THAT RUMOR.—In our last we spoke of a strange rumor in connection with The SENTINEL office. The rumor is still afloat. It is reported on the streets that glaring and gross errors occur in the printed testimony taken before the fraud commission.

It is reported that there is an apparent effort to screen Sweppon and implicate others. For instance, Sweppon's profits in Florida are said to have been changed in the printing from one million two hundred thousand to two hundred thousand dollars, and Gen. Clingman's fee from fifteen hundred to fifteen thousand dollars. These changes are also reported to have been made from plain manuscript, not easily mistaken.

It is further reported, we learn, that Gen. Clingman, on the 5th inst., applied for the proof sheets of his evidence which were promised him. On the 10th and 11th, it is reported, the form containing Gen. Clingman's testimony was printed. On the 13th, three days after the form had been put to press, and the whole edition printed off, a boy was sent from THE SENTINEL office to Gen. Clingman's hotel with the proof sheets for Gen. Clingman to read. Are these reports true? Let Gen. Clingman and THE SENTINEL answer. This publication of the rumor will afford the parties an opportunity for explanation.—Long Perry.

We should have remained ignorant of the above rumor but for Mr. Cameron's entering our office with his card upon the errors in Gen. Clingman's evidence. We had not read the Perry item which we copy or the number before it.

Hanes must get out of the service of Long Perry and Billy Henderson or he will lose all of that religion of which he boasts.

Brother Ward was in our office yesterday and we took council of him as to whether we should attempt to have Sis Hanes turned out of the church for calumniating us. He said he did not know enough of the Pusylites to advise us in the premises, and referred us to Brother Tenpin who is wise and orthodox on all questions. If Sis. Lewis don't mind Gen'l Clingman will make him feel the sentiments of that heavy stick, religion or no religion.

The following is Mr. Cameron's card:

A CARD.

In justice to the Editor of the SENTINEL, it is proper to state that he is in no wise responsible for, or cognizant of the misstatement in the testimony of General Clingman before the Fraud Commission upon which the Era of the 20th inst. comments. He has seen neither the manuscript nor the proof. The responsibility is solely mine. The error was a typographical, one very important it is true, but one quite likely to occur in any printing office. Other portions of the testimony taken before the commission and printed coincident with that portion in which the error complained of appears, have the item with which the name of Gen'l Clingman is connected accurately stated, which sufficiently disproves the idea of intentional injustice to that gentleman. The error had already been noted as the subject for the "Errata" which will accompany the completed volume. J. D. CAMERON,

Clerk of the Commission in charge of the publication.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The only bill of any general importance which came up Saturday in the House was the bill apportioning representation in the House of Representatives which passed its second reading and was postponed until to-day (Monday.) The day was taken up in the passage of private bills.

In the Senate, the bill to provide for representation in the Senate, was reported and ordered to be printed. The bill will be found reported in full in the Senate proceedings.

Gov. Vance tendered his resignation as U. S. Senator elect. The proceedings on this subject will also be found in the Senate report.

Saturday, in the Senate, was given up to the consideration of private bills solely, the special orders for that day, public measures, being postponed until Monday. The Senate worked diligently and carefully in the consideration of these measures, and between thirty and forty bills were disposed of—an unprecedented day's work. The Senate is a body of working men.

FRAUD COMMISSION.

The Roanoke regales its readers with reading from the Shipp fraud commission. The public are anxiously awaiting the publication of this document. The printers are at work upon it, with all diligence and it will soon appear.

The Roanoke concludes an interesting article on this subject, as follows:

"We shall pause, however, for regular accounts of witnesses. It will answer for the present, by way of general summary, to say that one Rosenthal, confidential clerk of Sweppon, gives the following list of amounts paid by Sweppon to parties (for reasons and considerations unknown to witness) all of which were charged to account of the mammoth scoundrel, Milton S. Littlefield, viz:

Judge Tourgee $2,700; Jo Holden $950; J. T. Deweese $10,000; John Hyman (colored) $2,100; Jim Harris $7,800; "Parson" Sinclair $3,500; Gen. Rivers and Pasmore $20,913; "Senator" Eppes (colored) $97!!! Sleepy Downing $4,000; J. C. Abbott $20,000; F. W. Poyvan $35,000; Peck $4,500; J. M. Heck $15,000; and other sums, amounting, all told, to $241,713.41!!!

When the Legislature adjourns the readers of the SENTINEL will be supplied with reading from the fraud commission.

