For the Sentinel.

WINDSOR, N. C., June 8, 1872.

Dear Sentinel:—A moment is left me to drop you a brief note.

On Thursday, the 6th instant, our ancient village witnessed scenes that should grieve deeply the heart of every patriot. It was the occasion of the meeting of the radicals of Bertie to nominate county candidates. This county is now united to Northampton, forming the new Senatorial district. Joseph W. Beasley, of Coleraine, was nominated for the Senate, subject to the action of the convention at Jackson. Frederick C. Miller, for House of Commons; Bryant Lee, col. for Coroner; John G. Mitchell, for Treasurer; R. F. King, for Register; J. W. Heckstaff, D. L. Kale, W. T. Ward, Wright Cherry and Kader Mountain, (two last colored.) Commissioners. These are said to be the nominations, but such was the tumult and confusion that I cannot vouch for accuracy.

A noisy crowd filled the courthouse at an early hour. Fitful, frightful attempts at oratory were made by several "gemmen of color." The confusion became so great that new speakers arose to "plats of order," hoping thus to obtain a quiet hearing, but the self appointed chairman could not see it. A proposition was then made for regular organization, and do as democrats did. It was agreed to by thundering acclamation. Some one was chosen Moderator, but the man elected could not be found. Chaos became rampant. Clubs, knives and pistols ruled the hour. Helter skelter, perhaps such another stir up, you never saw. Masses moved in solid column for the doors; the less fortunate made their egress through apertures heretofore deemed impervious to bodies of ordinary size. They tumbled out the windows in promiscuous masses, head foremost, feet foremost, white and black.

"Oh what a fall was there."

Wash Boon took the stand, and drew a portion of them back; said he was appointed canvasser of the state at large, that republicans had been accused of stealing public funds, both parties would steal, he said, and candidly confessed that he preferred the party that stole the most. His speech was received with loudest applause. Wash was once a preacher, but all that is played out. He was succeeded by Hon. (?) John R. Page, member of the House of Commons, from Chowan. Page examined list of nominees; every office of value, he said, was to be filled by white men. Such injustice was denounced in angry terms, black men, he contended should have valuable offices with whites. Such logic did not suit the ears of the white brethren. Dissatisfaction was expressed, negroes did not understand the difficulty, and commenced sneaking out. Soon the whole crowd adjourned to the whiskey shops and then commenced a series of fighting, rioting, &c., which ended the day of meeting, of the Republican party of Bertie. Alas, alas!

One old gentleman, a man of standing and influence, one who who sympathised cordially with the black race, remarked that he was more than ever satisfied that the elective franchise had been extended to negroes, for they would soon destroy them elves and the country could have peace. He did not so much blame the black people as he did their unprincipled leaders who were using them for selfish purposes, regardless of their present or future welfare.

CHAMPION.

If Raphael Semmes and Braxton Bragg can vote for Mr. Greeley we cannot well perceive how any Southern man can see any insuperable objection to doing the same thing. These distinguished men do not prefer Mr. Greeley for anything he did before or during the war. They know that he was against us firmly. But they support him now because when the war was over he favored the immediate restoration of peace and contentment by according to the South general amnesty and equality with the rest of the nation, and because he is pledged to the Cincinnati platform, which demands the restoration of State authority, and denounces as unconstitutional the centralization of all power in the Federal Government; and, furthermore, because he is pledged to such reforms as will purify the Administration and put a check on corrupt legislation. These are the reasons that decide the conduct of these distinguished men, as they also control the preferences of the southern white people, with the rarest possible exceptions.—Richmond Dispatch.

MEETING OF LIBERAL CONGRESSMEN.—The Liberal Republicans of the Senate and House assembled at the Greeley and Brown headquarters on Saturday evening. After some consultation on the political campaign, Hon. R. E. Fenton was chosen chairman of the Congressional Campaign Committee. Correspondence relating to the canvass, political documents, organization of clubs &c., may be addressed to Mr. Fenton at Washington D. C. Mr. John D. Defrees will continue his connection with the Campaign Committee as heretofore announced.

