THE SENTINEL.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Dr. T. J. Applewhite, of Wilson has gone to Colorado.

A negro boy was killed near Jonesboro depot on 17th—cause whiskey.

A young man named Boyles, son of Carey Boyles in the western part of this county, was caught in some of the machinery of a threshing machine, one day last week and crushed to death.—Danbury Reporter.

APPRENTICE.—The editor secured a fine local last week, by getting thrown from a horse, the horse falling on him and badly using up his left shoulder. As he is not yet able to get on his shirt, we hope his readers will excuse him from putting on the editorial harness, and, in the above, with five cases of measles and whooping cough in his family is not simply apology for a half sheet this week, he will vote the grumblers an uncharitable set and tell them to "go there themselves."—Rutherford Vindicator.

JONES COUNTY.—Gross frauds have been detected in the county of Jones. At one precinct alone, 43 votes more than were registered were polled. This of course will necessitate a contest in all the county offices, and also the contest will probably result in Jake Scott's staying at home and Mr. H. C. Foscue, the Democratic candidate for the Commons, going to Raleigh in his stead. We hope that our Jones county friends will push this matter to the extreme limits of the law. They have been counted out of a Representative, as well as county officers, by such majorities ever since the days of Reconstruction. We believe that in a fair election Jones is Democratic to-day, by from 100 to 500 majority.—Eastern Journal of Commerce.

VIRGINIA.

FIRING—We learn from the Danville Times that the tobacco in all that section is firing badly.

ANCIENT RECORDS.—We have in our office, the Acts of the Assembly of the Colony of Virginia from 1662 to 1768. Virginia was then under the reign of George the Second, and the capital was then located at James City.—Piedmont Virginian.

STABBED.—The Danville News says that at Callands, in that county, several days ago, two men named James A. Jackson and Edward Hankins, of that vicinity, were drinking and gambling, pitching quoits. They got to fighting, and Hankins stabbed Jackson repeatedly and probably mortally.

REV. C. H. HALL.—We learn that the condition of the Rev. Chas. H. Hall remains substantially unchanged, and still very critical. While he has somewhat improved in some respects, he is yet so weak as to be unable to take any more nourishment than a glass and a half of milk per diem and no solid food whatever.—Petersburg Index.

DEATH OF MRS. WOODSON.—A telegram received here yesterday evening, from Kansas city, Mo., conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs Leila Woodson, wife of Major Blake L. Woodson, and daughter of Colonel W. E. M. Word, of Pittsylvania. Mrs. Woodson had been in delicate health several months.—Pittsylvania Herald of the 19th.

DANVILLE FRIES.—One of the federal grand jurors summoned to the United States District Court at this place on the 27th, has been put in jail in Henry County, for passing counterfeit money. He was a delegate to the convention which nominated C. Y. Thomas, Radical, for Congress.

We learn that upwards of six thousand have recently been subscribed to the completion of the Methodist church, on Main street, and that it will be finished within a very few months.

We heard an auctioneer of one of our leading warehouses say, he never saw the like of moulded tobacco as has been sold this year.—Times.

BIG LICK IN ROANOKE COUNTY.—A very large amount of trade comes to this place from Franklin county, and we were told by the railroad agent that the shipments from this depot are much larger than any on the entire road from Lynchburg to Bristol. In order to accommodate the immense amount of produce brought to this depot, Gen. Mahone has commenced the erection of a very large depot building—the largest, perhaps, on the road. A large number of hands are now working upon it, and it will be completed in a very short time.—Roanoke Times.

POLITICS IN VIRGINIA.—The Conservatives have thus far made the following nominations for Congress:—First (Fredericksburg) district, E. M. Braxton; third (Richmond city) district, George D. Wise; fifth (Danville) district, A. M. Davis; sixth (Lynchburg) district, Thomas Whitehead; eighth (Alexandria) district, General Eppa Hunton. The second (Norfolk) and fourth (Petersburg) districts having large Radical majorities, it is likely that the Conservatives will make no nominations in them. The Convention in the seventh (Staunton) district will be held on the 5th proximo, the contest being between Messrs. Duke and Harris, both of whom were in the last Congress, and both thrown into the same district by the last apportionment. The Radicals have made nominations as follows: First district, J. B. Sener; second district, James H. Platt; third district, John A. Smith; fourth district, Charles H. Porter and M. H. R. Stowell, both members of the present Congress each claiming to be the regular nominee; sixth district, R. W. Hughes. In several districts, where their party is in a hopeless minority, Radicals will support independent candidates should there be such, and make no nominations.—Alex. Gazette.

