. J. Wilder Atkinson on Tuesday afternoon. He was riding on Third street, and had reached a point nearly opposite Mr. Edward Kidder's residence, when the buggy body suddenly became detached from the front axle and dropped to the ground, throwing Col. Atkinson out and causing a very painful injury to his left shoulder, which has since confined him to his room and caused him much inconvenience.

The State Guard and the Military Convention in Raleigh.

The Military Convention, which was held in response to a call from the Wilmington Light Infantry, to take some steps to secure assistance for the State Guard from the Legislature now in session, met in Raleigh on Tuesday. We condense from the News and Observer. The attendance was large, nearly every company in the State, white and colored, being represented. Capt. John L. Cantwell, of the W. L. I., was called to the chair, who briefly addressed the Convention. A committee on permanent organization was appointed, which reported the following permanent officers: President, Gen. Johnstone Jones; vice-presidents, Capt. A. J. Ellington, of Reidsville; Maj. E. F. McRae, of Shoe Heel; secretaries, Capt. Thos. Parker, of Salisbury; Lt. E. F. Smith and H. H. Roberts, Raleigh. Gen. Jones, on taking the chair, made a strong speech in advocacy of State aid for the Guard. Several other gentlemen followed Gen. Jones, and the Observer says the speech of Sergeant Fremont, of the W. L. I., was excellent.

Capt. Nash offered resolutions as follows:

WHEREAS, A well-regulated militia is required by the constitution of the State of North Carolina, and is essential to the best interests of the State, and an annual legislative appropriation is necessary for the proper maintenance of the same.

Resolved, That we memorialize the Legislature now in session to the following effect; that the militia laws be amended as hereafter stated:

1. To provide for an annual encampment of the Guard for a period of six days.

2. A grant to each company of $5 per annum for each active member thereof to be made, said sum to be paid into the treasury of the company to constitute a fund for the rent of armory and other necessary expenses.

3. That there be attached to the office of the Adjutant General a reasonable compensation.

The resolutions were adopted. An amendment offered by Mr. F. M. Fremont that provision be made for the stationery, &c., of the brigade and regimental headquarters was adopted.

On motion of Col. A. H. Worth, a committee of fifteen was appointed to prepare a memorial to the Legislature.

Capt. Cantwell, Col. H. P. Jones and Maj. E. F. McRae, were appointed a committee to wait on the Governor and request his presence at the hall. The Governor appeared and made some remarks in his usual good taste and with vigor, in the course of which he said the State Guard was a necessity.

The delegation from the Light Infantry, of this city, consisting of Capt. J. L. Cantwell, Lt. W. C. Jones, Ensign F. M. Fremont, Corp. W. B. McKoy, and privates Iredell Meares, W. L. DeRosset, Jr., and O. P. Meares, Jr., returned Tuesday night, and report that they have no doubt that their mission and the efforts of the convention will ultimately prove a success.

RIVER AND MARINE.

— The steamship Gulf Stream, hence, arrived at New York yesterday.

— Schr. Fanny, Lowry, cleared at Baltimore for this port on the 22nd inst.

— Nor. barque Theodor, Einersen, sailed from —— for this port on the 16th inst.

— Nor. barque Atlantic, Knudsen, sailed from Liverpool for this port on the 22nd inst.

— The steamer Wave, from Fayetteville, arrived last night. Reports the river falling slightly.

— Both of the steam dredges employed on the lower Cape Fear improvement have been broken down, including the new one —the Vim—just constructed, and as the contractors had to send to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, for the necessary material to obviate the difficulty, operations had to be temporarily suspended. The articles of machinery ordered have arrived and were expected to be taken down the river yesterday.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today:

For the Middle Atlantic States, cloudy weather, with light rain or snow, warm southerly veering to westerly winds, falling followed by rising barometer.

For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, fair weather, winds mostly southwesterly, stationary or lower pressure.

For the West Gulf States, warm fair weather, winds mostly southerly, stationary or lower pressure.

For the Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, partly cloudy weather, occasional rain or snow, warm southwest veering to cold northwest winds, followed by rising barometer.

Amusements Ahead.

Rose Eytinge will have a large house, judging from the number of seats sold on the first day. Baker & Farron, Monday night, will amuse a large crowd of pleasure seekers. Rhea is expected next month, no arrangements yet having been made. The "New Southern Humpty Dumpty Co.," under good management, will give a good performance on the 8th of February. Milton Nobles will appear on April 3rd and 4th. We are pleased to learn that a fine orchestra has been regularly engaged at the Opera House.

Fire and Loss of Life.

The dwelling of Lewis Simmons, (colored) on Masonboro Sound, was destroyed by fire Monday last, and one of his children, a little girl about seven years old, was burned to death. Simmons and his wife were absent from home at the time, at work, leaving their family of four small children in the house. The latter caught fire from the burning clothing of the child that lost her life, and was consumed with everything in it. The three other children escaped injury.

Magistrate's Court.

Ella Davis, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millis, yesterday, charged with assault and battery upon Amanda Wortham, also colored. Defendant was found guilty and judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.