A young man of Edinburgh having put a crown piece into "the plate by mistake, instead of a penny, asked to have it back, but was refused. In vain is for ever. "Angel, angel, granted he (?) will get credit for it in heaven." "Na, na said James, the doorkeeper, "he's get credit only for the penny he meant to gie."

CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND SELF CRIMINATION.—As we go to press the rumor reaches us that Blow Your Horn Billy, the president of the North Carolina railroad, refused to answer before the committee how much money he received from the Pennsylvania Centre to make the lease. He could not answer without criminating himself. He further stated that he was responsible for the Stafford suit and injunction. We have reason to believe that Billy's money runs the Caucasian, with the avowed purpose of crushing the SENTINEL. We will tree Billy and his coonee Phillips before we are crushed.

For the Sentinel.

POOR LEWIS!

CHEW AS SWEET AS A GOOD thing is said to have been gotten off by Windy Billy Henderson on poor old friend Lewis Hanes. Sam the other day Hanes pass a few days spent in Raleigh, unquiled of Henderson who he was. Henderson replied: "My Lewis, Lewis Hanes." Says the interlocutor, "what is the matter with him?" Windy Billy replied, "why you know he has been starved by the conservative party to which he belonged until a short time since when I took him into the Radical party, since which time he has had plenty to eat, which has resulted in occasional attacks of cholic, and Lewis thinks he is pregnant with a big constitutional idea of which he can't be delivered."

ANDREW AKERMAN'S FOR CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.—The late Governor of New Jersey, in his late message to the Legislature, spoke a word of timely warning in reference to the unwarrantable interference of federal officeholders in the affairs of the State governments. From every quarter evidence of this tendency to aggression and of the alarm it is beginning to excite among moderate republicans, as well as Democrats, may be adduced. The New York Tribune editorially, and Mr. Greeley personally, in his examination before the congressional investigation committee, now in session at the Astor House, in New York city, bears testimony to the active part taken by the officers of the custom-house and other governmental employees in controlling the organization of the New York Legislature and the course of legislation at Albany. Of the part played by Collector Casey and United States Marshal Packard in the faction fight now waging in the Louisiana Legislature we have already spoken. These proceedings, unchecked and unrebuked, can only lead to the utter and inevitable degradation of the state governments. The real rulers of each State will not be the Governor and Legislature duly elected by the people under the provisions of the State constitution, but the federal functionaries who wield the patronage and power of the custom house, and who have at their back the United States marshal and his posse, and, if need be, the bayonets of United States troops. Speaking with special reference to the action of General Sheridan at Chicago, Governor Randolph truly says that if the President "may order troops to perform police duty in Illinois, the constitutional rights of the people of New Jersey are no longer sacred and inviolate, but at the caprice or mercy of corrupt or ambitious rulers."

By the report of the special committee of the Illinois legislature, to whom that portion of Governor Palmer's message which related to this subject was referred, it now appears, as matter of proof, that not even the poor plea of "necessity," which was supposed to palliate the enormity of General Sheridan's offense, has any foundation in fact. The committee show that the police force was intact in its organization, fully equal to the emergency, and that the assumption by General Sheridan to establish a military police over the burned city, and by his own authority to raise troops, issue commissions, and generally exercise all the powers of a military dictator or a successful general in an enemy's country, was at "unexpiry" as it was "unlawful and humiliating." It is further charged by the committee, who refer to the evidence taken before them, that "with a single exception, all the violent acts and riotous conduct occurring in the city from the time of the fire to the 11th of December, were committed by the soldiers under Gen. Sheridan's command."

Such a state of things is calculated, and in the better days of the republic it could not have failed, to excite universal jealousy and alarm on the part of all the friends of the constitutional government throughout the country.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
RALEIGH, Jan. 18th, 1872.

Editor Raleigh Sentinel:

SIR:—On the resolution to impeach G. W. Logan, Judge of the 9th Judicial District, I voted "No;" but in the proceedings of the House, as published in your paper, my name did not appear as voting either in the affirmative, or negative. As I dislike to trouble Editors, or their Reporters about what does, or does not appear in their papers in regard to myself, I said nothing about the error at that time, and did not intend to do so until I saw that the vote, as published in the "SENTINEL," had been copied by many other newspapers—some of which circulate in Yadkin county, and as my constituents may think that I failed to vote on the resolution at all, I desire to say that I voted not only against the resolution, but against the report of the committee, and also for the motions which were made at different times to table, and to indefinitely postpone the whole matter. So my record in this matter is either very good or very bad. My reasons for approving this measure will be given, at the proper time, to those to whom I am directly responsible. By inserting this note in the SENTINEL, you will oblige me.

