HOME AFFAIRS.

CAPT S. A. ASHE, our esteemed young townsman, is on a visit to his friends in Wilmington.

SERIOUSLY BURNT.—A colored girl, a servant of Mrs. L. O'B. Branch, of this city, was seriously burnt from her clothes catching fire as she lay asleep on the hearth. The injuries she sustained, it is feared, will prove fatal.

SPRING.—For the past three days we have been enjoying balmy spring weather. The gardens begin to blush and bloom and the shade trees on our of the streets are full of buds. A day or two more of such weather and we will have peach blossoms. All hail!

THE Wilmington Journal says:—Mr. Charles Rober, a watchman at the W. C. & A. R. R. depot, opposite the city, fell into the river at the foot of Market Dock, on Saturday night, and would have been drowned but for the prompt assistance o some of the crew of the cutter Seward, which was near that point.

CUMULATIVE SUFFRAGE FOR RALEIGH.—The bill to provide for cumulative suffrage for the city of Raleigh, the special order for last night in the Senate, was not considered in consequence of an adjournment soon after the Senate met to allow republican Senators to attend a party caucus. The bill will probably be considered to-night.

CORRECTION.—The act for the relief of certain school teachers, published by us on yesterday, and the introduction of which we, by mistake, attributed to Senator Troy, was introduced by Senator Todd, one of the most attentive, laborious and talented members of that body.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—James R. Young, engaged in running a steam saw mill near Cary, on Monday, whilst engaged in throwing a handful of rosin on a driving pulley, had his right hand and arm caught between the belt and the pulley, and the flesh badly mangled. It is hoped that no bones were seriously injured.

COMFORTABLE RESIDENCE FOR SALE.—We again remind those in want of a neat and comfortable residence, that the sale of the house and lot, formerly occupied by W. R. Pell, east side of West street, will be sold at auction on Monday next, the 24th inst., at 12 m., in front of the court house. This is a desirable place See advertisement.

HIGHLY COMPLIMENTARY.—We noticed on yesterday on the deck of our fine-looking and most excellent presiding officer of the House of Representatives, Capt. J. L. Robinson, a very handsome ebony gavel, together with a very neat pocket edition of the "Rules of Order" by Mathias. These articles were presented to Capt. Robinson by Col. Charles W. Jenks, of Philadelphia. Capt. R. merits every token of respect and esteem that can possibly be given to him.

We learn that the Pee Dee river is on a big fresh. Its banks are overflowed, in many places, and the woods are flooded, but no serious damage has yet been sustained.

Wm. T. Blackwell vs. Matilda Cummings et. al., from Lenoir. Phillips & Merriman for plaintiff, and Smith & Strong for defendants. Argued.

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning the axel of one of the cars of an empty freight train proceeding to Mr. Frank Page's saw mill for lumber, when some two miles above Apex, on the Chatham railroad, broke, throwing that car across the track, the rear cars becoming piled upon it. Some twenty persons were on the train, but the only serious injury was sustained by a negro man named Sam Hart, some sixty years old. He was standing in the door way of a box car when the crash took place and was thrown out, the wheels of a portion of the train passing over both legs below the knees, terribly mangling them. Five cars were totally wrecked and others slightly injured. The unfortunate Sam Hart was kindly taken care of and medical aid promptly furnished by Mr. Page and at his sole expense. Yesterday morning Sam was cheerful and hopeful, but it is doubtful if he can stand the amputation of both legs, thought to be necessary, on account of his advanced age. We trust he may survive. He is reported to be a most excellent old man.

DR. CHAS. PHILLIPS' Lecture, at Charlotte, on Friday evening last, attracts much of the attention of the press of that city. The subject was, "The conscious and unconscious influences which surround us in this life, and by reason of which we are where we are and what we are." The Observer says of the lecture and lecturer:

The discussion was not only a rare intellectual treat, but it was so rich in deep thought, so replete with accurate scientific knowledge, and so full of sound, practical wisdom that no one who heard it could have failed to have derived some advantage from it, and entertainment too, as it was delivered in a most cheerful, pleasant manner. The object of the lecturer, however, was not to please the fancy, nor tickle the humor, of his hearers; but, to lay before their minds a few simple truths and make them some practical suggestions for the good of themselves, their children, and the society in which they live—to tell of the progress of the age, the spirit of the times, and the advanced state of civilization which characterizes this century.

MISS FANNY FISHER.—We copy with pleasure, the following handsome and well merited compliment to our distinguished Stateswoman, "Christian Reid"—Fanny Fisher, late of Salisbury. The extract is from The True Woman, a neat little Monthly published at Baltimore, and edited by C. E. McKay, in the interest of the true women who are opposed to the Susan B. Anthony school of strong-minds. This excellent publication should be extensively circulated. Price fifty cents per year. Of Miss Fisher The True Woman says:

The publishers say that women's novels sell better than men's. This would be encouraging to all friends of true womanhood, if all our women writers were as nice in their book as it is to be hoped, they take pains to be out of them. Unfortunately the woman and the author do not always travel together; when they do the effect is charming, as, for instance, is Christian Reid's best book, "Morton House," published some time ago by Appleton.