FOREIGN GOSSIP.

All establishments in Germany under the control of the Jesuits are to be broken up within six months.

It is reported in London literary circles that Dr. George Macdonald will succeed the late Dr. Norman McLeod as the editor of "Good Words."

The Spanish Colonel Hosta, Governor of Holguin, Cuba, was killed in a recent fight between the Cuban and Spanish troops near that town.

The late Marshal Forey had been completely paralyzed, and lived in total seclusion for several years before his death.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has been mulcted in some $120 damages for alleged misconduct of the Dublin police during a riot in Phœnix Park.

M. de Noailles, the present minister of France to Washington, is stated to have been formerly a page at the Tuileries during the reign of King Louis Philippe.

The Paris Figaro is reported to have been prosecuted for having published a humorous article on the death of President Thier's favorite dog, Kiki. Kiki expired in his fourteenth year.

An Indian chief, blankets, pipe, paint and all, was lately presented to the Prince of Wales at a public reception in London. Missionary enterprise paid the way.

A body of Spaniards recently attacked some French shipwrecks on the Spanish border, and two of the latter were wounded. Activity or intensity went in pursuit of the aggressors.

PERSONALS.

Badeau is engaged in writing a new and very elaborate history of his friend Grant.

A. T. Stewart is enjoying himself, as far as his limited means will permit, at Saratoga.

The Empress Eugenie, with the Prince Imperial and suite, recently visited Abbotsford and Melrose Abbey.

Richard Wagner, the composer, is said to have no less than nine libel suits pending against different German newspapers.

Joaquin Miller has presented Grace Greenwood with a pair of earrings made of a rattlesnake's rattles, mounted with gold.

The Rev. Mr. Moryson, rector of the American chapel, Junker Strasse, Berlin, is about to return home on a brief visit to his friends in Ohio.

Lord Houghton (Mr. Monckton Milnes) and his daughter recently had the honor of dining in Paris with the President of the French Republic.

Mr. Augustus Smith, proprietor of the Scilly Isles, died on the 30th ultimo at the Duke of Cornwall Hotel, Plymouth, England, after a severe illness. He was sixty eight years of age.

The Glasgow "Herald" understands that the diary of Dr Livingstone, forwarded to Miss Livingstone, now in Iceland will in no case be published unless evidence of the great explorers death reaches England.

Mr. Launt Thompson, the sculptor, is at present engaged upon a colossal figure of Gen. Winfield Scott for the Soldiers' Home in Washington. It is ten feet in height, and weighs in plaster over four thousand pounds.

It is announced that the Prince of Wales and the Duchess Clementine, of Saxe-Coburg, will stand godfather and godmother to the infant Belgian Princess, who will receive the names of Clementine Albertia Marie Leopoldine.

FRAUDS—CALDWELLS ELECTION MUST BE CONTESTED.—From every quarter of the State reports of Radical frauds practiced during the late election are pouring in. We have every reason to believe that frauds the most gigantic, frauds unparalleled open and unblushing frauds, have been resorted to in order that the election of Caldwell might be effected. We believe that many of these frauds can be established, and more than the requisite number of illegal votes proven to secure the seating of Judge Merrimon as the Governor of North Carolina.

It then clearly remains to our candidates on the State ticket to contest the election of Caldwell and those associated with him by Radical nomination. They owe it to the Conservative people of North Carolina, who feel they have been cheated out of the victory legally theirs. They owe it to the cause of justice. It is necessary for the maintenance of the purity of the ballot box. It is essential to the free privilege of elections.—Wadesboro Argus.

THRESHING MACHINES, HORSE POWERS.

We desire to call the attention of farmers to our manufacture of Separators. We have greatly improved these machines within the last two years, and they are now superior to and better adapted to the wants of the Virginia farmer than any machines brought from the North while our lower prices and the saving of freight make them cheaper. We make and send with our machines the Cary or Pitt's Horse Power, and furnish machines mounted on wheels, complete with horse power, belts, &c., for $400.

We had our wheat threshed during the past summer by a "Cardwell Thresher and Cleaner," owned by J. W. Alley. The machine did excellent work, threshing every particle of wheat from the straw, and cleaned to our entire satisfaction. We can recommend the machines to any one wishing a good Thresher and Cleaner.
