NORTH CAROLINA.

BROKE JAIL.—We learn that five negroes broke jail at Wentworth last Thursday and they have not been heard of since.

The annual meeting of the Wilmington Mutual Life Insurance Company was held in Wilmington on Wednesday. W. A. French, Esq., was elected president and Thos. M. Gardner, secretary, for the ensuing year.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—We learn from the Intelligencer that an accident occurred at the steam saw mill of the Cape Fear Building Company, at Abbottsburg, on Monday last, by which one of the employees, a Hungarian, whose name that paper could not learn, received a very severe injury and came near suffering a terrible death. It seems that the man, by some means, came in contact with the saw while in motion. It struck his body above the sixth rib and made a frightful gash seventeen inches long, but fortunately not very deep. It is thought he will recover.

MALEVOLENT.—It is now believed by many physicians that the terrible disease, cerebro-spinal meningitis, which appears at this season in various parts of the country, and of which a few supposed cases have occurred in this city, is directly traceable to bad drainage. It so suddenly and swift in its action that the cause of it remained hidden for some time but it is asserted by those who have made a study of the disease, that it scarcely ever occurred save where bad sewerage exists. If this is a fact, it is another strong argument why our city fathers should look well to the sewers.—N. C. Journal.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Raleigh Hook & Ladder Company, No. 1.

The adjourned meeting of this company will take place on Monday evening, April 14th, to make the final arrangements for their annual celebration and excursion.

Good Friday.

There will be the usual Good Friday services in Christ's Episcopal church today, commencing at eleven a. m., when Rev. Dr. Mason will probably be assisted by Rev. Rob't C. Rogers, of New York, and deliver a sermon. There will also be services in the evening.

The Fish Market.

Trout, just in from Morehead City commands about 35c. a bunch—three to four, according to size. Herrings 20c. a bunch. Shad from 75c. to $1. The choicest of almost all kinds of fish are soon bought up by the restaurants and hotels. There is a very lively competition between these two.

Soiree Dansante.

One of these pleasing entertainments took place last night at the City Hotel, under the auspices of the regular guests. Mr. Renfrow, of the U. S. postal service was, however, the more prime mover in the affair. There was a supper, at a late hour, and all the concomitants appropriate to such an occasion.

A Long Strike.

Three minutes before twelve o'clock each occular day, when the whole line is in working order, there is but one circuit between Washington and New Orleans via Raleigh and then noon time at Washington, D. C., is struck simultaneously in different places along the line. It is used here for regulating the city clocks and for the benefit of those who resort to Mahler's, Palmer's and Fasnach's.

Superior Court.

The attention of the court was occupied the whole of yesterday with the case of the State vs. Bryant Whitley, Sol Watson, Chap Mial, Gilbert Sewell and James Terrell, charged with stealing cotton. Messrs. Fowle and Pace appeared for the defendants and Messrs. Cox, Gatling and Lewis for the State. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the court then took a recess until ten o'clock this morning.

Injunction.

The State authorities have sued out a writ of injunction against A. S. Buford, President of the Richmond & Danville Railroad (N. C. Division), and all the employees, to prevent them from changing the guage of the road from Greensboro' to Charlotte, and the injunction has been served. The change of guage, so long spoken of, is to enable the trains from the Danville road to pass through the State south, in the interest of the Pennsylvania Central. We will now see what we shall see.

"Stamp Act."

Special taxes hitherto assessed are, under the new law, to be paid by stamps. The Internal Revenue Bureau in Washington has commenced the issue of the stamps prepared for the purpose; and after the 1st of May all persons transacting business will be obliged to display the evidence that they have paid the amount due on account of special taxes in a conspicuous place. The receipts from this source last year were $6,700,000; but, under the new law, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue expects to increase the receipts fully fifty per cent, so it is said.

Alleged Murderers Arrested.

Last night Constable Rufus Nipper and Mr. Johnson Adams brought to the city, under arrest, Anthony and Amy, a negro man and woman charged with the murder each of a negro child, in Barton's Creek Township, Wake county. From what we could learn the man Anthony is charged with having beaten his victim savagely over night, so much so that the child was found dead next morning. This occurred about a month ago. The woman, it seems, was delivered of a child about a year ago, and it mysteriously disappeared, till a day or two ago the bones of the infant were discovered. The alleged murderers were lodged in the guard house till this morning.

Lightning.