For the Sentinel.

OLD FORT, McDowell Co., N. C.,

June 7th, 1872.

MR. EDITOR:—I wish through your columns, to call the attention of railroad officers of the State to the present great difficulties of shipping beef cattle from the Western to the Eastern part of the State:

First, the present tariff is too high. It cost one dollar per hundred pounds nett, to ship beef cattle by the car load from this point to Raleigh, about one dollar and thirty seven cents to Goldsboro', and fully two dollars to Wilmington.

The second difficulty, we have been compelled to ship in common freight boxes, which not only hazards the life of the animals by imperfect ventilation, but causes the cattle to shrink a great deal more than necessary which is a very serious loss to the shipper.

The third difficulty we meet is, trains going east make bad connections. Cattle going East by the present schedule are compelled to stand in the cars at Salisbury from 3 1-2 o'clock p. m., to 1 o'clock a. m. Also delays are met in Raleigh and Goldsboro'.

The mountain counties are loudly calling for reform. And when the above errors are remedied we will send all of our beef cattle to the Eastern markets, and by that means we will have one of the greatest sources of wealth to the mountains fostered, which will rapidly reclaim our worn out fields and replace the present scrub stock with the best in the United States. J. N. R.

HOW HORACE'S NEIGHBORS WILL GO TO BALTIMORE.—On the 4th of July twelve citizens of Westchester county will start from Mount Vernon for Baltimore. They will travel the whole distance in a magnificent club wagon drawn by four beautiful horses. The leaders will be white and the wheel-horses black. The club wagon will be gold-mounted, the body blue, and the running part white and red. On the sides of the wagon in raised in bronze letters will be the words:

"Weschester county,
The Home of Horace Greeley."

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE PROPERTY.

Under a decree of the Superior Court of Orange county, I will offer for sale at the Court House Door, on Friday July 19th, 1872, valuable property near the town of Hillsboro, and immediately on the North Carolina railroad, formerly occupied as a Military School by the late Col. C. C. Tew, and forty acres of land, more or less, adjoining. The building consists of the Tew three story brick building, known as the "barracks" and a few acres adjoining, and a long farm building used as a mess hall, hospital and chapel.

The whole can be put in complete repair at a reasonable outlay, and is well adapted for the purposes of a School or Factory.

The property is sold under regular proceedings to make real estate assets, and a good title will be secured.

Terms of sale: Credit, except $100 cash for expenses, purchase money to be paid in three instalments at 12 and 18 months with interest from day of sale. Bond and good security required and title retained until the whole is paid. Also at the same time a tract of 100 acres, more or less, adjoining Wm Barton and others. Sale at 12 M.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—In the Senate yesterday Blaine moved to take up the report of the committee on conference, on the steamboat bill. Conkling gave notice that if the bill should be taken up he would talk at least two hours against it. Blaine and Morton argued importance of the passage of the bill at this session. A motion to take it up, was lost, yeas 28, nays 25, and so the steamboat bill failed in the Senate.

Failure in House allowing tug and freight boats to carry additional steam, was reported yesterday. Navigation laws remain unchanged.

THE INDIANA DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 11.—Indianapolis City is crowded with delegates to the democratic convention. Niblack and Kerr are prominent for Governor. Hendricks declines.

