Intermarriage With The Arabs

JERUSALEM — Gershom Schocken, editor of the New York Times of Israel, Ha'aretz, was quoted in an article in The Jerusalem Post by Yitzhak Korn as proposing intermarriage between Israelis and Arabs.

Korn, who has held high positions in the Labor Zionist Movement, wrote that Mr. Schocken points out that "since in the 38 years of its existence the State of Israel has not succeeded in achieving understanding with the Arabs, we Israelis should break down the barriers between our Jewish and Arab citizens and encourage intermarriage between them."

Korn quoted Schocken liberally in an article whose subject was the contention between the ultra-Orthodox and the secularists in Israel.

"The response that intermarriage will bring about the destruction of the Jewish people, both in Israel and in the diaspora, leads Schocken to argue that if we want to take our full place in Western society, and especially in the United States, we should not object to intermarriage," Korn added. "In his opinion, we would never have achieved key positions in American society were it not for marriages between Jews and Gentiles."

Korn then states that Rabbi Arthur Hertzberg disputes Schocken's views.

Korn considers Schocken's proposal "dangerous."

Schocken spent a number of years in New York over 20 years ago launching the Schocken Publishing house. He returned to Israel where he rose to major in the Israel army, before joining in the family's newspaper business, which he now heads.

Federation Gift May Be Wise Tax Move For 1986

Congress is currently considering passage of the Tax Reform Act of 1986. A major consideration is the lowering of income tax brackets in future years.

1986 provides special opportunities for you to make a gift to the Federation and obtain an outstanding income tax deduction this year.

Consider the following:

- You can prepay your annual campaign gift for one or more future years. You can deduct this prepayment at 1986 tax rates.

- You can establish a Philanthropic Fund at the Federation. This fund can be used in future years to satisfy your charitable needs and to meet your annual campaign obligations to the Federation. Your income tax deduction will be at this year's rates.

- Establish a charitable remainder trust before the end of this year. Use cash, securities or other assets to establish a trust, which will provide income to you/and your spouse for life. The income tax deduction is for part of the gift value based upon your age and the rate of trust income. If IRA or Keogh programs are restricted by the Tax Act, a charitable trust can supplement your retirement program and provide a 1986 income tax deduction.

- Establish a charitable lead trust prior to year-end which provides Federation with income for a period of years or your lifetime. At the end of the trust, the assets are returned to you or to someone you designate. An income tax deduction is available at 1986 high brackets. Even if you pay taxes on future "phantom income," those taxes paid in the future will be based on the asset value on the date the trust was established.

For details on these and other programs call Marvin Bienstock, Federation Executive Director, at 366-5007. A confidential briefing by Federation's endowment/tax counsel will be scheduled for you at no obligation.

LISTEN HARDER

Every New Year, Jews all over the world celebrate the blowing of the Shofar as a symbol of these holy days.

Every New Year, we listen.

We hear.

And sometimes we forget.

For the sound of the Shofar often goes in one ear and out of the other.

But the Shofar is a clarion call rousing all of us to action.

Because we share the responsibility for Jews everywhere.

Jews who are suffering from exile or simple poverty. Because we share a 4,000-year-old heritage.

We have a common goal, a common destiny and responsibility that requires each and every one of us to make a commitment.

This year, when the Shofar is blown, let's really hear it.