Very respectfully yours,
J. G. MARLER.

The great diamond weighing 154 carats which has been found at the Cape and is now on its way to England, is already furnished with its legend. It is said to have been found in the wall of one of the native huts, where a poor Irish adventurer had received hospitality for the night, and that being surprised by the light shining amid the darkness, he, upon examination, found it to proceed from a clump of the earth of which the wall was built. Of course the clump was soon detached by the visitor, and this new Koh-i-noor, with many other smaller diamonds, found within.

"GREAT MEN FROM NO CONDITION RISE."—Cardinal Wolsey was the son of a butcher. Oliver Cromwell was the son of brewer. Whitefield was the son of an inn-keeper at Glocester. Columbus was the son of a weaver and was one himself. Boliver was a druggist. Mehemet Ali was a barber. Virgil was the son of potter. Milton was the son of a scrivenger. Horace was the son of a shopkeeper. Demosthenes was the son of a cutler. Robert Burns was a plowman of Ayrshire, Shakspeare was the son of a wool-stapler.

THE POINT.—"I sympathize sincerely with your grief," said a French lady to a recently widowed friend, "to lose such a husband as yours." "Ah! yes, he was very good; and then, you see, such a misfortune is always great, for one knows what kind of a husband one has lost, but cannot tell what kind of a man one will find to succeed him!"

To-day he was instructed by Gov. Vance to present it.

The communication is as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20, 187.

To the Honorable,
the General Assembly of N. Carolina:

I have the honor to return herewith the certificate of election to the Senate of the United States, and to resign into your hands the position which you did me the great honor to confer upon me one year ago.

I beg to render my sincere thanks to each one of you as the representatives of the people to whom I owe so much, for your distinguished preference, and to assure you that I regret my inability to secure the position chiefly because it deprives me of the opportunity of proving by faithful serving of my native state, the earnest desire I feel to deserve this great confidence. With general and individual assurances of respect and regard,

I am, gentlemen, very sincerely,
Your obliged fellow citizen,
ZEBULON B. VANCE.

MISCEGENATION.—On Tuesday evening of last week, a negro man, Aleck Calloway, in company with a good-looking white girl, who proved afterwards to be Mollie Coleman, 13 years of age from Pittsylvania county, Va., arrived at Reidsville, in Rockingham county, on foot. The negro applied to one of the citizens for work, but the gentleman not liking the appearance of things declined to employ him. That night a party of men, headed by the girl's brother, arrived in Reidsville in search of the parties, who they had tracked in that direction. They went to Dr. Smith who informed them where the couple had taken up quarters for the night. The party proceeded to the place and captured the runaways, and were going to lynch the negro man at once. Dr. Smith persuaded them not to take the law in their own hands, and they finally promised not to take his life, but it is thought the sentence was only commuted to a no less severe punishment. The father of the unfortunate girl, we understand, is a man of some property, and a thoroughbred radical, and has used all his influence to convince the people that a negro was as good as a white man, and has succeeded in bringing the curse to his own fireside. We pity the girl.—Winston Sentinel.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. For purifying the blood; removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swelling of the Bones, Ulcerations of the throat and legs, Blotches, Pimples on the face, Erysipelas and all Scaly Eruptions of the skin, and Beautifying the Complexion.

M

Henry T. Helmbold's CONCENTRATED.
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the neck of the bladder, and inflammation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the prostrate gland, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel, brick dust deposit, and mucus or milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease, wakefulness, dimness of vision, pain in the back, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption on the face, pallid countenance, universal lassitude of the muscular system, etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty five, and from thirty five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains, bedwetting in children.

B

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, excesses and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood, &c., superceding copaiba in affections for which it is used, and syphilitic affections in these diseases, used in connection with Helmbold's Rose Wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other Remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of customary evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from indiscretion or habit of dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent Physicians and Midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms).

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, ETC., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED
ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Indurations of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness and Incipient Inflammation, Hives, Rash, Moth Patches, Dryness of Scalp or Skin, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used, restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its private claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Meritorious and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu, Sarsaparilla, and Catawba Grape Pills, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed.
