[illegible] HARRY WATKINS. The lovers [illegible] acting and charming music will [illegible] with pleasure that the above eminent [illegible] appear at Tucker Hall to night, supported by a first class New York Company. Their engagements in New York, Richmond and Norfolk, just terminated, have been attended by the elite and fashion of those cities, who were delighted with their admirable entertainments. To night the beautiful romantic drama of "Kathleen Mavourneen" or "Under the Shell" will be produced. The play abounds with choice music and brilliant incidents, and is decidedly one of the most attractive of modern dramas. Reserved seats 75 cents. Admittance only [illegible] cents. Tickets to be had at J. A. Lane's Book Store during the day.

[illegible] WILLIAM E. PEACE, Esq. We regret to learn that this estimable gentleman of Granville county was knocked in the head with an axe in the hands of a negro. Mr. Peace was at breakfast, when the cook, an old woman, came in and complained that Jim was abusing her. After breakfast, Mr. P. went out and remonstrated with the negro, Jim, against abusing an old woman. Jim was insolent, when Mr. P. caught him by the color and told him to see him none of his impertinence. The negro was turned loose and when Mr. P. was in the act of turning off, he was felled to the ground with an axe which the negro held in his hand. The rascal fled and has not been heard of since. The injury inflicted was very severe and wanted but little of taking the life of Mr. Peace.

EXCURSION.—We are indebted to the authorities of the Raleigh & Gaston R. R. and the Western R. R. for a complimentary ticket to accompany the excursion from Norfolk to Fayetteville, which passes this place to-day. The train leaves this city this morning at 6 a. m., and arrives at Fayetteville at 11 a. m. Returning, the train leaves Fayetteville (same day) at 4 p. m. and arrives at Raleigh at 9 p. m. This excursion will no doubt be a pleasant affair, and the participants will be heartily welcomed at Fayetteville, and every attention shown to their comfort and well-being.

Since the above was written the excursion train has arrived, bringing some 60 or 70 passengers. Norfolk and Portsmouth would alone have sent double the number had it not been for the inclement weather.

PERSONAL.—The following are among the arrivals by the excursion train from Norfolk to Fayetteville yesterday. They were well taken care of at the Yarbrough House, and left this morning at 6 a. m. on the Chatham railroad for the Fayetteville Fair:

Wm. Fisk, E. W. Mankin, T. A. Williams, H. V. Neimeric, E. C. Brooks, Capt. James Cormack, C. Whittle, J. Emerson, W. H. Morris, Wm. Parker, Wm. Nash, D. H. Cheny, Major Wm. Marrow, M. G. Chenyn, W. R. Peters, W. H. Lyons, Judge Biggs, W. J. Baker, Col. Wm. White, Charles Hardy, J. C. Wheeden, T. L. Hume, J. S. Brown, Sr.

Mr. Ghio, the gentlemanly superintendent of the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad was prevented from accompanying the excursion by a press of imperative business engagements.

Messrs. Stone, of the Roanoke News, and Drake of the Statesville American, are the only members of the press-gang that we have seen bound for the fair.

For the Sentinel.

General Editor: I send you the proceedings of a Republican meeting held in Yadkin county and published in the Carolinian. I send you also one published which appeared in the first number of the Carolinian, and a few extracts from the Daily Telegram and the North Carolinian.

Your readers will remember there are two papers by the name of Conway, one a republican and the other a democrat. [illegible] Yours, H.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, Nov. 21.

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Collis, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

The clerk called the roll and the following members answered to their names:

Messrs. Anderson, Armstrong, Ashe, Atwater, Brooks, Broadfoot, Brown, Bryant, of Halifax, Bryan of Jones, Bunn, Cawthorn, Catson, Chamberlain, Clinard, Cobb, Crawford, Currie, Darden, Dickey, Drake, Dudley, Duckworth, Dunham, Faulkner, Fisher, Fletcher, Furr, Gambrel, Garrison, Gatlick, Grayson, Gwyther, Hampton, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Franklin, Henderson, Houston, Hinnant, Johnston, of Edgecombe, Johnson, of Edgecombe, Johns, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Northampton, Joyner, of Johnston, Justice, Kelly of Davie, Kelly of Moore, Kelsey, Lassiter, Loftin, Lackey, Lyon, Martin, Marler, Maxwell, McAllister, McCoury, McNeill, Morgan of Montgomery, Mitchell, Newsome, Nicholson, Paylor, Rankin, Reavis, Reid, Robbins, Robinson, Scott, Shull, Smith of Anson, Smith of Halifax, Smith of Wayne, Stewart, Strudwick, Tucker of Craven, Welch, Willis, Womack, Woodhouse, Young of Wake, Young of Yancey and York.

By Mr. Martin: A resolution instructing the public treasurer not to pay any warrant, claim, &c., in regard to the construction of a turnpike road from the head of North River, Carteret county, to the head of Adams' Creek in Craven county: referred.

