Black & White Cake

If you have a bit of milk that has begun to go sour and you can't bear to throw it away, try this marble cake recipe.

- 2 cups sugar
- 2 sticks margarine
- 4 eggs, separated
- 1/3 cup cocoa
- 3 cups flour
- 3 tps. baking powder
- 1 cup sour milk
- 1/4 cup almonds

Cream sugar and margarine. Add egg yolks and beat. Mix flour with baking powder and add alternately with the milk. Take off about one-half of the batter and add cocoa. In another bowl beat egg whites until they are stiff. Fold half the egg whites into chocolate mixture and the other half into the white mixture. Fold almonds into the chocolate mixture. Grease two loaf pans. Pour half the white mixture into each loaf pan. Top with chocolate mixture. Bake at 350 degrees about 35-40 minutes. Test with toothpick to see if done.

Frozen Fruit Salad

Frozen fruit salad can be used as a side dish with tuna and egg salad or as a dessert. It adds a festive air to an otherwise ordinary meal.

- 1 cup drained crushed pineapple
- 1 cup fruit cocktail, well drained
- 1/3 cup chopped pecans
- 2 cups sour cream
- 2 tbs. lemon juice
- 3/4 cup sugar

Mix all ingredients together. Pour into a 3 1/2 cup mold or bowl. Freeze. Serves 8-10.

Orientation Planned By NC Hillel

As another academic year comes to a close, the N.C. B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation is in the midst of planning orientation activities for all of the incoming new students who will arrive on campus in August. Many of our returning students have volunteered to become orientation counselors. They will show the new students around, introduce them to other Jewish students on campus and help them become accustomed to campus life. We are stressing these programs at our Chapel Hill campus, with hopes of expanding our orientation structure to other campuses.

If you have a child or know of someone who will be attending UNC-CH in the fall, please send us their names, home address, and campus address (if known) to: Orientation 1986, c/o Hillel, 210 W. Cameron Ave., Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514.

— Oops —

In last month's issue there were a few "goofs" for which we apologize. Pictured as one of the honorees of the Hebrew Academy was Abe Luski, not his brother Isaac.

The photo credit under Rabbi Krantzler's picture was "gobbled up by the gremlins". The photographer is Roger Meyers.

In the supplement, Robert Bernhardt's name was inadvertently omitted from the list of Hebrew Academy presidents.
