II. MORE CELEBRATIONS-THE HISTORY AND RITUAL OF SUMMER HOLIDAYS

May 29
Thursday
7:30-9:30 p.m.
JECC*
Rabbi Yoseph Groner

Lag B'omer
Journey into the Mystical World of Kabbalah. Lag B'omer is considered the Rosh Hashanah for Jewish Mysticism. An indepth look at the development of Kabbalah and its composers from the early days through modern times. Also a review of Rabbi Akiba and his accomplishments during the Bar Kochba era. We will also observe the anniversary of the 850th birthday of Maimonides.

June 5
Thursday
7:30-9:30 p.m.
JECC*
Rabbi Harold Krantzler

Shavuoth
Shavuoth traditionally marks the giving of the Torah on Mt. Sinai. We read the book of Ruth and celebrate Confirmation. Study with us the original customs of the festival and its spiritual meaning for our time.

June 19
Thursday
7:30-9:30 p.m.
JECC*
Rabbi Robert Seigel

Tisha B'av
There is meaning in life, even in tragedy. Discussion of Tisha B'av will lead into the classic question of faith in God in the face of evil.