On motion of Mr. Loftin, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to raise a joint committee to wait on the governor to inform him of the organization of the general assembly.

By Mr. Welch: A resolution asking Hon. Z. B. Vance to return his credentials of election as U. S. Senator in time for the general assembly to elect another, and that the general assembly proceed to elect a U. S. Senator on the 28th inst.; referred.

By Mr. Ashe: A bill proposing amendments to the constitution of North Carolina; referred.

By Mr. Darden: A bill to authorize the commissioners of Perquimans county to issue bonds; referred.

By Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe: A bill to amend the Code of Civil Procedure. Referred.

Mr. Powell, of Chatham, was announced as being detained from his seat by the serious illness of some of his family.

The Chair announced Messrs. Loftin, Carson and Dudley, (col.) of the House branch of the joint committee to wait on the Governor.

Mr. Welch took the floor and asked that his resolution in reference to the U. S. Senatorship be made the special order for next Thursday at 11 A. M.

Mr. Welch said that he attributed a good deal of the present trouble in which the state is involved to the fact that the state was not properly represented in the Senate. He thought it would have been for better for the state in the past had there been no one in that body ostensibly representing it. Mr. W. after having continued upon the necessity of the state having representation as early as possible in the Senate to represent her true interests concluded by moving to suspend the rules in order to take the resolution up. The motion was put to a vote and carried.

Mr. Welch then moved to make the resolution special order for Thursday next at 11 a. m. Objection being made to the adoption of the motion, the question was put and lost for the want of a quorum voting. Mr. Welch renewed the motion and called for the yeas and nays. A ballot was had which resulted in the adoption of the motion by the following vote:

AYES. Messrs. Anderson, Armstrong, Ashe, Atwater, Broadfoot, Carson, Clinard, Crawford, Currie, Darden, Dickey, Drake, Duckworth, Dunham, Furr, Gambrel, Garrison, Gore, Hampton, Henderson, Hinnant, Johnston of Buncombe, Johns, Joyner of Johnston, Kelly of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Kelsey, Lassiter, Martin, Marler, McAllister, McNeill of Wayne, Mitchell Paylor, Robinson, Scott, Shull, Smith of Alamance, Smith, Stewart, Strudwick, Tucker of Iredell, Welch, Womack, Woodhouse and York—47.

NAYS. Messrs. Bean, Brooks, Brown, Bryant of Halifax, Bryan of Jones, Bunn, Cawthorn, Collis, Dudley, Faulkner, Fisher, Fletcher, Goodwin, Gullick, Grayson, Guyther, Harris of Guilford, Heaton, Houston, Johnston of Edgecombe, Jones of Caldwell, Jones of Northampton, Justice, Loftin, Lackey, Lyon, McCauley, Morgan of Montgomery, Morgan of Wake, Newsome, Reavis, Reid, Robbins, Smith of Halifax, Smith of Wayne, Tucker of Craven, Willis, Young of Wake, Young of Yancey and York.

[illegible]

By Mr. McNeill: A bill to change the time of holding superior courts in New Hanover county. Referred.

A message was received from the Senate notifying the House of the organization of that body. Also one asking the concurrence of the House in the course of a joint committee on constitutional reform to consist of nine on the part of the House, and six on the part of the Senate. Concurred in.

The Chair announced that the House branch of the committee would consist of the former House committee on constitutional reform with the addition of Messrs. Phillips, Guyther and Broadfoot.

A message was received from the Senate concurring in the House proposition for a joint committee to wait on the governor, and announced Senators Lehman and Latham as the Senate branch of said committee.

After a short absence, the House branch of the committee appointed to wait on the governor returned and reported through their chairman, Mr. Loftin, that the governor would communicate with the House at 11 30 a. m.

At 11.30 a message from His Excellency, the governor, was announced by the doorkeeper.

At the invitation of the Chair, the Private Secretary entered bearing the annual message, accompanied by various reports from various other officers. The Clerk then proceeded to read the very voluminous document.

At the conclusion of the reading of the message Mr. Johnston of Buncombe offered a resolution to dispense with the reading of the accompanying documents, and that the message be transmitted to the Senate with a proposition to print five copies for each member, and five for the various departments. The resolution was put to a vote and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Justice, the House adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A FEDERAL SOLDIER'S PROTEST.

