LOCAL DOTS.

Do not fail to give the new advertisement a careful perusal.

We understand that the ladies at the recent Memorial Fair cleared $500.

Pistol shooting in the Western Ward is now a nightly occurrence.

Sheriff White, of Mecklenburg is in the city.

Capt. H. G. Springs, of Charlotte, was in the city yesterday.

The local must again apologize for the scarcity of items. He has for the past ten days, been engaged upon other duties.

Letter in the postoffice addressed to Mrs. Mary Smith, Philadelphia, held for lack of proper postage.

A. J. Burton, Esq., Associate Editor of the News, is confined to his room by sickness. We trust his indisposition will be of short duration.

A number of back lots in eastern and western wards sadly need cleaning out. Will not the Board of City Commissioners see that the law is enforced in this particular..

Water has been struck in the northwest corner of Nash square. It is some 35 feet deep. The digging of a number of these wells has been ordered by the city authorities in order that the different parts of the city may be supplied with pumps.

It is now considered the thing for gentlemen to wear a Dolly Varden vest of the same pattern as his girl's overskirt. When parties are engaged it is also customary for the lady to make a necktie of the same material that her street dresses are made, and give it to her future husband, who will wear it at all times in as conspicuous a manner as possible.

Two gentlemen, living in the Middle Ward, called upon Mr. A. J. Ruijes, proprietor of the National Hotel, in regard to his back lot, and he showed them a certificate from the Chief of the Police stating that his yard was in a cleanly condition, and that the offensive smell proceeded from some other quarter.

DR. WEIL.—This distinguished optician is still at the Yarbrough House. He gives entire satisfaction to the many who daily call on him. His Brazilian glasses are pronounced perfect. See his advertisement.

I. O. O. F.—Regular session of McKee Encampment, No. 15, this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock, sharp! Patriarchs are earnestly requested to attend promptly. Nomination of officers and other important business will be transacted.

PAINFUL RUMOR.—The painful rumor of the death of W. H. High, ex-Sheriff of this county has been current on our streets for the past two days. Mr. H. and family recently left this county and took up their residence in California. We trust the rumor will prove to be unfounded.

CURE FOR THE TOOTHACHE.—The following is said to be an excellent cure for toothache: To a tablespoonful of any kind of spirits, add the same quantity of sharp vinegar, and a teaspoonful of common salt, mix them well together; hold the liquid in the mouth so that it can enter the cavity or hollow in the tooth; it will give almost instantaneous relief.

DIED.—We regret to announce that the death of Mr. John C. Askew, aged 23 years, son of W. F. Askew, Esq., of this city, occurred yesterday (Thursday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence of his father. The funeral services will take place at the Baptist Church this (Friday) afternoon.

Mr. Askew was taken ill on Sunday last.

POLITICAL MAP.—We return our thanks for a political map of this State, giving the congressional districts as arranged by the last General Assembly. Besides this, the aggregate voting population of each county, as per census of 1870, is given, together with the official vote of the elections of 1870-71. This is a most valuable work, and the price being only 50 cents apiece, it will have, beyond all doubt, a rapid sale.

The map was gotten up by W. D. Cook, Esq., and the statistics were compiled by M. V. B. Gilbert, Esq.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court met at 10 a. m., yesterday. Judges Bond and Brooks presiding. Cases upon the civil docket were called and disposed of. A majority of them were continued.

The Grand Jury found the following new bills:

U. S. vs. Cary Godwin, Robt. Blue, Daniel McClelan, N. R. Stevens, Jno. W. Taylor, Newbern Tew, conspiracy under the act of 1871; Cumberland county.

U. S. vs. Jno. A. Rogers, removing tobacco without proper stamps.

U. S. vs. Wm. Champion, passing an altered U. S. note; Wake county.

U. S. vs. W. W. Woodell, passing counterfeit money; Wake county.

U. S. vs. Blackman Lee, Newbern Lee, E. Spell and W. B. Jackson, conspiracy; Sampson county.

U. S. vs. W. B. Lee, Albert Tart, Austin Tart, Charles Denning, T. G. Ganey, R. B. Westbrook, John A. Westbrook, Moore Ward, James Tart, Isaac Eldridge, Kenneth Eldridge and Claiborne Westbrook, conspiracy; Sampson county.

