George W. Childs of Philadelphia, sends us the Ledger Almanac for 1872. It is well gotten up, and is sent free to each subscriber of the Ledger.

BLIND TOM.—We are happy to announce that that celebrated musical prodigy, Blind Tom will concertize in this city on Sunday and Friday evenings. See advertisement.

We are pained to learn to-day that Gen. Bragg is still in a very critical condition. We still hope his life may be spared for many years yet, for the state and our people can ill afford to lose his valuable services.

HUNG JURY.—The jury in the case of Jim Buck against Wm. B Mills returned a verdict about 12 o'clock on Saturday, after being shut up and unable to agree for twelve days. The verdict was in favor of the defendant, father-in-law of plaintiff, who was sued for barboring plaintiff's wife, his daughter.

BROKE JAIL.—Thomas Roland, negro, was in jail for burning Benton Alfred's turpentine distillery. It was reported in the city he broke jail on Monday morning. A gentleman from Tom's neighborhood says he was at home on Sunday night twelve miles from the city before he was reported as having broke jail. Did Tom break jail or did Timothy allow him to go to church, and Tom forgot to return to his keeper.

HEAVY HOG.—The proprietor of the Hotel at Pittsboro, H. H. Burke, has a hog two and a half years old, a cross of Essex and Berkshire, which weighs 737 pounds; is six feet eight inches around the girth. The porker fattened 62 pounds in September, 105 in October, 62 in November and 72 in December. Who can beat this?

ERROR IN DIAGNOSIS.—A city paper reports the furloughed Captain of the late Confederacy, now furloughed Minister Plenipotentiary from Peru, as "suffering with rheumatism, and returned to this country on that account." This is an erroneous diagnosis. The captain is remarkably healthy and rosy, and is only laboring under a slight attack of "Gubernatorialitis," which will soon be driven off by a dose of "Oliveritis" or a week "Toddy."

Christianburg, Va., is in ecstasies over a venerable turkey gobbler who has builded for himself a nest and is now gravely sitting upon four apples. It is presumed that his action is intended as a grave satire upon the woman's rights business.

We know a man near Hillsboro who set a gobbler once on eggs. His gobblership was seated in a box and strips nailed over his back which prevented his leaving the nest. He was in a fair way to hatch all the man declared, after a week's sitting it was against nature and the constitution, and released the gobbler.

NASHVILLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—It will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere, that Dr. C. T. Murphy, the worthy and able Senator from the county of Sampson, has been appointed by this company, the General Supervising Agent for the State of North Carolina. We regard the company as being peculiarly fortunate in securing the services of such an energetic and exemplary man as the Doctor. If he will be as invincible in the canvass for Life Insurance as he has always been before the people for political preferment, his success, as well as that of the company he represents, will be all that can be desired.

WHY do not some of the eastern fishermen plant the "spat" of the oyster. There certainly would be more profit, and less cost and trouble, than any other pursuit down east. Oysters, during the winter in our metropolitan market, have been and still are selling at—inferior $1.25 a gallon when opened,—superior quality $1.50. Bivalves, if our eastern friends were not so careless and indifferent can, in but very few seasons, realize fortunes for them still and, sell this healthy and delicious shellfish in the up-country markets at from 50 cents to one dollar per gallon. None but the wealthy now can afford this costly luxury. At the latter prices, all could afford to eat them now and then. And the increased consumption would hugely benefit both producer and consumer.

CORUNDUM DISCOVERY.—Prof. C. D. Smith, of Macon county, has discovered this valuable mineral in large quantities on Buck Creek, Macon county, about 20 miles west of Franklin. The Professor has no doubt of its existence in veins.

MR. THOMAS L. LEITWICH, an old and much esteemed citizen of Liberty, died on Saturday, the 13th inst., at the advanced age of 80 years. He had been a leading member of the Presbyterian church for more than forty years. He was the father of Mrs. Alex. McPheeters, of this city.

A new kind of trial by jury has been tried in Saxony for petty crimes, and has worked so well that its extension is advocated. It is composed of three lawyers and four laymen. A majority verdict must have the vote of at least one lawyer, as it must have the voice of five of the seven.

