

Our Organizations

Hadassah Raffles Trip To Israel

To celebrate the 75th Diamond Anniversary of National Hadassah, the Charlotte Chapter is participating in a raffle sponsored by the Southern Seaboard Region. The holder of the winning ticket — to be drawn January 18, 1987 — will enjoy an unbelievable 11-day trip to Israel, beginning March 8, 1987. Tickets are $10 each and are now on sale.

Seventy five percent of the monies received from the sale of tickets will benefit Charlotte Hadassah projects in Israel.

You may call and reserve your ticket from Mary Wojnowich, 366-4936 or Deane Boxer, 366-2408. All checks should be made payable to Hadassah and mailed to: Mary Wojnowich, 925 Sumac Drive, Charlotte, N.C. 28211

Paid Up Membership Luncheon

The Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah will hold its annual "Paid Up Membership Luncheon" on Wednesday, September 17 at 11:30 a.m. in Gorelick Hall at Shalom Park. The luncheon is free to all paid up members — current and new. Babysitting and rides to the center will be available. Call Linda Segal - 372-6157 for information. Hadassah welcomes women in the community who would like to become new members of the chapter.

FOR EVERY OCCASION — ON SALE NOW

Greeting cards...Birthdays, Bar Mitzvahs, Anniversaries Tree Certificates.....Plant a tree in Israel in honor of...
Certificates.....Contributions to projects in Israel

New This Year...New Year's Cards featuring the Great Seal of Jerusalem

Call: Estelle Goozner 399-8639
Lottie Goldman 364-1393
Jane Abel 366-3309

B'nai B'rith Lodge Has Busy Summer

Activities

On July 30, the Lodge ate pizza and attended the Charlotte O's game against Knoxville at Crockett Park. On August 23, the Third Annual August Freeze, a picnic for members, their families and prospective members and their families, was held at Park Road Park. For membership information, call Jeff Turk, 563-2603.

Blood Drive

Thanks to all of you who participated in the annual B'nai B'rith Blood Drive held at the JCC on August 16. We appreciate all of you who donated your blood as well as the volunteers who gave of their time at the desks.

Jewish "Pal" Program

The lodge has initiated a Jewish Big Brother Program in Charlotte. We have matched several children from single Jewish families with lodge members who are a "pal" to them for a few hours each weekend. If you are interested in supporting the program, please call Lloyd Scher, 567-0729.

District Convention

The Charlotte Lodge received a number of District awards at the B'nai B'rith District 5 Convention held in Orlando in July. In the category of lodges with 101-250 members, Ken Stern won the Outstanding Lodge President award. The Lodge won the Outstanding Lodge Project Award for the planning, involvement and execution of last year's Christmas Substitution Program, chaired by Lloyd Scher. The Lodge also received a District Presidential Citation for the "encouragement and involvement in the development of young leaders and members through creative programs and projects." Frank Rosen won the District Young Leaders Award and was elected to the International Adult Jewish Education Commission. Frank is also District 5's nominee for the Label A. Katz International Young Leadership Award.

—Ken Stern

Charlotte Chapter B'nai B'rith Women John Rosemond To Speak At JCC

The Jewish Community Center and Charlotte Chapter B'nai B'rith Women will cosponsor an evening with John Rosemond, noted child psychologist and seasoned father, on Wednesday, October 1 at 7:30 p.m. in Gorelick Hall at Shalom Park. This program is being held to promote Mecklenburg County's "Let's Talk Month".

Mr. Rosemond worked as a clinical psychologist, guidance counselor and psychology instructor in Illinois. The Rosemonds then moved to North Carolina where Mr. Rosemond directed mental health programs serving young children and their families. He is now in private practice as a family psychologist in Gastonia.

Mr. Rosemond is author of the book Parent Power and writes the nationally syndicated column "Big People, Little People" which appears in newspapers in 50 cities, including Charlotte. He has also written articles for Better Homes and Gardens and Good Housekeeping.

In the last few years, Mr. Rosemond's reputation as a public speaker has taken him to various cities, among them New York, Seattle, Des Moines, Pittsburgh, Duluth and Kansas City. A relaxed and engaging speaker, his talks and workshops are not only informative, but witty and provocative as well. Mr. Rosemond will speak on issues dealing with all age levels of parenting, "The Six Point Plan for Raising Happy Healthy Children."

John Rosemond

Tickets may be purchased in advance at a cost of $3 per person or $5 a couple through the JCC or by calling Judy Miller (542-5921) or Tobey Silber (541-0910). Ticket sales at the door are $4 per person.

—Susan Coen

Pool Party

Charlotte Chapter's annual pool party, held again at the home of Reggie and Myron Wittlin, was a huge success. Everyone had a great time and a few even went swimming!

Personal Giving

Keynote speaker for the Personal Giving Luncheon, held at Shalom Park, was Jeanne Bohn, public affairs director of WSOC-TV. Chapter member Terri Cathcart, a past president of the chapter and president of Avodah Council BBW, was a featured speaker for this once a year direct solicitation.

Open Board Meeting

At the September 24 board meeting, a prominent female attorney will speak on "Everything You Wanted to Know About Legal Matters but Were Embarrassed to Ask in Front of Your Husband."

Dolls for Democracy

We are scheduling presentations for our "Dolls" program for the fall season. If your child is in the second through sixth grade age group and if you are interested in this program, please contact Janet Rubin, 365-0172. She can arrange a demonstration for classrooms or scout groups or help you become a "Doll Lady."

Amblyopia

Amblyopia screening is continuing this year. Please contact Margie Liebshtein, 541-1844, if you have a few hours to devote to this worthwhile project.

—Marla Lewis

HaLailah Chapter B'nai B'rith Women Presents BAKING WITH PENNY

Tuesdays 9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Sept. 23 - Breadbaking

Oct. 21 - Pasta

Nov. 11 - Thanksgiving
Desserts

Dec. 16 - Layer Cakes

$10 per class

$30 per 4 classes

All proceeds donated to HaLailah. To register call Penny Eisenberg, 847-4037.

4700 E. Independence Blvd.
535-7980

Between now and the end of September, beat the 1987 price increase with big year end discounts & large selection. That is the Crown advantage.

SIMON ESTROFF

There is a special feel in an

Would you like to receive

The American Jewish TIMES OUTLOOK?

Write:

P.O. Box 33218
Charlotte, N.C. 28233

We are pleased to announce that Thomas J. Norby, Jr. has joined our firm
as Vice President, Investments in our SouthPark office.

FIRST TRYON SECURITIES

Member New York Stock Exchange
Charlotte, North Carolina 704/331-0422