When the good people of this city are in their feather beds snoring lustily the news which charms them every morning is sometimes still coming over the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company and received by Messrs. John Bragg and Johnson Barbee who manifold it for the press. The dispatches are sent from Washington by Mr. Burr, the Agent of the Associated Press. They generally commence coming at 8:30 p. m., when the line is in good working order, and are read by sound almost simultaneously in the Richmond, Petersburg, Raleigh, Columbia and Augusta offices. This is what is known as taking a "course line" report. A portion of the same report is sent as far as New Orleans. Augusta distributes to Savannah, Charleston, Macon, and other points. The line is about twelve hundred miles from Washington to Augusta the way it runs.

OUR MANUFACTURING INSTITUTIONS.

Raleigh Coach Factory—Coaches, Buggies, Phastons, Sulkies, Jagger-Wagons, Etc., in Progress.

There is a beautiful single-seat phaeton painting in the Raleigh Coach Factory (N. S. Harp's) for T. H. Briggs. Another is in process of construction, for Dr. James McKee, and a six-seat phaeton for Wynn, Young & Co., the livery stablemen.

The Raleigh Coach Factory was established in 1852. N. S. Harp worked as a journeyman at that time for W. D. Williams, went into the manufacture of shafts, spokes and rims exclusively, about four miles from the city, on the line of the North Carolina Railroad, and Mr. Harp assumed the business of the coach factory.

It was doing a flourishing business when the war broke out. During the war Mr. Harp kept only a few negroes at work and some old white men who were not liable to military duty. He turned out, however, occasionally, some fine rockaways and buggies. Just after the war the business was dull in consequence of the dearth of money in the market, and continued so until 1867, then it increased. Now it is very lively.

THE NEW BUILDING.

Mr. Harp had the old building torn down in 1870. The new one is 80x35, four stories high, of brick, with brown stone trimmings, and finished inside and out in the best possible manner and beautifully. The pine on the inside was all well seasoned before it was put in and was picked.

The rear part of the first floor is for the purpose of making bodies, wheels and carriage parts generally. The front holds the solid work and work for repairs. All the first-class vehicles of all kinds for sale are on the second floor; and here, too, is the trimming-room. The painting is done on the third floor, and on the fourth materials of all kinds are kept. The hoisting of the vehicles is done by means of hooks instead of an elevator, as the hooks are considered preferable.

All the workmanship on exhibition is very handsome. The vehicles of all kinds are evidently well made and more than compare favorably with any work which can be produced in the North for the same amount of money asked for the vehicles here. The transportation on a carriage from New York here is about $40.

The difference in the names given to carriages, it is said, is often perplexing to the public, and, in some cases, even for the manufacturer. One and the same vehicle goes frequently by different names, not only in different cities, but sometimes even in different shops in the same city.

Cal Wagner's Minstrels To-Night

The expenses of this company, who will exhibit in Tucker Hall to-night, are about three thousand dollars a week. It was organized about four years ago and consists of twenty-one performers; three from Salt Lake City, two from Kentucky, two from Maine, two from Chicago, Illinois, five New York, two Philadelphia, two New Orleans, one Missouri, and one Boston. Mr. Wagner is from Syracuse, New York, and Mr. Haverly, the business manager, is from Rochester, New York. The business agent is Mr. Harry Clapham, who was in the city yesterday. The following is what the Savannah Republican says about the company:

"Happy Cal Wagner and his eighteen merry boys arrived in town yesterday and took possession of the Theatre, where their numerous friends visited the establishment last night and gave them a hearty reception. Under the able management of Mr. J. H. Haverly, everything was ready at the call of the little bell, and the sixteen filed out before the audience to commence the entertainment with their grand vocal and instrumental concert. To those who know the merits of the troupe it would be superfluous to say that it was good, and rendered throughout with great spirit. Happy Cal on the one end, and Mr. Hall, who had just joined the Company, on the other, kept the audience in a continual titter, and their jokes, (some of them poor) most of them brought down the house. There are many features of this troupe that are worthy of mention. The solos were rendered with great taste and the chorus with nicety. Messrs. Canfield and Booker were very amusing in their songs and dances and Mr. Hall in his banjo selections was so good that he was thrice recalled. Charles Haywood, Happy Cal Wagner and the California Quartette, were the features of the evening. Mr. Ben Brown distinguished himself as Gay Augustus Morning Glory, and the whole ended with a very laughable Extravaganza entitled "The Lover's Stratagem." Cal Wagner's Troupe is really the best minstrel company that has visited this section for a long time."