After the transaction of some business of not much general interest, the court adjourned until to-day (Friday) at 10 o'clock, a. m.

LET THE PEOPLE SPEAK.—When independent candidates come out let a vote be taken between such candidate and the regular nominee at every public meeting. A viva voce vote will do with tellers to count. The weak man will soon retire.

The smell of rotten fish, thrown from the market house into the adjacent streets, continues to salute the nostrils of those whose business takes them anywhere in the vicinity of the market. People can accustom themselves to almost any kind of diet or smell.

OUR AGENT.—W. J. Edwards, Esq., of this city, will visit Oxford and Warrenton during the present week, and will take moneys of persons desirous of subscribing to the Daily or Weekly SENTINEL, and also will call on those in arrears to this office. We ask our friends in those places to subscribe, and also to pay their arrearages, in order that we may be better able to give them a live paper. Mr. Edwards is authorized to give receipts for collections and subscriptions.

PERSONAL.—A. J. McNair, Esq., late of Lumberton, but now of Baltimore, is in the city. When in Lumberton recently the following conversation occurred between Mr. McNair and Hon. Oliver Dockery: "Do you believe Henry Berry Lowery is dead?" asked Hon. Oliver. "I don't believe it," replied Mr. McNair. "Where is he, then?" asked the ex member of Congress. "In Washington City seeking office under Grant to enable him to reform the civil service," was the reply. The ex member had no more to say, and took his leave without even saying "good morning!"

POLICE ITEMS.—Yesterday morning (Thursday) the following cases were disposed of by his Honor, Mayor Whitaker

Margaret Norwood, col., appeared and complained of violent and abusive language on the part of a feminine neighbor (name forgotten) of hers. After the examination of several witnesses, his Honor bound over the party complained against to keep the peace in a bond of $200.

Anthony Jones, col., charged with having in his possession iron stolen from the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad was next arraigned. The evidence was strong against Anthony and he was bound over in a bond of $200 to make his appearance at the next term of the Wake county Superior Court.

GOV. CALDWELL AND THE ARMING OF COLORED TROOPS.

The commissioning and arming of a company of colored troops, in this city, by Gov. Caldwell, is exciting attention within and without the State.

If there were no other reason for the very general feeling in regard to this matter, the recent murder of Col. Frank M. Wishart would be a sufficient one.

Colonel Wishart was a prominent and useful citizen, and possessed all the virtues that adorn men in their relations in private life. A tried and proved soldier upon many a hard fought battlefield, he has established a reputation for indomitable courage, undisturbed self-possession, and imperturbable coolness. Ever careful and watchful of the interest and comfort of his men, and prompt, skillful, brave and efficient in the discharge of every duty, whether in camp or field, in bivouac or in battle, he was a favorite alike with those whom he commanded and those he obeyed. He was no ordinary man.

The same qualities that made him a good soldier in war, made Wishart a good citizen in peace. He was living in a community that had known him from boyhood surrounded by comrades who had fought with him, and under him and over him. His worth and his excellencies, as a citizen and a soldier, were well and widely known. It is not surprising, then, that the cold-blooded, deliberate murder of such a man should attract attention to all the circumstances connected therewith. People naturally recall the fact that his murder is only the latest of a long-continued series of murders committed by the same known band of outlaws; that the Chief Magistrate of the State has declared persistently his want of authority to organize the military power of the county to put down these men openly setting its laws at defiance. It would be strange if men who knew and loved Wishart as a citizen, and who were bound to him by all those ties that link together men who have fought and marched side by side for years, should be indignant that, ere his blood was dry upon the ground, Caldwell, who avowed himself to be without authority to organize militia in Robeson, where there was need for them, should commission a company of colored troops in the city of Wilmington, where there was no need for them. The blood of Wishart cries to Heaven for vengeance and for punishment upon his murderers.

Who is responsible for his murder? Let Gov. Caldwell ponder well what his answer will be at the great day of judgment when called upon to account for his refusal to use the means in his power to extirpate the outlaws ere they assassinated the gallant Wishart!

