New Officers Of Hadassah Installed

Marcia Simon

Marcia Simon was installed as president of the Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah at the May meeting at the Tower Club. Ethel Firestone, who was Hadassah's President in 1956, honored the proceedings by acting as installing officer.

Also, the membership honored Barbara Levin, outgoing President, with the presentation of a beautifully inscribed silver bowl.

Mr. Yosef Yaacov, Consul General of the Israeli Embassy in Washington, D. C., was guest speaker, providing an update on Israel topics.

In addition to Marcia Simon, other officers installed were Linda Segel, VP Programming; Pam Segal, VP Membership; Ellen Fligel and Leslie Locke, VPs Fundraising; Raenea Siegel, VP Education; Lenora Stein, Recording Secretary; Hushie Silverstein, Corresponding Secretary; Diane Rosenberg, Financial Secretary and Diane Schwartz, Treasurer.

The Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah, with 425 members, represents the largest branch in North Carolina.

Hadassah is having a paid up Membership Luncheon at the JCC on September 17.

PIZAZZ: What better way to spend a balmy Sunday evening than listening to music in the park. That's what 20 Pizazz singles did June 22. They spread out blankets on a hillside in Freedom Park, relaxed and enjoyed a performance of the Charlotte Pops orchestra.

B'nai B'rith Lodge To Sponsor Jewish "Big Brothers"

Our June event was a tremendous success! The lodge sponsored a cook-out with kids from single-parent families in the Jewish community. Lloyd Scher provided the hospitality and driving force while Phil's Deli donated all of the food. We are very grateful to Phil Levine for his generosity. We were able to match up several kids with Jewish "Big Brothers" through this event. If you are interested in supporting the lodge's Jewish Big Brothers program, please contact Lloyd Scher at 567-0729.

A night of pizza and baseball at Crockett Park was planned for July 30. More on this in September's issue.

An Invitation

The Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah extends a cordial invitation to all members and prospective members to join us at our Annual Membership Tea.

The Tea will be held August 20 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mary Wojnowich, 925 Sumac Road.

New and prospective members will be introduced and oriented to the goals and objectives of Hadassah, as well as a discussion of future projects and events.

We welcome the entire community to join us in greeting our new members. Please call Marcia Simon, 333-0085 or Pam Segal, 365-6655 for your reservation.

BLOOD DRIVE

You SHARED LIFE WITH A FRIEND
...IT MADE YOU FEEL GOOD!

The annual B'nai B'rith-Red Cross Blood Drive will be held August 16 at Shalom Park. Your blood donation is urgently needed at this time. We also need volunteers to assist Red Cross personnel. To schedule an appointment, or to volunteer, please call Eric Sklut at 536-8830 (day) or 541-7191 (eve) or see sign-up sheets at Shalom Park.

Charlotte B'nai B'rith Women

Annual Pool Party

New Orleans Dixie Land BRUNCH

What a great way to start your week! Savor the new temptations of the Marker New Orleans Brunch... with something for the entire family. Try our Eggs Benedict, Hussarde or Eggs Joinville. The kids will love the French Toast Bourbon Street or the Waffles Foster and Waffles Romanoff. For the hearty appetite, there are two great omelette sensations...

Omelette "Mardi Gras" or Omelette New Orleans. And of course, you'll have to try the Jambalaya, Blackened Red Fish, Blackened Tenderloin or the Seafood and Sausage Gumbo, a meal in itself. All of these mouth-watering entrees include a cold buffet and dessert bar. Sunday brunch hours: 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Reservations: 372-4100, ext. 55
555 S. McDowell St.
Charlotte, NC 28204