THE.

Capt. White, Register of Deeds, will close the books on the 15th instant and make return to the sheriff of all entries under the following:

"Any and every person, paying a tax on their receipts and sales, as provided in the Revenue Law, ratified 24 day of March, 1873, such as merchants, auctioneers, commission merchants, &c., and every person who has fees to obtain a license before exercising any trade or calling, all of whom are compelled under schedule B, of said act, and have heretofore returned such their fees to the sheriff of the county, are now required, under sections 19 and 20 of said revenue laws, on the 1st days of January, April, July and October, to list on oath, to the Register of Deeds, the total amount of their purchases, receipts and sales as the case may be, for the preceding quarter."

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Meeting Yesterday—Taxes.

The Board met at 10 a. m., yesterday, pursuant to adjournment. R. W. Wynne, Chairman, and Samuel Rayner, H. C. Jones and M. G. Todd, present.

On the application of the Sheriff the time for the collection and settlement of the county taxes was further extended until the 1st of May next. But the Chairman, Mr. Wynne, voted "no," and entered the following protest:

"I protest against the action of the Board in extending the time of the Sheriff for his settlement of the county taxes. First, Because his time for settling has been therefore extended on two separate occasions, once by the General Assembly and once by the Board. Second, Because such an extension is an injustice to the jurors, witnesses and other persons having claims against the county."

The Board then adjourned until the 25th instant.

Alexander Creech's Emporium.

Flashing notices are not worth the paper they are written on. And hence it is not the intention of LOCAL to puff Mr. Alexander Creech's establishment when he says it is really an ornament to the city. That it is utilitarian in adding to the prosperity of Raleigh there can be no doubt. Its stock of all kinds of goods, at wholesale and retail, for ladies, misses and men's wear is immense. The wholesale department alone occupies two floors. The retail department embraces the latest novelties, including some rich, new silks of exquisite workmanship and quality. And the colors, too, are no less attractive than neat. In order to appreciate this establishment it is only necessary to go there and be shown around. Mr. Creech's business has increased at least one hundred per cent in the last two years. And within the last few days he has been doing one of the liveliest business of anybody in the city. Go.

Holy Thursday.

Divine service was held in St. John's Catholic Church yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, where a large number of the Catholic people communicated.

This festival is celebrated in commemoration of the institution of the Eucharist.

The church yesterday was despoiled of everything in the shape of ornament. Everything betokening joy was removed from the high altar and the church wore an aspect of utter desolation which will continue through these days when the body of Christ is emblematically laid in the sepulchre. The sepulchre of Christ is represented by a gorgeous repository adorned with everything precious. Here the Blessed Sacrament repose during the period when Christ remained in the tomb. The church is now open at all hours of the day and until midnight when the repository is visited by pious adorers.

The touching ceremony of "The Veneration of the Cross" will take place tonight, commencing at a quarter to eight o'clock. The history of the sufferings and death of the Redeemer will be read as selected from the Holy Scriptures by Father McNamara. At the proper moment the people approach the altar and reverently kiss the cross.

Devotions will be continued to-morrow night, commencing at the same hour.

Bankrupt Exemptions.

The act of Congress, approved March 3, 1872, entitled "An act to declare the true intent and meaning of the act, approved June 8, 1872, amendatory of the general bankrupt law," is as follows:

"Be it enacted by, &c., &c., &c., That it was the true intent and meaning of an act approved June 8, 1872, entitled an act to amend an act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, approved March 2, 1867, that the exemptions allowed the bankrupt by the said amendatory act should, and it is hereby enacted that they shall, be the amount allowed by the Constitution and laws of each State, respectively, as existing in the year 1871; and that such exemption shall be valid against debts contracted before the adoption and passage of such State Constitution and laws as well as those contracted after the same, and against liens by judgment or decree, of any State court, any decision of any such court rendered since the adoption and passage of such Constitution and laws to the contrary notwithstanding."

Look Out.

Mr. James Smith, an Australian journalist, has received a spiritual communication that the world is to be "burned as black as a forgotten toast by a wave of fire" within a year.

THE SEINE.

One of the sufferers by the fleas in the County court-room knows they are healthy.

The County Commissioners meet on the 25th inst., to canvass the returns for and against the school tax.

Mr. James M. Towles offers for sale cotton and corn planters, lime, oats, shucks and hay. See new advertisements.

