Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

NIGHT SESSION.

DECEMBER, 14.

Mr. Welch moved that the private calendar be made the special order for the night, and that the rules be considered as suspended, and that all bills read the second time be read the third time, and that the ayes and nays be suspended unless demanded by some Senator.

Mr. Welch, obtained a suspension of the rules to put upon its passage a resolution in favor of Judge Henry.

Mr. King, said he had understood that Judge Henry had received the amount in full from the counties in which he held extra courts.

Mr. Gudger and Col. Welch, stated positively that he had received no compensation whatever.

An act to amend the charter of the town of Concord, in Cabarrus county, passed its several readings.

A bill for the better protection of the bridges in Granville and Pitt county.

On motion of Mr. Gudger was recommitted.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, December, 16.

The Senate was called to order at a 11 a. m.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. Cunningham, from committee on education; Mr. Murphy, from committee on Deaf and Dumb Asylums—white and colored; Mr. Seymour, from committee on judiciary; Mr. Flemming, from committee on judiciary; Mr. Morehead, from committee on internal improvements; Mr. Price, from committee on propositions and grievances.

Mr. Murphy offered an additional petition praying the establishment of the county of Jefferson; referred to committee on propositions and grievances.

Message from the House transmitting sundry bills and resolutions passed by that body. Read first time and referred.

Mr. Murphy, a bill making the annual appropriation for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylums.

Mr. Troy, a bill to change the constitution of the State. Appropriates the whole of the capitation tax to public schools.

Mr. Horton, a bill to appoint commissioners to lay off and improve the road from Wilkesboro' to Horton's store in Wilkes county.

Mr. Ellis, a bill to enlarge the Insane Asylum and for the better government of the same.

On motion of Mr. Cramer, it was made special order for Friday at 12 m.

Mr. Johnson, a bill to be entitled an act to pay jurors in certain cases.

Mr. Troy, a resolution requesting the judiciary committee to suggest to the Legislature such action as they deem appropriate in regard to the University of the State.

Mr. Troy, a bill to incorporate the Tokay Wine Company.

Mr. Troy, a bill to authorize the Mayor and Commissioners of Fayetteville, N. C., to appoint a receiver of railroad taxes.

Mr. Seymour obtained a suspension of the rules to take up and put upon its several readings, a bill to provide additional clerical services in the office of the Secretary of State.

Mr. Love presented a substitute for the original bill pending on the discussion of the chair announced the hour for the special order.

A bill entitled an act to appoint a weigher of cotton and weighers and inspectors of cotton and flour and salt fish for the city of Raleigh. The substitute of the committee was adopted and made a special order for to-morrow night.

A bill to complete the Western or Coal Fields railroad.

On motion of Col. Morehead, was placed back on the calendar.

Mr. Horton, a bill to incorporate the Wilkesboro and Yadkin River Bridge Company.

Special order (12:30 o'clock) being the bill to adjust the State debt with pending amendments. The question being upon the adoption of the amendment heretofore reported and offered by Mr. Troy, "That the public Treasurer be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to omit from his future annual reports any and all bonds or other evidences of indebtedness not here innumerated."

Mr. Norwood, at considerable length and with much force sustained his amendment declaring our inability to pay the State indebtedness.

Mr. Worth, replied to the speech of Mr. Norwood at length, urging the passage of his original bill and in opposition to all amendments, said it would be time enough to apply to Congress for relief after the advertisement and compromise of the debt.

Col. Humphrey followed Mr. Worth, in favor of the original bill and in opposition to all amendments.

Mr. Merrimon hoped the Senator from Cumberland would withdraw his amendment. Said he had offered a resolution in the early part of the session which would more fully accomplish the purpose aimed at by Mr. Troy's amendment.

Mr. Welch was opposed to the withdrawal of Mr. Troy's amendment. He said he desired to say to the world in this bill if it passed, that we did not intend to pay the special tax bonds.

Mr. Humphrey replied to the argument submitted by Mr. Welch, and Mr. Ellis in favor of the amendment, replied to Mr. Humphrey.

Mr. Murphy took the ground that the amendment was an incumbrance upon the bill; that its adoption would have no effect; it would not make the special tax bonds lessbinding and so far as he could see would only encumber the bill.

Mr. Welch again advocated the amendment.

On motion of Mr. Humphrey, the Senate adjourned.

[NOTE.—The bill introduced by Mr. Morehead on yesterday, to promote immigration and encourage the building of manufactories, provides that in assessing real estate no account shall be taken of the increased value by reason of the erecting or building of any mill, factory or other establishment wherever machinery is used, within five years after such improvement.

On motion of Mr. Gorman the resolution rescinding the resolution to adjourn on the 24th, was taken up.

Mr. Johnston moved to lay on table, carried.

Mr. Bowman moved to reconsider.

