LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

ELECTION RETURNS.

We have scarcely any news to give the public, this morning. The counting out of votes, at all points, was protracted until a late hour last night.

Probably by tomorrow, we shall be able to give our readers some general idea as to the vote of the State.

WAKE.

Strange to say, we have nothing positive from this County, outside of Raleigh. A number of rumors are afloat, but none of them are reliable. From the fact that so many white men have failed to vote,—a state of things which is most discreditable, under all the circumstances,—we fear that the Radical negro-ites have carried the County. We shall know during the day, and shall then be prepared to make such comments as the exhibit may require. If we have not succeeded, it has been no fault of the ticket, and especially of our noble standard-bearer, Judge Fowle, but of an inexcusable indifference on the part of the white people.

The following was the vote in this City, which we received at midnight, last night:

CONSERVATIVE TICKET:

Fowle,	636	Blake,	607
Mangum,	614	McLean,	606

RADICAL TICKET:

Harris, (negro,)	1,243	Andrews,	1,201
Franklin,	1,196	Williams,	1,244

For Convention, 1,598. Against Convention, 268.

The total vote of the City was 1,910—some 400 short of the registration.

AUBURN.

Reported Conservative majority of 59.

JOHNSTON.

Clayton—First Day:—Gully, Rad., 101, Hay, Radical, 100; Waddell, Cons, 47, Preston, Cons., 46. For Convention 115, Against 33.

Selma—First Day:—Preston and Waddell 30; Gully and Hays 6.

HERTFORD.

A friend in Murfreesboro sends us the following:

MURFREESBORO, N. C.
Nov. 19th. P. M.

Messrs. Editors:—The result of the first day's voting here (town) is as follows:

C. H. Foster	126.
J. B. Hare	119.
D. W. Boon [negro]	97.

Mr. Hare, Conservative, is undoubtedly elected in this (Hertford) county.

Well done, Hertford!

NEW HANOVER.

We learn, by telegraph, that this County has gone Radical by about 1,500 majority, which is something less than the registered majority.

In Wilmington, there were very few white Radical votes, (probably none native,) and not a negro voted the Conservative ticket. Great apathy among the whites.

The vote was: 1st ward—not counted at the date of telegram; 2nd., Rad., 299, Cons. 126; 3rd., Rad., 251, Cons. 115; 4th., Rad. 293, Cons. 156.

COLUMBUS.

Whiteville and Cerro Gordo give considerable Conservative majorities.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Pure Peruvian Guano: Douglas Bell, Market Square.

A young lady desires a situation as Teacher in a private family. She is well qualified and can give good references.—Address "Bonnybel," Ivor, Southampton Co., Va.

Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern: Labor Saving Pump, Carriage Materials, &c.

SAMPSON, the Illusionist, will be at Tucker Hall, to-night. His entertainments are said to be wonderful by the Press in the Southern cities.

THE REV. R. T. HERLIN, D. D., formerly of the North Carolina Conference, died of yellow fever in Huntsville, Texas, on the 17th October. His eldest son, Theodore, died on the 9th and his wife died on the 18th, of the same month. The Texas Conferences have been sorely bereaved in the loss of so many useful ministers, during the present year.

BUNCAM RECORDER.—We observe that our excellent cotemporary has again enlarged its sheet. We hope the Baptist denomination, of which it is the organ in this State, will sustain it handsomely. It is a most capital paper.

REV. J. D. HUFHAM, late of the Recorder, we observe, has accepted the pastorate of the Sawyer's Creek Church in Camden County, of this State. We were pleased to meet with him, a few days ago, and to find his health vastly improved.

THE North Carolina Conference will meet on the 27th inst., in Wilmington, Bishop Doggett is to preside over the body.

THESPIAN ASSOCIATION.—A number of the young gentlemen of this city have formed themselves into a Thespian Association, and contemplate giving a series of entertainments in Tucker Hall,—the proceeds, after defraying the expenses incurred in "getting under weigh," to be appropriated to charitable uses. The Association embraces considerable amateur dramatic talent, a number of rehearsals have been held, and, we doubt not, the public will be favored with really attractive and excellent representations. We bespeak for the young gentlemen concerned a flattering reception and full houses.

The first representation, we believe, will probably be given next week, when the play of Rip Van Winkle, together with a farce, will be rendered. Ample notice and full particulars, however, will be given in due time.

MESSRS. TOLAR, POWERS AND WATKINS. Gen. Canby has promulgated the findings in the case of these gentlemen, tried before the Military Commission in this city, for the alleged killing of the negro ruffian who attempted to outrage a respectable young lady of Fayetteville. They were found guilty of the charge and sentenced to be hanged. Gen. Canby mitigated the sentence to fifteen years imprisonment at hard labor in Fort Macon, North Carolina.

We trust that the various petitions in circulation, and which have been signed by many thousands of our people, of both sexes, will be promptly forwarded to the President. We cannot doubt, when they are laid before him, with all the facts, that he will at once pardon these unfortunate gentlemen.

