A CLEAR HEAD.

"One year ago I was induced to try AYER'S PILLS as a remedy for Indigestion, Constipation, and Headache, from which I had long been a great sufferer. Commencing with a dose of five Pills, I found their action easy, and obtained prompt relief. In continuing their use, a single Pill taken after dinner, daily, has been all the medicine I have required. AYER'S PILLS have kept my system regular and my head clear, and benefited me more than all the medicines ever before tried. Every person similarly afflicted should know their value. 12 State St., Chicago, June 6, 1882.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE

to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

SALOME BEFORE HEROD.

Lightly she bounds through the arched portal there;
Like ebony the multitudinous locks
Circle her face, whose flashing beauty mocks
The Crimson hearts Judean roses bear.
Before the king she makes obe'sance low
And all the lords crowd close that they may see
The wondrous charm in motion's witchery,
As those lithe limbs their cunning fleetness show.
She smiles and smiles and wreaths her perfect arms
As through the dance she moves with subtle grace,
In a sweet pause she turns her glowing face
Full on the king. He, 'wildered by her charms,
Cries: Ask and have! From lips whose smile is fled
Comes a faint whisper: John the Baptist's head!

THE CAMPAIGN.

— NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 26.—In this city the Independent movement is stronger than in any other place in the State, and four-fifths of the bolters will vote for Cleveland. The Executive Committee, whose headquarters are here, have been working earnestly for him. It would be a moderate estimate to say that 300 men in New Haven who have always voted the Republican ticket will vote for Cleveland.—Special to World.

— ALBANY, Oct. 26.—The feeling of discouragement among the Republicans of this city is extending, and every day men who have been looked upon as sure and safe to vote for the regular nominations are announcing themselves as determined to vote for Cleveland at the coming election. Much indignation is expressed at the abuse by Republican speakers of leading Independents, and the old Stalwart feeling is cropping out in unexpected quarters.—Special to World.

— EVANSVILLE, IND., October 26.—On my way from Indianapolis yesterday I overtook at Sullivan, Ind., a part of the Hendricks party which started early this morning on a triumphant march from Terre Haute to Evansville. It is no exaggeration to say that fully 15,000 people were gathered in the open space around the speaker's stand there and they had been sitting and standing for three long hour, listening first to Gov. Hendricks and then to Gov. Gray. —Special to New York World.

— NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Milton Saylor, who use to be in Congress from Ohio and was acting Speaker of the House for some time, has lived here for the past three years. He is a close observer of politics and a conservative man. He said to me to day: "The Republicans have given up New York. There is no question about that and they are going to make their great effort in the two States adjoining New York and in Indiana. They will make no real fight here from now until election." Nearly every Democrat you meet here echoes this opinion. I haven't met a single one who is faint hearted or doubtful about this State. The bulk of the betting is upon New York.—Special to Phil. Times

— Mr. Emil D. Neustadt, who acted as marshal of the first division in the business men's parade yesterday, stated, in the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee last night, that he had a positive assurance that Roscoe Conkling would make his views concerning the Presidential election public during the coming week. Business men's meeting in favor of Cleveland and Hendricks is to be held on Saturday under the auspices of the Joint Campaign Club of the Produce and Maritime Exchanges, and Mr. Neustadt declared that ex-Senator Conkling had promised to either address the meeting or write a letter stating his preference as between Grover Cleveland and James G. Blaine.—N. Y. Times.

— INDIANAPOLIS, October 25.—At the present time both parties have things very well in hand. The Republican organization is not so good as four years ago because of the withdrawal of Dudley, while the Democrats are in infinitely better shape than ever before, so far as effectiveness of organization is concerned. They have union and harmony with Mr. Hendricks on the ticket where they had only dissensions and bitterness with English. Thus the two parties enter the contest in a close State. They are fairly well matched, with the advantages in favor of the Republicans in organization and with the Democrats in having a strong and popular candidate on the Presidential ticket.—Special Correspondence of Philadelphia Times.

— Various theories are afloat explanatory of the abandonment of New York by Gen. Butler. One is that as Mr. Blaine himself intended to travel through the southern tier it was considered unwise by the Blaine managers to send another candidate on the same ticket over the same ground. Another is that the Blaine people themselves have abandoned New York to Cleveland, and that it would be a waste of money to spend any more on Butler, preferring to use it in Massachusetts, about which they feel some alarm on account of the extraordinary development of the "mugwump" movement. A third theory is that the Blaine people are really short of funds, and, instead of spending any more on Butler, they will husband it for the purchase of votes in the large cities in the doubtful States, for the purchase of bulldog pistols and clubs for Deputy Marshals, and for the payment of the deputies themselves. —N. Y. Times, Oct. 27th.

— ALBANY, Oct. 26.—It is not claimed by the most sanguine of Blaine's friends that he can equal Garfield's majorities in any of the strong Republican districts, and the Democrats, while they concede to Blaine a majority in certain counties where the Democrats are in a hopeless minority, yet point to valid reasons which show that his majorities must inevitably fall below those of Garfield by from 800 to 1,500. The situation differs so materially from that of 1880 that Cleveland's friends have a right to expect serious inroads upon the Republican vote in all of the rural counties. In 1880, where the prohibition vote was unknown or else had no appreciable strength, it is now a prime factor in the calculations. Take the rapidly developing St. John element, the Cleveland Republicans and the disaffected Stalwarts, and we have three distinct elements which singly and combined must operate to Blaine's disadvantage all through the State west of Harlem Bridge.—Special to N. Y. Herald.