Mr. Johnston moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

The yeas and nays being called on the adoption of the resolution, and the resolution failed—yeas 20, nays 77.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

It being the motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill to give Burke county the proceeds of the vacant lands, failed to pass.

The House refused to reconsider.

Leave of absence granted Mr. Carson on account of sickness in his family.

Special order being the bill to amend an act entitled amnesty and pardon, was announced.

Mr. McGehee offered the amendment: That section 1, chapter 181 public laws of 1872-'73, be amended so as to extend free and ample amnesty and pardon to all persons referred to and described in such section who may have committed any crime against or violation of the laws of North Carolina, as described in said first section of said act except such persons as may have committed arson, rape and burglary, and free and complete amnesty and pardon, therefore it is hereby granted with the exceptions herein recited. The amendment was adopted and the bill failed to pass its second reading. Yeas 31; nays 56.

Mr. Houston moved to reconsider.

Mr. Brown, of Davidson, moved to indefinitely postpone.

Mr. McGehee argued against postponement and advocated the passage of the bill.

The motion to indefinitely postpone failed.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill failed to pass its second reading prevailed.

Mr. Bennett moved to reconsider the vote by which Mr. McGehee's amendment passed. Carried. The amendment was then rejected. Yeas 16; nays 81.

Mr. Trivett advocated the passage of the bill.

Mr. Jordan opposed it. The bill failed to pass. Yeas 18; nays 79.

By consent, Mr. Bennett introduced a bill to incorporate Lakeville in Anson county.

By the same, a bill in relation to the payment of costs by the State.

A message was received from the Senate with engrossed bill from the Senate to incorporate the People's Bank of Monroe; referred.

The Senate amendments to House bill 17 and Senate bill 70, empowering the commissioners of the city of Raleigh to appoint an inspector of wood and coal, were concurred in.

The House next considered the consolidation railroad bill.

Mr. Lutterloh offered an amendment to section 10, that the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad shall not constitute assets for the payment of the bonds heretofore issued by the State to build the N C R R; adopted.

Mr. Rhodes moved to strike out in line 26, section 10, all after the word stock, and insert "at the time upon which the purchase shall be made;" adopted.

Mr. McNeill, to insert in section 12—"and before purchasing any road or branch road not mentioned in this act, the directors shall apply to the General Assembly for license so to do;" rejected.

On motion of Mr. Jones of Caldwell, the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow.

Mr. Jones of Caldwell, introduced a resolution to reconsider the resolution to adjourn the 24th, sine die, and to adjourn on Monday the 22d and meet on Monday the 12th prox.

Mr. Brown of Mecklenburg, moved to strike out 12th and insert the 19th. The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Jones' resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Joyner the House adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

Statesville has a Terpsichorean Club. The first hop of the season under the management of the club will take place next Friday night.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Cotton.

This important staple brought 14 3-4 cents yesterday.

Wrong.

The Petersburg Appeal says that North Carolina has a "Democratic" Governor. Mistaken. We wish we had. Our boss is a wool-dyed, indigo-blue, warp and woof, rampant Radical. So he is.

Duprez and Benedict's Minstrels.

This troupe comes highly indorsed by the Southern press. They are said to be excellent, and nothing is said or done to offend the modesty of ladies. They give their first entertainment to-night at Tucker Hall.

Lecture To-Night.

Rev. Jno. E. Edwards, D. D. of Virginia, will lecture in Commons Hall to night on "The Choice of a Wife." He is an eloquent and entertaining speaker and is a native North Carolinian. The feast to which he invites you will doubtless be rich and savoury. Admission 50 cents.

Personal.

We are pleased to see among the arrivals in our city the name of Mr. J. H. Currie, from Cumberland county. Mr. Currie was one of the able, earnest, working members of the session of 1870-'71.

We had the pleasure of seeing yesterday in our office M. J. McSween, Esq., editor of that sterling, honest paper, the Fayetteville Eagle. We were pleased to see him hearty in health and that he was able to report well of the prosperity of his paper.

Petty & Jones

We direct the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of this firm Maj. Petty is now in New York availing himself of the great fall in prices. He is deservedly held in high esteem. His partner, Mr. Jones, is a Granville man, and is personally clever and meritorious. Since they opened, an excellent patronage has been awarded them, and keeping goods of superior quality which they offer at a low figure, they will no doubt continue to extend their trade.

Tucker Hall.

The Berger Family gave their farewell entertainment last night to a large audience. Like those that had preceded it, it was very pleasing and enjoyable. The whole troupe are superior artists in their line, and Sol Smith Russell was as fresh, sparkling, versatile and funny as usual—possibly "a little more so." They have met with a large success in Raleigh and have richly deserved it. If they should visit the embargo city again, they may well anticipate a hearty and wide-extended greeting.

Greensboro' Female College.

Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of this excellent Institution. We say excellent advisedly. That it is the best Methodist Female College in the United States, we have not the slightest doubt. Its president, Rev. Dr. T. M. Jones, stands in the front rank of college officers, and he is assisted by a thoroughly competent faculty consisting of eight persons. The location is unsurpassed, the building is new, costing $60,000, and is well supplied with every desirable convenience, the charges are reasonable and the course of instruction thorough. Its first session has been a very great success, some hundred and fifty girls having been in attendance.

Book Notice.

NANCY: A Novel. By Rhoda Broughton, author of "Good-Bye Sweetheart," Red as a Rose is She" etc. New York, D. Appleton & Co.

This is the last production of a lady who has gained a fine reputation among Northern writers by her two last stories. Her "Good-Bye Sweetheart" appeared in Appleton's Journal, and was regarded as decidedly clever. Miss Broughton writes with much spirit and sprightliness and possesses considerable power in describing incidents and portraying character. "Nancy," a not very musical name, will be read with pleasure by all who relished her later stories.

Important to Tax Payers.

A legal friend has kindly furnished us with the following:

EDITOR OF SENTINEL:—As the first Monday in January is approaching the publication of the following law will be of interest to our Justices of the Peace and to tax payers. Chapter 71 of the laws of 1-71-'72 provide that "The Justices of the Peace in the several counties of the State may assemble at the court house in their respective counties on the first Monday in each and every year, and a majority of them being present, they may elect by ballot, three discreet, intelligent tax paying citizens to be known as the "Finance Committee," whose duty it shall be to inquire into and investigate and report by public advertisement, at the court house, and public place in each township of the county, or in a newspaper at their option, if one is published in the county, a detailed and itemized account of the condition of the county finance, together with any other information appertaining to any funds, misappropriation of county funds or any malfeasance in office by any court officers."

The law further provides that the committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, and makes it a misdemeanor for any one to refuse to obey their summons.

Consolidation

The Senator from Guilford called our attention to the fact that the consolidation bill did not provide for purchasing the stock of the Western North Carolina Railroad. This will not alter our figures, for the bill proposes to buy out the individual stock of the North Carolina road, at fifty cents in the dollar. And the individual stock in each is the same, to-wit, one million. We must correct our figures with regard to the purchase of the stock of the "Mullet" road. The bill provides that the price for that stock shall be the market value on the 1st day of December last. The principal and interest of said bonds are to be made due and payable at such times and places and such manner as the Directors may select, and the said company are hereby prohibited from ever resisting the payment thereof on the plea of usury.

The last clause is unnecessary, unless they expect to be guilty of usury. If the bill is not well guarded it will not be because the Senator from Cumberland did not seek to have it done. Mr. Troy offered the following resolution:

The bonds should be deposited with the Public Treasurer, and he should issue not more than $700,000 at any one time, and payments were not to be made until the President and Secretary of the company certified to the Treasurer that the former payments have been properly expended.

This provision failed, and it will astonish the natives. What can Billy or Buford or the President, who ever he may be, want with more than $700,000 unless it is to speculate on. This was a salutary provision and in these thieving times should have been adopted. An honest President of the corporation would not object to it, and we hope it will yet be adopted. Governor Morehead did not object to such restrictions on him, when he was President of the North Carolina Railroad. What a wholesome check this would have been upon Littlefield, Swepson, Andrew Jones and Dr. Sloan, when special Josie's ran so high. Another amendment Mr. Troy offered, which was voted down, that the bonds should run ten years. The bonds should be thirty year bonds, and this time should be named in the bill. No bill omitting the time or term of its bonds was ever passed except by a Radical Legislature. Andrew Jones in his mortgage made thirty year bonds, and inserted a clause that if the interest was not paid by a specified time the principal should be due with the unpaid interest. A suit is now going on in the Federal Court to appoint a receiver for the road. The Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford road was sold out under a similar clause contained in the mortgage. Leave such gaps down and Stock Watering Buford and bribe offering, bribe taking, woman voting Billy, will have the road sold out long before Gov. Caldwell can catch Littlefield. After Treasurer Dave's sale of the mortgage bonds of the North Carolina Road at 65 cents to Swepson when they were worth par, we doubt if he should be allowed to sell them.

Sharp on the Legislature.

L. Q. Washington, Esq., Washington, Correspondent of the Petersburg News telegraphs to that paper:

Col. Waddell, of North Carolina, has written a letter in which he severely ridicules the Legislature of that State for their resolutions on the subjects of back pay.

TO OUR FRIENDS, CUSTOMERS AND THE PUBLIC.

Owing to our increased trade and anticipating that our stock will soon be broken, our senior partner started yesterday morning to New York to make additional purchases, as we intend to keep our stock as nearly complete as possible; and at the sametime, as we will be enabled to buy as we did during the Panic in New York in September, at very greatly reduced prices, those who purchase of us will be convinced that we give them the benefit of the advantage we get in buying.

We will continue to sell our large and well selected stock at very low prices, and all wishing any articles in our line will find it to their advantage to examine our goods and prices before buying elsewhere.