There was a reality, a nameless grace, an exquisite unconscious womanlike about her heroine, Katharine Tresham, which only a woman could have painted, and renders her society as delightful to her lady friends as to her many admirers. All novel writers are aware that it takes infinitely more labor and talent to draw vividly and distinctly a noble, natural lovable character like Katharine or John Warwick than to sketch a dozen caricatures of disagreeable or wicked people; which perhaps, accounts in a measure for the very many scolds and intriguants whom we are obliged to meet in women's novels. The very ease with which women handle a pen is their greatest obstacle to true success; when light work is so easy, the aspirant to what the harder labor always required to accomplish anything really excellent.

DON'T LIKE MUTTON.—A good story is told of the recent excellent performance of Handel's Messiah at the Broadway Baptist Church. A farmer took his wife to hear the music, so splendidly rendered on that occasion, and after listening with apparent enjoyment, the pair became suddenly interested in one of the chorus: "We all like sheep have gone astray." First a sharp soprano voice exclaimed:

"We all, like sheep—

Then all the singers at once asserted:

We all, like sheep—

"Didn't I do?" exclaimed old rustics to his partner. "I like beef and bacon but I can't bear sheep meat!"

There was an audible titter in that immediate vicinity, but the splendid music attracted attention from the pig and they quietly slipped out.—Courier Journal.

LATEST NEWS.

Gen. Wade Hampton has accepted the invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association of Wilmington to lecture in that city shortly.

COTTON FACTORY.—We learn that Messrs. H. Schenck & Son have purchased a splendid site in Cleveland county, and will soon erect a large cotton factory on it.

Ice at one cent per pound is promised to subscribers to the stock of an ice manufacturing company they are getting up in Charlotte.

A lighter, with some 75 barrels of rosin aboard, was sunk by the steamship Regulator, at one of the Southern wharves, Wilmington, on Sunday last.

From passengers arriving at Wilmington on Sunday by the Northern train it is learned that one Sam Perry, col., shot and killed his wife at Burgaw yesterday. No further particulars could be learned, only that the murderer fled after committing the deed, and the various constables in the county have been notified to be on the lookout for him.

The Wilmington Journal denies the statement copied by us from the Fayetteville Eagle that Hon. H. G. Onderdonk has been removed as receiver of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, and that that road has passed into the hands of the original stockholders.

FATAL AFFRAY.—On Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock, says the Charlotte Observer, an affray occurred in the barroom of Henry Severs, about a mile north west of this city, in which a negro by the name of Rumple lost his life at the hands of one Jo. Baker, a white man. The negro was stabbed to the heart with a large knife, and within a very few moments after receiving the injury.

About two hours after the affray Baker was arrested at his house, two miles from the scene of the homicide, and brought to this city, where he was lodged in jail. He will have a preliminary examination to-morrow morning. We defer further remarks until then. It is due to Baker to state that he strenuously denies having perpetrated the deed.

THE FIRE LAST NIGHT.—About 11 o'clock Monday night a fire was discovered issuing from the store of Messrs. H. Stolter and N. Bremer, corner of Front and Ann streets, Wilmington. The alarm was promptly given and the members of the Fire Department, with their engines and truck, were soon on the spot. Three streams of water were brought to bear, but the building burned freely and was totally destroyed before the flames could be checked.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but there is good reason to believe that it was incendiary. Those first on the ground state that a key was found in the lock of one of the doors, with the handle twisted off. The fire burned so rapidly and so fiercely that nothing whatever was saved. The stock in the story valued at probably $2,000, was all burned; on this there was insurance for $1,500 in the Franklin, of Philadelphia, Messrs. Taylor & Giles agents.

The upper floor of the building was occupied by Mrs. Platt, a widow lady and, sad to relate, she lost everything. Her loss will probably reach $800 or $1,000, with no insurance, as far as we could ascertain.

The building, which was of wood and nearly new, was probably worth about $2,500. It belonged to Mr. F. Stolter, but we could not learn if there was any insurance on it.—Journal.

AN OLD SERVANT OF GEN. WASHINGTON'S KILLED BY A FALLING TREE.—Basil Lee, the oldest colored man in the county, being in his one hundredth year, was killed in this county while he was burning brush in a new ground near a tree some men had felled with the axe. They hallooed at him and told him to get out of the way, but being rather deaf, he did not hear them, and the tree fell on him and killed him. He was a former slave of Gen. Washington, and was twelve years old when General Washington gave him his choice to live with him at Mt. Vernon or be sold; he preferred being sold, and was sent to Richmond and put on the block, and was bought by a member of the Lee family in this county, and has remained in that family ever since.—Milton Chron.