— CHICAGO, ILL., October 26.—Upward of five thousand Irish men and Irish women assembled at Battery D Armory to greet Daniel McSweeney, the Irish "suspect," and Mrs. Delia Parnell. The gathering was a very demonstrative one, and cheered and applauded the two celebrated visitors again and again throughout the evening. On the platform with Mr. McSweeny and Mrs. Parnell were a large number of leading Irishmen of the city and other public men. Mr. McSweeney was received with prolonged cheers. He said the object of his visit was to tell his fellow Irish-Americans how he became an American citizen and how he had been treated by Blaine. When Mrs. Parnell arose to speak to the crowd the cheering lasted for fully five minutes. She characterized the Republican party as the remnant of the red rag that used to float over Irishmen and hoped that the hearts of her hearers would be stirred up in the cause of Democracy. Blaine she characterized as a latter-day Arnold, who hoped to give the victory to England.—Special to New York Herald.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

According to appointments published in the Statesville American, the Hon. Sam'l F. Phillips, Solicitor General of the United States, is to leave his easy and lucrative place in Washington city, and come to North Carolina to make speeches for York and Blaine. Rather poor work for the dignified Samuel Phillips to be engaged in, but he is anxious to hold his stall at the public crib. Nearly all the prominent Republican officials have left Washington and taken the stump for Blaine. The free white people of this State should not have much use or respect for such men as Phillips who deserted their State for a lucrative office in one of the Departments at Washington, and who now come back temporarily to give them advice about whom they should vote for.—Charlotte Democrat.

Dr. York as a member of the Legislature opposed: 1. The right of colored people to be witnesses in our courts. 2. The building of the colored insane asylum at Goldsboro. 3. The building of the white insane asylum at Morganton 4 The giving a wooden leg or arm to the maimed soldiers. 5. The building of the Western North Carolina Railroad. 6. The building of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad. 7. The establishing of the white and colored Normal Schools. 8 The compromise and settlement of the State debt. 9. The establishing of the Department of Agriculture. Is not such a legislative record sufficient to damn forever any man among a civilized people?—Pittsboro Record.

State Gleanings.

— Greensboro Workman: We learned through a private source yesterday that Rev. Wm. S. Long, of Graham, who was thrown from his buggy and so seriously injured some days ago had since been paralyzed—which we are sorry to hear.

— Wadesboro Intelligencer: Col. Cash, it is stated in Cheraw, has been invited to deliver an address at the next Dixie Fair. This is news to us, but, if it were true, we wager Col. Cash could attract a bigger crowd to the fair than Zeb. Vance or John Robinson's circus. —The crops in Anson county the present year are decidedly short.

— Charlotte Observer: Fifteen bales of cotton were burned at Mt. Holly depot, on the Carolina Central Railroad, last Friday. They were accidentally fired by a man smoking a pipe. —A gin house on the plantation of Gen. R. Barringer, near Davidson College, was destroyed by fire last Thursday. —Rt. Rev. Bishop Lyman yesterday confirmed eighteen persons at the Beach Cliff school house, in Long Creek township, where Episcopal services were held during the past week. The services were conducted by Revs. Cheshire and Osborne, and were attended by large congregations. —Mr. James Williamson, a large farmer of Providence township, last Thursday night lost his fine new gin house, together with seven bales of cotton by fire. Loss $1,500; no insurance. —As the alarm of fire was sounded yesterday afternoon, Asa Parker, an eight year old son of Mr. W. A. Parker, was standing on the pavement in front of Dr. J. H. McAden's drug store. Seeing the people running, the lad endeavored to get out of the way, but before he could do so, a negro man rushing along ran square over the child and knocked him down. Three other negroe men following close behind, trampled on the body of the boy in their mad haste before Mr. Robert Gray could jerk the little fellow from under their heels. The boy was taken into Dr. McAden's drug store and an examination showed that he was bruised all over, his ankle was sprained and his nose probably broken. On arriving home the little fellow unconscious to the floor.

THE CELEBRATED

ARRINGTON GAME FOWLS FOR SALE

MY GAME FOWLS HAVE A NATIONAL REputation. They have fought and won a series of the greatest mains ever fought on this or any other continent, and Fifteen Pairs, on exhibition at Philadelphia in '76, were honored by the United States Centennial Commissioner with the Diploma and Medal.

I have a variety of Colors and most approved Breeds in the United States. I will ship splendid COCKS, of fine size and handsome plumage, per Express, C. O. D., at from $4.00 to $6.00 each HENS, $2.50 and $3.00 each; or $7.00 per Pair $10.00 per Trio. I expect to raise Two Hundred Pairs this Summer, the Finest Games in the World, and will ship Young Fowls of March and April hatch during the months of August, September and October, at Five Dollars per Pair, or Seven Dollars per Trio.

Whoever disputes the superiority of my Birds, will please back the assertion with their stamps.

Write for what you want.
