LOUISIANA AFFAIRS BECOMING SERIOUS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

The Louisiana affairs are becoming serious. Upon a resolution of the fusion legislature to reinstate certain courts in the New Orleans parish government, McEnry called out the militia of the parish. No damage seems to be apprehended here or there and up to this hour no federal action has been taken. It was understood that the McEnry government should be allowed to organize so as to obtain the status before the courts and was not to be interfered with unless it attempted to seize the State government. It is thought here that the Rubicon has been crossed and startling news may be expected.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb 27.

The Senate has passed the Utah bill. It provides easy means of divorce and validates the claim of the plural wife to share the property of the polygamist, and gives the woman the custody of her minor children. The panel from which juries are selected are summoned under the auspecies of five commissioners—three to be appointed by the United States and two to be elected by the people, who probably will be Mormons.

The House will vote early to-day on the expulsion of Brooks and Ames.

Snow has again suspended travel far West.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, Feb. 27.

The Minister of Colonies has telegraphed to the authorities of Cuba and Porto Rico the formation of a new ministry, and says the republic will defend it at whatever price of integrity.

LONDON, Feb. 27.

The steamer Grecian from Liverpool for Palermo was lost with 50 lives.

The Carlist General Olds is marching on Navarri. The Carlists are threatening Pompelu in force. The government troops are entrenching.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 27.

John J. Burrell, col., was shot dead while attempting to steal chickens. There was a trap gun.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The calendar being the regular order, Mr. Carpenter moved to lay the calendar on the table for the purpose of taking up the bill reported from the Committee on Privileges and Elections providing for a new election in Louisiana. "It is absolutely necessary," he said, "that this should be acted on in order to avert the bloodshed shown by the morning papers to be imminent in Louisiana."

Sherman and Morton also urged immediate action upon the bill, and it was taken up. Mr. Hill offered a substitute embodying his views in favor of forming a Legislature out of the legally elected members of both the bodies now claiming to be the Legislature of Louisiana, and authorizing the new Legislature so formed to count the returns of the last election and declare who are the legally elected State officers.

Carpenter addressed the Senate in support of the bill reported by the majority of the committee. The views of the committee, he said, were fully set forth in the majority report, and as the bill had been submitted to persons representing all sides of the controversy. He supposed that if such were to be passed at all, this one would be satisfactory in its details. He had just been handed by Mr. McMillan, claiming to be elected from Louisiana, a telegram addressed to himself, McMillan and Gov. Warmouth, which was read at the desk as follows:

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25.—To William L. McMillan and Gov. H. Warmouth:—It is not true that the country parishes are rapidly acknowledging their allegiance to the Kellogg government. The people in the country, like the people in the city, will never yield obedience to that government. It can never collect the taxes and it can only be maintained by force and that force will have to be United States troops stationed in every parish to enforce the authority of government. This government can only be sustained by an actual conquest of the people, and not by the kind of force which the people would submit to rather than have a militia.

This dispatch was signed by a large number of citizens who, according to McMillan, are leading men in the country parishes.

Mr. Morton said, it would be a vast national misfortune, and a great misfortune to Louisiana, that this bill should pass. A small faction in that State having got up the so-called McEnry government, without a shadow of a title under the law, was now endeavoring to stir up resistance to the actual government—The Kellogg government—resistance which must lead to strife and bloodshed. McEnry, a so-called governor, without any authority whatever, was now doing all he could to destroy the efficiency of the de facto government and doing this so he, (Morton) was advised at the instigation of persons now in Washington to make good this charge. Morton read the several proclamations of McEnry, concluding with the one published this morning.—But McEnry and his friends were now getting into rather deep water. He said upon attempting to carry out this proclamation they would be mere rioters, and on refusing to disperse they would be liable to be shot. He said telegrams had been received from Gov. Kellogg, showing what McEnry was doing and under what influence he was acting. In one telegram Kellogg says: "Gov. Warmouth telegraphs urging a collision. I do not think the opposition can get strength enough, they are fast losing the confidence of the community. Their legislature yesterday had no quorum."