SOW WHEAT AND OATS.—Even at this late day, we must impress it upon our farming people every where, to sow wheat and oats, or rye. We trust a good wheat crop has been sown, yet every man should go the length of his ability in this matter. The bread stuffs of the country will be short and the wheat and oat crop will afford the earliest relief. Our late suggestion in regard to the Irish potatoe crop, planted very early, we are glad to find, meets with approval.

EFFECTS OF EMANCIPATION.—The Rev. Mr. Porter, of Charleston S. C., in an appeal in one of our churches last Sunday, for help to educate and Christianize the Southern negroes, stated that on Amelia island, Florida, on the 1st. of January, 1867, there were 1,400 freedmen. Since that time there have been 40 births and 400 recorded interments.

Such is one of the consequences of freedom at which humanity shudders. He thinks nothing but thorough enlightenment can prevent the race from becoming extinct.—To our mind it shows them built for freedom, and we see but little hope of making them good and useful citizens, except as subordinate to the white race.—Boston Courier, Nov. 15th.

HOW FORNEY PROPOSES TO HAVE BOGUS CONSTITUTIONS RATIFIED.—Forney proposes that Congress authorize that registered voters may vote elsewhere than in the counties where registered, upon a certificate properly authenticated by the local registry board setting forth the fact that the change of residence has been caused by the necessity of obtaining employment, or other sufficient reason. In this way the votes of the freedmen can be cast at any point in the State where they may be registered, and the obstructionists will fail to get the involuntary aid they now anticipate from the necessities of those they jump and would oppress.

Experience of the manner in which the negroes exercise the ballot, does not tend to remove the conviction as to their incapacity. Not one in a thousand who voted had the remotest idea what he was doing, and very few knew the names of the candidates. I saw one who had in some way got a slip upon which eight or nine sets of tickets had been printed, and it was with difficulty he could be induced to permit the severance of the tickets, and that he could be persuaded to deposit but one in the box. I heard of another who voted in the morning, and who confessed in the afternoon to vote again. He was recognized by the clerk, and when asked what he meant, he said that he voted for Jack Bell, negro, in the morning, and he thought "he had done wrong and ought to have voted for Mr. Ackerman," and wanted to repair his error by a second vote.—Aug. Cor. N. Y. Times.

With the succession of promises and disappointments, cajoling and brow beating, that has been visited upon the negroes of the South by Radical demagogues, the blacks are just about in an explosive state, and a single match will do the whole business of Radicalism, inaugurating an actual war of races. If the individuals who have enjoyed advantages superior to those of the great body of negroes have no better discretion, no better idea of law and order, no greater desire to preserve peace and avoid bloodshed, than the one who spoke in Richmond a day or two since, what is to be expected from the entire black population that now hold the balances of Southern political power? Persuaded that they are entitled to rights which they have not and never can have; regarding their color as a casus partisi politically; learning to look upon the white man as a natural enemy: there is cause for serious apprehension in the South; and, if the Radical politicians have still any regard for general peace and prosperity, they should begin to undo what they have done in Southern reconstruction.—Chicago Times.

THAD. STEVENS declares that the southern people must be whipped into submission to the doctrines set forth by Congress, if they do not peacably accept the situation from a Radical standpoint; but adds that he is so feeble that he will not be able to vindicate his bills for confiscation, negro suffrage, and suspension during impeachment, and therefore will not introduce them.

GREAT ROBBERY IN DANVILLE.—By a private dispatch from Danville, we learn that on Sunday night last, the storehouse of Mr. Joshua M. Walker, on Main street, was robbed of $30,000 in money. The dispatch does not state the manner in which it was perpetrated. No clue to the robbers had been discovered up to our latest intelligence.—Richmond Dispatch, 19th.

There is now being constructed, at the expense of the Mexican Government, a magnificent rosewood coffin, in which the body of Maximilian will be placed, to wait some duly authorized request from Austria to hand over the body.—Mob. Chronicle.

A negro member of the Alabama Convention, (named Norris) objects to having the President of the United States remembered in the papers with which the deliberations of that sweet-scented body are opened.

ALABAMA CONVENTION.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 20, P. M.

This morning's Session of the Convention was consumed in considering amendments to the majority report on the franchise question. The clause disfranchising all who do not vote on the new Constitution, will be stricken out. The extreme men are still largely in the ascendancy, but are backing down under instructions from the Radical leaders at Washington.

LATER.—At a night Session of the Convention, the majority agreed to strike out of the Article on the franchise, that clause, which disfranchises all who do not vote on the new Constitution. This actionis said to be in consequence of orders from the Radical leaders at Washington.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Nov. 20. P. M.

The colored Conservative men have called a meeting to-mo row, simply to express their utter abhorrence of such fire-brands as Lewis Lindsey and others.

Reports to the Military show that 160 negroes have been discharged in this City for voting the Radical ticket, and 200 more are reported as being discharged for the same cause, but their employers say they have no work for them. In many cases colored men are reported who had been discharged before the election.
