Local Affairs.

The Raleigh market to-day, Cotton was dull at 14 1-4 for low middlings, 6 12 to 12 for stained grades. Receipts light.

CITY REGISTRATION.—As the close of registration to-day at 12 P. M. the following is the report of the registrars:

	White	Colored.
Middle Ward,	7	7.
Eastern Ward,	30	37.
Western Ward,	19	40.
Total, 140,	56	84.

THE CLERKSHIP.—Apropos of children of which our Chief spoke on yesterday in his Editorial, Magnin the deputy says to the Devil:

If you'll go to my house, not too late you'll find five little Maguins swinging on the gate. Your turn next Judge!

JOHN MORRIS, one of our furniture dealers, is we are glad to see, out again.

THE SICK.—Capt. Lamson was able to sit up yesterday, and but for the inclemency of the weather, could be out to-day.

PERSONAL.—Col. Wm. L. DeRosset, of Wilmington, is in the city, and is registered at the Yarborough.

The County Commissioners of Wake will be in regular session to-morrow, Friday, at the Court House.

JOHN G. SAXE'S LECTURE.—As will be seen by announcement in our advertising columns, John G. Saxe will deliver his instructive and amusing lecture on "French Folks at Home" in Tucker Hall Friday, March 27th. All who wish to spend an agreeable and pleasant evening, should have no hesitation in going. Mr. Saxe is no stranger to our city, and his lectures and poems are famous throughout our whole country. Reserved seats can be obtained at Branson's Book Store.

MAYORS COURT.—There was only one case up before His Honor, Mayor Whitaker to-day. Mahala Jones swore out a warrant against Levi Jones, (both black and a married couple for 25 years,) had a big falling out and Mahala alleged that Levi had shot at her in his house with a gun ten feet distant, but did not strike her. Further the whole matter seemed to be a regular old time family jar. His Honor required Levi to give a bond of $100 to keep the peace and both were commanded to live peacably and have no further strife. Levi complied with the bond and the old couple departed from the majesty of the law.

A NEGRO NOMINATES.—An old negro a regular "old coon" from an adjoining township, was nosting slightly to a crowd of his color with a few Republican lookers on this morning, in front of the Market House. He was strongly denouncing the packing of all township meetings by embassies sent out from the city, and thereby in a great manner controlling all county elections. He said there was no use in educating the colored youth at our colored city colleges for when they become competent, they were "overslaughed" by the white radicals in their packed conventions, and would find out that they would have to walk the Streets in idleness. He denounced the means used in all hitherto conventions of his party; the nigger did the voting and the white men competent or incompetent held the offices, and he wanted a fair show. He was assured by the white radicals present, Gen'l German and others, that Justice was going to be done at the coming Convention and the "old coon" departed with one eye shut.

FAMILY IN THE SENTINEL OFFICE.—A man about one shade lighter than Gen. German, entered the office in the late absence of the Editor, and said he belonged to Holden's Militia, Kirk's brigade, and had come to arrest the Editor. Tom and King, the young men in the office stepped in the composing room. The man left. To-day, he called again, and it proved to be Phill Southerland, of Flat River, Orange county.

Phill put his cotton on the cars at Durham, and left on the Mail for this city. He has been here for two days, and with all his tensile, and use of lightning and weirs, he has not been able to move his cotton from Durham. He says one hand and one mule on his plantation, made 93 barrels of corn, and 3,000 pounds of cotton. He works a negro lawyer, who is a good hand, but stops too long to talk. He quit making tobacco, because the negroes would slip in July and August to fish, and the worms would eat up the tobacco. When the negroes laid by the cotton, they could fish and hunt until the cotton opened out so with tobacco. He seems to be a talking as well as a working man and calls the Editor, "Ja."

VINDICATING HONOR.—We were attracted to Martin Street, near the Cotton Factory, on Monday afternoon, by a crowd of men and women. We saw a white barber had just been caning Charles Bryan, a colored parson, (on his own hook) for being the bearer of an insulting message to his wife on the street. They told us he laid it on well and it was the unanimous verdict of the large gathering that the caning was well done and justly deserved. Bully for "Will."