M. JEFF THOMPSON.—The New Orleans correspondent of the St. Louis Times writes about General M. Jeff. Thompson as follows:

"This ex Confederate officer and a somewhat noted individual is at present domiciled in New Orleans, and forms a fraction of the ring of disreputable thieves engaged in the laudable occupation of plundering the honest portion of the people of Louisiana. Those familiar with Jeff's course during the late unpleasantness, the vim and ardor with which he fought the federals, and who have read his famous and somewhat bombastic proclamation fulminated during the campaign in southeast Missouri, in which he threatened to draw, hang and quarter two yankees for every rebel put to death by the enemy, would scarcely think it possible for the 'Old Swamp Fox' to fraternize so lovingly with radicals and carpet-baggers. In fact he out herods Herod, and is to-day the most intense radical in the city. He is now Chief Engineer of the Board of Public Works, an office worth, with perquisites and stealings, about $20,000 a year. He lives in a stylish mansion on St. Charles street, drives a spanking team, moves in the best (radical) society, is an 'hail fellow well met' with all the big thieves of the black and tan government."

The clanishness of the negro, and the want of unanimity among the whites is a fact too well known for us to attempt to prove it here. The colored race of the south, to a man, unite against us politically. They oppose us in every election, oppose every movement for the advancement of the white man's interest. And while we entirely deprecate anything like a hostile attitude toward the colored man, yet we do think that the whites should look more to their interest by becoming more united. Why should we be forever assisting a people who are continually opposing us in every movement, political or otherwise? We certainly consider ourselves as anything but prejudiced against the colored man. We are willing for him to go the way that pleases him best, but at the same time, if it pleases him that that way be diametrically opposed to our interests, we should certainly, guided by the first law of nature, "self preservation," unite to oppose so inimical an attitude, and to assist each other. We must be true to ourselves, and not play into the hands of our enemies.—Daily Commercial.

AN APPEAL TO REASON.—Health would be much more carefully guarded, than it is at present, and the average of human life lengthened by many years, if common sense and the light of experience were accepted by the universal public as the medical monitor and guide. The true philosophy of health is simple. It consists in refraining from indulgences and imprudences which impair the vital forces, and in supplying any deficiency of vital power and constitutional vigor that may exist, by invigorating and alterative treatment. To reinforce and regulate a feeble system, and to prevent a more vigorous physique by yielding to unhealthy and debilitating influences, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unquestionably the most potent of all vegetable portfolios. As a stimulant it is unsurpassed by any spirituous medical practice; as a tonic and stomachic, the most infallible; as an anti-bilious agent, the safest and surest, and as an aperient and regulating medicine, mild and painless, yet irresistible. It is a protection against disease of every kind, and all seasons, and is particularly efficacious as a means of fortifying the system against the ailments generated by raw, damp, unequal atmosphere. Hence its great value as a tonic tonic and invigorant. No one predisposed to indigestion, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism or nervous headache, should ever be without this Vital Elixir. As a certain class of country dealers are very anxious to dose their customers with "local bitters," of a worthless or pernicious character, which they represent to be equal or superior to the great national tonic, the public is hereby forewarned against their "tricks of trade."

(NASHVILLE, TENN.)

HAVING ACCEPTED THE APPOINTment of General Agent for the State of North Carolina for this excellent Southern Company, I beg leave to present its claims to the people of the State, with the assurance that after a careful and thorough examination into its financial security and strength, as well as its successful management, I can conscientiously recommend its advantages and rates to the insuring public.

Extracts from the forthcoming January report of the Agricultural Department:

"The department is now receiving principally for distribution to the South, an liberal portion for experimental purposes, improved varieties of field and sugar corn, field and garden peas and beans, Italian rye, grass broom, schraden and lucerne, mangelwurzel and sugar beet, cabbage and onion seeds. It will also receive during the month fresh seeds of the Ramie and Jute plants, the latter of which cannot be grown successfully north of Tennessee. Oats and barley of approved varieties have been ordered from Scotland and Germany, and will be distributed in ample time for spring sowing.

A choice variety of white spring wheat, grown in Oregon, from seed imported from Australia, has been distributed in the Northwestern States and Territories. As there is much inquiry in the Southern States, for seed of the Japan clover, it is deemed proper to republish from the annual report for 1869 the following opinion by the Superintendent of the garden and grounds of the Department.

Lespedeza striata, Japan bush clover is a leguminous plant that has lately attracted some attention in the Southern States, as a forage plant. It is poorly adapted to any such use, and not, by any means worthy of recognition by the cultivator. It is a low, hard wooded annual, spreading freely on sandy and poor soils, with very small and scanty foliage.