AN EASY WAY TO HEALTH.

The appetite is generally keener in winter than in summer, but the same low temperature which begets an increased desire for food is apt to decrease the ability of the stomach to digest it. The most aggravated cases of acute dyspepsia occur at this season; and the best, in fact, the easy way, to control and cure them, is to stimulate and tone the stomach and invigorate and regulate the secretive and disclonging organs. To do this promptly, safely and thoroughly (without involving any change in the ordinary habits of the invalid,) a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will be necessary. In order to accomplish a radical cure of indigestion, it is not enough to influence the organs of digestion. The liver, the intestines, the circulation, every organ and every secretion concerned in the work of assimilating the food and in carrying off the waste matter of the system, must be brought into a natural condition. Upon all these portions of the living mech nery, the great vegetable medicine, which stands at the head of all modern restoratives, acts powerfully and beneficially. The invalid should take at least one dose daily at all seasons of the year; still it may be taken with great benefit twice a day by all who are predisposed to dispepsia, biliousness or nervous attacks. Ladies will find it a very potent help in the latter class of complaints, and indeed in all the ailments incident to the sex. [illegible]

A bill authorizing a public hospital at the public expense. Made special order for Friday next 12 m., on motion of Mr. Murphy.

PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW.

The bill—a quasi prohibition liquor law—to regulate the sale of spirituous liquors under certain circumstances was considered. The bill provides that no person shall sell any intoxicating liquors, during the term of court, within two miles of the courthouse of any county, colleges, school houses, or church; makes it indictable to sell to minors, directly or indirectly, and renders the vender liable to civil damages.

Mr. Cowles demanded the ayes and noes on the passage of the bill.

Mr. Humphrey moved to strike out the first section.

Mr. Love proposed to consider the bill by section. Adopted.

The first section prohibiting the sale of ardent spirits within two miles of any courthouse during the term of the Superior or commissioners' court was stricken out.

The second section provides that no person shall sell ardent spirits within two miles of any church or school house.

Mr. Cowles moved to strike out this section.

Mr. Love spoke in support of this section.

The section was stricken out.

Sec. 3, providing penalties for the foregoing sections stricken out, was also stricken out, on motion of Mr. Cowles.

Sec. 4, makes it unlawful to sell, directly or indirectly, to minors or persons under the age of 21.

Messrs. Norwood, Love and Harris, col., spoke in favor of this section.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, offered an amendment, that no liquor shall be given by dealers to any minor under 21 years of age. Adopted.

A number of immaterial amendments were offered.

Harris, col., offered a substitute for sec. 8, giving one half of the penalty recovered to the informer. Not adopted.

Mr. Barnhardt spoke in favor of the bill.

Mr. Todd offered an amendment prohibiting the sale of ardent spirits within one mile of any school or church, unless upon the written permission of the Board of County Commissioners in the county in which such school or church is situate. Not adopted.

Mr. Allen spoke at some length against the arbitrary features of the bill.

The bill passed its second reading—ayes 29, noes 12.

On motion of Mr. Worth the bill was read a third time and passed.

ANOTHER LIQUOR BILL.

The bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within one, two, three and four miles of some one hundred churches and fifty or more schools, situated in various parts of the state, being the special order was taken up, and passed its second reading and was made the special order for 11 a. m., to morrow.

The bill to amend the act relative to the Western turnpike road leading from Asheville to the Georgia line, passed its third reading. [It abolishes the tolls so far as citizens of Buncombe and Haywood counties are concerned.]

BATTLE'S DIGEST.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, called up the bill to provide for the printing of "Battle's Revisal and Digest of the Laws of the State." The bill provides for the distribution of the book to clerks of courts, judges, county commissioners, registers of deeds, members of the General Assembly—one copy each; 10 sets to Senate and House libraries; 10 to Congressional library; 3 each to State and territorial libraries; the remainder to be sold under the direction of the Governor. The bill passed its several readings and, on motion of Mr. Cowles, was ordered to be engrossed.

The bill to prevent the destruction of timber passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Rogers the Senate adjourned till half-past seven, p. m.

NIGHT SESSION.

The Senate again met at 7 30 o'clock, President Brogden in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Grandy, the motion to reconsider the vote by which was passed the bill to authorize a special tax in the county of Pasquotank was postponed till to-morrow evening.

Mr. Grandy moved the Senate do now adjourn. There was a caucus of the republican members of assembly at the other end of the capitol and republican Senators desired to attend it.

As a matter of courtesy, the Senate adjourned.

NOTE.—In our Senate report of yesterday, we misunderstood the amendment to the bill to charter the Carolina Central Railroad company, offered by Mr. Mills. His amendment was that the company shall be compelled to finish the road to Shelby and to keep up and operate the road to that point.

During the reading of the bill the Speaker announced the special order, it being an act to grant amnesty and pardon.

On motion of Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, the special order was postponed until Friday at half past eleven o'clock.