THE SUPPOSED SMALL POX CASE.—The Small pox case of which we made mention yesterday was brought to the attention of the Board of City Commissioners last night in their meeting. The Mayor stated that he had an interview with the attenending physicians upon the case and reported that they were not entirely satisfied that it was a genuine case of small pox. The Board authorized the Mayor to have the house, which is in the Eastern Ward near the residence of Mr. Josiah King, guarded and all ingress and egress to it prevented, and if the physicians determine that it is a real case of small pox the Mayor was authorized to isolate it by removal to some point not contiguous and have the officers to see that the patient was properly provided for and well attended to. The patient is a female (colored) named Williams, who has not been out of the city limits for a period of five years, and if it is a case of small pox she must have contracted it from her son who was recently on a visit to her, and who came out of an infected district in Orange county, and while here 'tis said slept in the same room with his mother. If it is a genuine case all precautions are being exercised by our city authorities to prevent contagion. Mayor Whitaker upon first hearing of the case, it is proper to say, while in bed at a late hour of the night arose and gave such instructions that in a few hours a guard was properly in attendance at the infected house, and is to be commended for his diligence.

LANNIER'S DRAMATIC COMPANY.—This company appears on Monday evening next at Tucker Hall—producing the great Border story, Buffalo Bill, and introducing a troupe of genuine Comanche Indians, which will be a great novelty. We copy the following joke from the Norfolk Landmark regarding these Indians:

The Baltimore boat was coming down the bay last Thursday evening with some of the "Big Injuns" aboard. One of these sons of the prairie thought he would have a little fun with the darkey who attended the bar on the steamer. So he went into the "place of smile" clothed in a blanket, and filling with amazement the son of Africa, who stood behind the counter with his eyes rivetted upon his copper-colored visitor. The latter glared at the sable bar keeper with furious eyeballs staring from their sockets, at the same time grunting out Ugh! Ugh!! Ugh!!! Mr. Sambo here looked round for a place to escape, but Mr. Injun drew his long knife and ugh'd at him more fiercely than before, and when the negro made a rush to get out, he twisted his left hand in his wool and brandished the shining blade aloft, making motion as if he was determined to have his "skelp" anyhow. The Ethiopian now felt that all was over with him, and down he fell on his knees, begging the Indian not to scalp him; but the noble red man ugh'd louder than ever. The poor darkey now prayed, now yelled, now squealed, until Mr. Lo had had fun enough, when he let him go. The negro felt his pate and exclaimed, "Well, bless der Lor, dat Injun aint got dis nigger's skelp arter all, but if I ever gits into his clutches agin, he may have it—dat's all." He couldn't be got back into the barbill Lo was out, and whenever on the trip he caught a glimpse of one of the red men he was seen to clap his hand on the top of his head to see if his "skelp" was safe.

NEWS ITEMS.

THE MASSACHUSETTS SENATORSHIP.—The result of three ballots by the Senate and one by the House to-day does not indicate a speedy election of United States Senator. The total vote in the Senate was 37 and in the House 235. Dawes was ahead in the Senate and Hoar in the House, but neither approached anywhere near a majority.

A ballot will be taken at noon daily until a choice is made. Probably no election of the kind in Massachusetts was ever watched with greater interest by the people than the one now pending.

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED THIEF.—NEW YORK.—Gus Mayer was arrested to-day, on a dispatch from the mayor of Charlotte, N. C., accusing him of stealing $300 and a horse from his employer in that city. Accused was on the eve of starting for Brazil.

JOHN DENT'S FUNERAL.—WASHINGTON.—The funeral of the late Judge Dent took place this afternoon and was largely attended, the President and family being among the mourners. The remains were taken to the Baltimore and Potomac railroad to be transferred to St. Louis for final interment.

Deafness caused by Catarrh.

Catarrh not infrequently produces deafness.

Mr. Levi Springer, of Nettle Lake, (P. O.) Williams Co., O., formerly of Brown's Corners, O., had been cured of deafness of fourteen years' standing, by using Dr. Sagi's Catarrh Remedy. He was so deaf he could not hear a person talk when seated by his side, and can now hear the church bell ring two miles distant—so he writes.

A MARKED CASE OF DEAFNESS CURED.

DICKERSONVILLE, Hart Co., N. C., Feb. 22, 871.

About one year ago I caught a severe cold in the head, which terminated in a severe form of Catarrh. During the time alterations occured in the nasal passages, and I became wholly deaf in one ear, with partial deafness in the other. The inflammation has involved all the delicate structures of the ear, and was in immediate danger of permanent deafness. The discharge became profuse and fetid, both into my throat and from my ears. In this condition I called on Dr. Pierce for aid, who prescribed his Golden Medical Discovery and Catarrh Remedy, and under their use have rapidly recovered. My hearing is restored, and my Catarrh is entirely well.