But it is asserted in behalf of the Governor, that he "had full legal authority to issue the arms, but that he has no authority to organize and call into active service the militia of the State."

If there be any law that authorizes the Governor to commission a company and to issue arms, but which forbids him to organize the militia, we will be glad to have it pointed out. Gov. Caldwell seeks to throw the responsibility upon the Legislature, and says he has been stripped of power. It is time for him to come to the book. Let him show, if he can, any law that takes away from the Governor of the State a single power over the militia that his predecessors before the war possessed. If there be such a law it is upon the statute book. Let it be produced.—Wilmington Journal.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Democratic Conventions of Kansas and Iowa indicate an overwhelming sentiment for the Cincinnati platform and nominees. A resolution contains this paragraph: "But when lawless ambition, imbecility, corruption and man worship dominate, a party duty of all citizens without regard to previous political affiliation, and forgetful of all past and buried differences, is to join their hands and hearts in any effort to crush such a party, and drive its leaders from power.

The Iowa convention instructed its delegates to act as a unit. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the principles enunciated by the late Cincinnati convention, taken in connection with the letter of Horace Greeley, accepting the nomination of that convention, constitute a platform on which all elements of opposition to the present corrupt Federal government can stand.

The English government will ask eight months recess of the Geneva Board of Arbitration. The United States will neither favor nor oppose recess unless England agrees to the supplemental article. In case a recess is denied, England will not present her cause.

The tax on snuff remains at thirty-two cents.

Until the Alabama claims are settled no further attempt will be made to place the new loan in England claims.

Under the Southern claims commission for which an appropriation is to be made, has been referred to third Auditor Rutherford for adjustment.

INDIANA DEMOCRACY FAVORABLE TO GREELEY—VOORHEES DEFEATED AS A DELEGATE TO BALTIMORE.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 12.—The District Delegations held caucuses to-night and elected delegates to the Baltimore Convention, all favorable to Greeley and Brown.

In the Terra Haute district caucus, a motion to substitute Voorhees in place of Dowling, the delegate from the State at Large, to the Democratic Convention.—Lost, 76 to 93.

George W. Julian said in the Liberal Republican caucus to-day that he would be glad if the Democrats would take him as one of their standard bearers.

SOUTH CAROLINA DEMOCRACY ENDORSES THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, June 12.—The Columbia State Democratic Convention re assembled this morning. The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention recognize the movement which was organized at Cincinnati in May last, as the only one in this crisis, calculated to revive individual liberty, and restore legal self-government.

Resolved, That this convention accepts the Cincinnati platform as broad, liberal and just to all portions and classes and citizens of the Republic.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention, that the interest of the whole country requires that no separate and district Democratic nomination should be made by the Baltimore convention, and the delegates appointed by this body are hereby instructed to oppose such nominations.

A minority report favoring a straight nomination was tabled, with only two dissenting votes.

A full delegation to the National Convention was then chosen to represent all sections of the State, and excludes Hon. Wm. Aiken, ex Senator Chestnut and Hon. W. D. Porter. The State Democratic Executive Committee having resigned, the chair was authorized to appoint their successors. The convention then adjourned sine die after a brief and harmonious session.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION OF INDIANA—HENDRICKS THE GUBERNATORIAL NOMINEE.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 12.—The State Democratic Convention met here this morning. Hon. John R. Coffroth was chosen permanent Chairman. After the opening address by the chairman, the committee on resolutions consisting of one delegate from each District and the committee to select delegates to the Baltimore Convention were appointed. Considerable discussion arose on the question of the appointment of the committee to select the electorate ticket. Hon. J. T. McDonald argued in favor of postponing the choice of electors till after the Baltimore convention. It was finally decided to postpone the electoral ticket.

Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks was then unanimously nominated for Governor, and Washington Dupew of Floyd, Cincinnati, for Lieut. Governor.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 12.—It is stated that a large number of Cuban sympathizers, including General Ryan, left here in two schooners which were seen off Barnaguet, transferring their cargo to a vessel supposed to be the Fannie, and it is believed their destination is Cuba, and that the Fannie will be transferred into a war vessel. It is also believed that three expeditions from this country were on their way to Cuba, one sailing from Philadelphia, one from a Southern port, and the Fannie.