"You have a w(h)istful look," a friend said to another on the street yesterday, after which they retired and conferred.

There was twenty degrees difference in the temperature of the weather yesterday and the day before. See meterological report on this page, first column.

One method of selling bottled ale, which fro'hs, is to quickly pour some portion of it into two glasses. The customer supposes he gets the entire contents of the bottle but he is ledgerdemained and don't.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column James Baron Hope, of Norfolk, Va., is advertised to lecture here. Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay will subsequently state the time when the lecture will be delivered.

JOKES.

An editor may not be religious, but he generally has an umbrella which keeps lent.

An Oregon paper tells of a boiling lake from whose bosom black smoke rises continually.

Dayton, Ohio, is to have a "cat pound." Every back yard in Raleigh has pounds of cats in it nightly.

New Jersey legislators relieve the monotony of a dull session by throwing "spitballs" at each other's heads.

"I wonder what causes the eyes of young men of the present day to be so weak?" said a young town lady to a country aunt, who was reading the "Pilgrim's Progress" in the smallest type without barnacles. "My dear," was the tart response, "the eyes of young men are, in these days, placed in the weakest part."

FOREIGN.

Within the last ten years the number of public houses in St. Petersburg has increased from 800 to more than 5,000.

The Havana correspondent of the London Times gives the price of slaves at this time at from $1,500 to $2,000 per head.

A man in England is involved in a lawsuit for refusing to pay for his coffin. The man who will die, and then meanly refuse to pay for his coffin, should have died years before he did.

The Paris Journal states that M. Thiers said a few days ago, in the course of a conversation: "I have only two successors possible—Gambetta or the Duke d'Aumale. The wiser of the two will succeed me.

The Madrid correspondent of the Independence Belge says the report published in the French and English papers of popular disturbances and military insubordination in Spain are greatly exaggerated.

PERSONAL.

Queen Victoria is mingling more with her people than heretofore, and is oftener seen in public.

Von Wrangel, the oldest of the Prussian field marshals, is very ill. He is paralyzed on the left side.

It is rumored that Dr. Lushington's secret about Lord Byron has not died with him, and that it will be made public before long.

The Pope has received one hundred French Canadians who served as Pontifical zouaves. He congratulated them upon their unshaken devotion to the Papacy.

The Italian Chamber has passed a bill restoring to the Duke of Aosta (ex-King of Spain) the allowance to which he is entitled as a member of the royal family.

Mrs. McDaniel, of Atlanta, Ga., who recently recovered $25,000 from the government on some old war claims, had been for some time employed as a sewing-machine operator in that city.

Mr. Bergh has placed in all the stables throughout New York city cards bearing the following inscription: "I promise to protect dumb animals, and may the Lord in his mercy protect me." [Bergh's theater nor G. F. T.]

A negro barber of Knoxville, named Ed. Staples, has by a systematic method, contrived to steal the snug sum of two thousand one hundred dollars, of which fifty dollars was in Bank of Tennessee bills and the remainder in Ocoee bank notes.

Mrs. Dorcas Ann Venblaricum, of Louisville, lost her husband the other day. Well, a woman ought to be expected to rebel against such a name as that occasionally.

A boy at North Adams has declaimed "On Linden when the sun was low" 340 times, and expects soon to be promoted to prose, and take "When my eyes shall be turned to behold for the last time the sun in heaven."

According to Dr. Hayes, the Satan of the Esquimaux is a woman. This accounts for their ability to live in the land of perpetual snow. She is able to make it hot enough for them at any time.

Use less of Dooley's then of other Yeast or Baking Powder, as it is much stronger. Put up full weight. Give it a fair trial.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

That pain, consumptive consumptives, who is now beyond all hope of recovery, might now be hale and hearty had he not neglected that slight cough. Be advised, if you have a cough or cold, get at once a bottle of DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT, and you will soon be free from it. Do not put it off.

MARRIED

In New York city, on Wednesday evening, April 9th, at the Church of the Strangers, by Rev Dr. Deems, Mr. John White to Miss Eva May Wilson, daughter of the late Frank J. Wilson, all formerly of Raleigh, N. C.

DIED.

In Darlington, S. C., on March 17th, of congestive chill, James Jenkins, formerly of Raleigh, N. C., and son of John and Mary Jenkins in the 40th year of his age. The deceased was loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss. J. M. T.
