Community Seder Was Well Attended

Temple Beth Shalom held Charlotte's First Community Seder on April 23. Over 200 people gathered at the Marriott Executive Park Hotel for the traditional Passover celebration.

Rabbi Robert Seigel led the Seder service. Many members of the community who had never participated in a Seder were asked to lead in some of the readings from the Haggadah. Members of Temple Beth Shalom also participated. The Seder included a full course meal.

George Sheldon, Linda Karacaova, Anita Strauss-LaRowe, Mike Simon, Walter Newman and Marcia Lampert helped organize this event.

*Afterwards, they'll all
tell you it was perfect.*

You know how you want your guests to feel when they enter the room.

And you know what you want them to say afterwards. That everything was "perfect."

Making that happen is our business. Whether it's an exquisite wedding, a memorable bar or bat mitzvah. A charity ball or a lavish birthday party. The atmosphere you wish to create will be perfectly expressed to every last detail.

Call the Charlotte Marriott, and talk to our Catering Manager about your next event. We're close to perfection. And everything else in Charlotte.

Marriott People know how.