In another telegram, dated on the 20th, Kellogg says: "Gov. Warmouth has telegraphed McEnry as follows: If you are a government do something to show it now. Action! action! action!"

Trumbull—I am authorized by Gov. Warmouth to say that both of these dispatches, stating that such dispatches ever came from him are utterly false.

Morton—I have nothing to say upon that question. I have read the dispatches as they have been sent here.

Carpenter proceed with an elaborate speech.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

Butler says an extra session is inevitable.

Senator Rogy, from Missouri, is at Willard's Hotel.

Commodore Gillis is dead aged 70 years.

The bankrupt bill recently passed by Congress has been received in proper form by the President, and submitted by the President in accordance with the usual official routine to, the department of justice for careful examination by the Attorney General. The approval of the President to the act is requisite on or before the 4th proximo, to make the bill a law. In the meantime Judge Williams is carefully considering the entire bill and the arguments which have been presented thereon before sending to the Executive his official views of the measure. The opposition thereto comes from merchants and principal business men of the cities of Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, to which is given the most earnest attention. The opinion of those who are more deeply interested than all others is that whatever the Attorney General reports will be concurred in by the President. The entire Congressional delegation from the State of Virginia are pressing for an approval of the bill.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

SENATE—Carpenter was generally denunciatory and quite eloquent. He argued there was one of two courses to pursue, to acknowledge McMary or pass election bill.

Senator Thurman, who represented the democrats made a speech favoring the recognition of McEnry as the only solution. Speeches were made upon three points sustaining Kellogg upholding McEnery, and ordering new election indicated that in the opinion of the orators republican form of government in law for the moment had fizzled. Indications are that the vote will be very close and that the issue will be forced before the Senate adjourns.

The proceedings of the House to-day were quite sensational. The body met at 10 o'clock and discussed the expulsion resolutions till past noon. It then proceeded to vote on a substitute offered by Sargent, of California, for the resolutions and this was carried by a majority of four. Then Sargent's resolution absolutely condemning the conduct of Ames and Brooks was adopted by a vote of five to one. A third resolution of Sargent's was to discharge the committee, and thus end the whole matter; that was defeated by a majority of twenty, and thus the whole subject was again thrown open.

Speer, of Penn., offered a resolution censuring the conduct of Kelly and was discussed amid great excitement till the hour for taking a recess. If that resolution be adopted it will be followed by a similar resolution in regard to Dawes, Garfield, Bingham and Scofield.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.

Government sold one and a half million gold at fourteen fifty-three to fourteen fifty-seven hundredths. The Assembly at Albany has passed New York city charter.

FIRE IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, Feb. 27.

A fire occurred on the corner of Hanover and Black streets. One girl perished in the flames. Sixteen girls escaped to an adjoining building; one jumped from the third story and was crushed to death; another was severely injured in jumping from the burning to an adjoing roof. Several firemen were killed by falling walls.

Simon Brown, editor of the New England Farmer, is dead.

THE JUDGMENT OF THE PUBLIC.

Doctors disagree. Each school of medicine has its own theories, and as these theories differ widely, it is clear that few, if any of them can be right. But if medical men cannot agreed upon any theory or system of practice the public find no difficulty in agreeing as to notorious matter of fact. For instance they have observed for many years that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, uniformly cure dyspepsia, constipation rheumatism biliousness, nervous debility, and many other diseases which the prescriptions of the pharmacopeia do not and cannot cure; and they know therefore that there can be no mistake about it. On this point they are firm and positive. They take their stand on incontrovertible facts, and they state to one another verbally, and sometimes by letter, what they know about relieving and preventing sickness with the standard vegetable tonic and alterative of America.

Here, then, the invalid has a guarantee of value that can be relied upon, viz: the sober judgment of the public. After twenty years of observation and reflection, the American people pronounce Hostetter's Bitters the best invigorating and regulating medicine at their command, and give evidence of the faith that is in them by purchasing more of it than anyother advertised medicine manufactured on this continent. A large number of physicians too, however differ on other points in therapeutics, admit the extraordinary merits of the Bitters as a tonic and alterative, and recommend it as a preventive of malarious diseases, and as a remedy in intermittent and remittent fevers.