A letter received by a gentleman in New York is sent by him to the New York World, for publication, with the assurance that "the writer was an officer of the United States army during the late war, and at its conclusion settled in South Carolina. He is a northern man and a republican." The writer says: " * * * "The difference between Tweed and Scott is one only of degree. The partizan press of the north, shouting after the kuklux, reminds me of one of Nast's cartoons of Tweed, Hall and Connolly shouting 'stop thief!' If some of our miserable, thieving population get kukluxed, they get no more than their deserts. I would rather the law would punish them, but it won't. Scott pardoned out sixty criminals from the penitentiary just before his last election. What would be said of General Grant if he placed Illinois under martial law because some of the incendiaries at the Chicago fire were hung at the first lamp-post? Yet he has put half this state under martial law for a no greater provocation. I did hope better things of General Grant. I was ever a firm believer in him; I was the only white man in this parish who voted for him; yet I think he has done us a great wrong, probably through bad advisers. It is false that negroes or any others are kukluxed on account of their politics. I have lived here six years, and have ever been known politically as a democrat; yet I do not believe I have an enemy in the state on that account. No, the effect of martial law in this section is going to be felt upon every material interest. The taxpayers believe that it is got up to lengthen out the rule of carpetbaggers and shysters. It appears to me that it will have that effect. I will have nothing to do with politics, saving entering my protest against such scoundrels as run the machine in this state and with you. Men whose moral principle rises no higher than a faro table or a house of ill fame now represent us in Congress and denizen the public offices at the capital. One seedy wretch, whom I know five years ago to have garments which could not protect him in a cooler climate, is now the state treasurer; he stole in one season one hundred thousand dollars of bonds, which were to buy lands for the institution. He is now believed to be the owner of eighteen thousand acres of land in this vicinity. This is only one instance of their cunningness, as they say here. If there is justice in history, as I believe, there must be retributive justice awaiting these villians.

ST. LOUIS FIGHTS THE "TIGER."—The energetic chief of police, McDonough, of Baltimore, lately broke up the faro "hells" in that city by vigorous prosecution. They started again, operating only in the day time. On the 7th instant he made another grand raid, captured seven establishments complete, with sixty operators, and marched the whole miserable body, in the broad daylight, off to the lock up, the gambling tools as trophies borne triumphantly in their midst.

FOR SALE

TURPENTINE LANDS.

7,061 ACRES AT $5 PER ACRE.

I offer at private sale the plantation in Bladen county, known as the Milton Place, the residence of the late Isaac Wright. It borders for several miles on the Cape Fear River, eight miles from Elizabethtown, has a landing on the River, a two story Dwelling with other necessary Houses, two Mill Seats, a quantity of open Land on the bank of the River, quantity of Swamp Land cleared and in cultivation and a quantity not opened, a large body of sound Pine untouched, never boxed, in definitive excellence. Also well timbered with Juniper and Cypress.

The Pine covers, perhaps, 5,000 acres and is exceedingly valuable for Turpentine, on account of its purity, quantity and nearness to the River.

The whole place with its surroundings presents a temptation to an enterprising man for a speculation and a home.

J. W. Purdie, of Bladen, near the place, will show the premises to any one wishing to examine them. We wish to sell and give possession by 1st January, 1872.

THE RUSSIAN PRINCE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—At 11 a. m., the steamer "Mary Powell" with the reception committee and about 500 persons, including a large number of ladies proceeded down the bay. Over 1000 persons assembled at the pier to witness the departure. The steamer was gaily decorated with Russian and American flags. Nearly all the vessels in the bay were dressed with flags, many of them displaying Russian colors. Broadway is thronged with persons awaiting the parade. Great numbers arrived from the country on the early trains. The buildings on Broadway and other principal streets are decorated with flags. The national guard is out in full force. The weather is fine and the reception will be brilliant.

LATER.—The crowd in Broadway is so dense that locomotion is almost impossible. Every window and space from which a mere view can be obtained is occupied. Ten thousand troops are in line, extending two miles.

Alexis landed at 1:30 when the procession moved. During the formal reception, Major General Dix addressed the Prince as follows:

Your Imperial Highness:—In the name of the citizens of New York, I have the honor to tender to you a cordial welcome to the United States. It is a great gratification to us to see within our harbor the gallant squadron which has brought you to our shores. It is still a greater gratification to us to receive among us one of the Imperial family of Russia, whose illustrious chief has done so much for civilization, and in whose hands the possession of power has, under the guidance of Providence, been devoted to the noblest of uses—the social and political elevation of those who come within the sphere of its exercise. The long and uninterrupted friendly relations between Russia and the United States have naturally created strong sympathy on our part in all that concerns her welfare, and has caused us to regard with deep interest her steady but silent progress eastward, shedding at every advance the light of Christian civilization over religions which have been buried, for ages in comparative darkness. Your Imperial Highness will, no doubt, find much in our country which is novel to Europeans, and which will be remembered as a source of useful suggestion in political science. In the name of the citizens, in whose behalf I speak, I tender you a sincere welcome.

The Prince replied as follows:

Gen. Dix, Ladies and Gentlemen: I beg to express my warm thanks for the manner in which I have been received. The feeling which exists between Russia and the United States is as strong as it is [illegible] and nothing can disturb it. I shall pass rapidly through New York to pay my respects to the President whose high character is greatly appreciated everywhere; but on my return I shall have the pleasure to accept your hospitality so kindly tendered me.