LATER.—The convention promises to be the largest held for many years. It is understood that under the pressure Hendricks will accept the nomination for Governor. The indications are strong that the convention will endorse the Cincinnati nomination.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Treasury debt June 6th, 1872. The attention of all parties interested is particularly directed to the following provisions, of an act making appropriations to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the service of the government, for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1872, and for former years and for other purposes, appropriated May 18th, 1872, and the regulation for carrying the same into effect. Section five, that the Secretary of the Treasury be and is hereby authorized and directed to pay to the lawful owners or their legal representatives of all cotton seized after the 30th day of June, 1865, by the agents of the government unlawfully and in violation of their instructions, the net proceeds without interest of the sales of said cotton actually paid into the Treasury of the United States, provided that the receipt thereof shall be taken and received in full satisfaction of all claims against the United States, for or on account of the seizure of said cotton, and a sufficient sum for such payment is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and provided further, that the foregoing provisions shall not apply to any claim now pending before the Court of Claims, nor to any claim not filed in the Treasury Department within six months after the passage of this act, and the sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the payment of the necessary expenses of defending the United States in respect to claims for said proceeds, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The following rules and regulations concerning claims for the proceeds of certain cotton under the foregoing provisions of law are hereby established:

First. Every claim shall be stated in the petition, addressed to the Secretary, and signed and duly verified by the oath or affirmation of the claimant or claimants.

Second. The petition must state first the full names of all the claimants, their present residence, and their residence when the cotton was seized. Second, who were the original and subsequent owners of the cotton, who now are lawfully entitled to the proceeds thereof, or interested therein, and when and upon what consideration the title was successfully passed.

Third. The quantity of cotton alleged to have been seized or taken in bales and pounds, the kind and quality, and the number, marks, signs or devices upon the bales, and the time of such seizure, the names the person or persons by whom the seizure was made, and whether they were agents or officers of the government, the date and place of seizure and to what places conveyed or transported, and all other material circumstances connected with the seizure and disposition of the cotton with as much particularity and exactness as can be done, and if any voucher receipt or other writing was given therefor by the persons taking the same it should be attached to the petition.

Fourth. Whether the claim has been heretofore presented to any officer or agent of the department of the government or to Congress, or to any committee thereof, and what decision or action, if any has been had in regard to the same.

Fifth. In setting forth facts in the petition, the claimant must always distinguish between those which he states of his own knowledge, and those upon information and belief. He must say as to the first, that he avers them of his own knowledge, and as to the last, that he states them upon information and belief.

Sixth. There must be appended to the petition the Post-office address of the claimant, and when represented by Attorneys proper letters of Attorney or other sufficient evidence of authority must be filed therewith.

Seventh. When the claim is brought by a guardian, executor or other legal representative, the appointment of the representative, or a copy of the letters testamentary, or of administration granted to such representative duly authenticated, must be filed with the petition.

Eighth. Each material averment of the petition should be corroborated by at least two creditable and disinterested witnesses, and their sworn statement should be filed with the petition, or as soon thereafter as possible.

Ninth. The claimant, upon completing the proofs relied on to sustain his claim, should so notify the Secretary of the Treasury in writing, and after the expiration of the six months allowed by the act of Congress for filing claims. The cases will be taken up and disposed of in the order in which such notifications have been received, unless further delay is asked for by the claimant or demanded by the public interests.

DELAWARE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

DOVER, June 11.

The Democratic State Convention which met to-day, passed resolutions bitterly denouncing Grant and the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments, and call for a straight Democratic ticket.

CAUSELESS DEPRESSION.—This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an aliterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be over estimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

THE TRACITY OF TRUTH.—When a nation as clear headed as the Americans once become convinced, from long experience and observation, that an article possesses superior excellence as a medicine, not all the preposterous clamor of all the worthless nostrum venders in the universe can shake their belief in its efficacy. Truth is a very tenacious thing, as these worthies are beginning to discover. Plantation Bitters has too firm a hold upon the popular esteem to be in the slightest degree effected by the cold water distribes which the advertisers of fermented slops, "without a particle of alcohol," are so fond of launching against alcoholic preparations. The public knows very well that this peerless renovant and tonic does contain spirits, but it also knows that they are of the purest and most wholesome description, viz: fine old St. Croix, the most active and beneficial diffuser of its remedial and invigorating properties throughout the system which could possibly be adopted.
