GOV. VANCE SPEAKS AS GOLDSBORO.—Gov. Zeb. B. Vance left this city yesterday, and arrived in Goldsboro at half past six. A large audience was soon collected, the largest for so short a notice, since the war, and the Gov. give them one of the "best he had in the shop," amidst the greatest enthusiasm. The democracy of Wayne is aroused, and there is good ground for believing their entire ticket will be elected.

POLL HOLDERS ATTENTION.—Poll holders will take notice that five separate boxes are required at the election on the 6th of August, viz:

1. Superintendent of Public Instruction.
2. Congress.
3. Judge and Solicitor.
4. Senators and Members of the House.
5. County officers.

LOGAN SPEAKS.—While our candidate, D. Schenck was addressing a large crowd at Pleasant Grove a few days ago an Irishman's mocking-bird, (commonly called a Jackass,) that was in a neighboring field opened with a loud bray, Schenck stopped speaking for a moment, and requested the audience to maintain perfect silence, as this was the first time during the campaign, that Logan had ever replied to him.—Concord Sun.

STEALING COWS.—Jim Parton (col.) was arraigned to-day before the Mayor, for stealing two cows from Wm. Smith, (col.) resident five miles from the city on the glorious fourth of July. Jim drove them into the city, and sold them to Spencer Hackney, a colored butcher, and they were shortly sold by him for beef. Probable cause was shown, and Jim was bound over to the Superior court in a bond of two hundred dollars. W. H. Pace appeared for the State and R. T. Gray for the defendant. Jim enjoyed his fourth but will settle for his beef yet.

APPOINTMENTS.—Judge Pearson will speak at Brassfield, Granville county, on Friday, the 31st inst, and will speak at Henderson and Durham before the campaign closes.

Gen. Wm. R. Cox will speak in Nash county on Friday and Saturday, and will next week speak in Chatham county.

Col. Thos. C. Fuller will meet Col. Ike Young at Egypt, Chatham county, Monday next.

There will be a large Mass Meeting of the Democratic party at Spring Hope, Nash county, on August the 4th, 1874. Several of the most eloquent speakers in North Carolina have promised to be present.

Roll on the ball gallant Democrats—Conservatives, and the day will be ours, when the sun goes down on Thursday August sixth.

THOSE LITTLE TASSEL BOOTS.—On the Rounds yesterday morning we dropped in the Executive office to see if we could worm anything out of our new Governor, he that in the good old days was such a steadfast Democrat, and who is equally as zealous a Radical now. In answer to our question for news, with all his heart, he says, John, I wish I could tell you something for out of the political line, you locals seem to have a rough time—"there's nothing this morning." Presently a Chatham man came in, and, after a moment, the conversation ensued concerning the political situation, when Chatham told the Governor the Reds were hopeful. We laughed. Says he, the Democrats have dropped their late Senator Powell this time, and its going to damage them. The Governor thrown himself back and smiled like a large horse, (he is a large man you know in frame.) Well he says Powell, "I do declare he is the same man that played the trick on us in the Senate Chamber—tied up so sweetly the nicest tiniest little tassel boots you ever saw and upon my opening them before calling the Senate to order (the grave Senators commenced to laugh) I could almost wish I was married, and had some little darling to wear them." The Governor is sprucing up, and though he did'nt say, we think he has an inkling still to have, before his term is out, some little darling to wear those little tassel boots that Senator Powell dropped on his desk.

Local Dots.

The Supreme Court expects to adjourn this week.

Mr. R. P. Williamson is quite ill at Kittrell Springs.

Read the school notice of Miss Frances A. Haywood's excellent school in to-day's issue.

The county candidates spoke at Pantego, Lenoxville, Scuffalo, etc., yesterday.

The Charlotte Observer says: "Mr. Carson, Independent candidate for Solicitor, has addressed a letter to the proprietors of the Observer, denying the statement made some days ago, that he was acting in combination with Logan."

Miss Murdock, colored, purchased a pistol from the store of R. B. Hunter, at Huntersville. He was showing his purchase to Laura Barringer, colored, when the bullet jumped out of the pistol, and skirmished around Laura's forehead, lodging above the left eye. Dr. B. J. Walker was called, and extracted the ball, and the girl is now doing well.

Robeson: Colonel French is rapidly gaining ground, and is making splendid impressions. Columbus is going for him with a vim. One correspondent says at Cerro Gordo last Friday, "Colonel French literally wore out his independent Locked door Radical opponent, Capt. Stanly."

Northampton: By a letter received last evening from a leading citizen of Goldsboro, we learn that Mr. Frank Granger, spoken of in the Newbern Times as a candidate for the Judgeship, positively denies that he is such, and declares that he will not run for the office, but will cast his vote for Judge Clarke.

The Pee Dee Courier says that LeGrand is wearing Radical Allen Jordan out in Richmond and Montgomery. The Courier says there are stray hopes of carrying the county Commissioners' ticket in Richmond, which would be a heavy Democratic-Conservative gain. Walker is worrying Fletcher, colored, badly in the Legislative contest.

We learn that there were over one hundred visitors at the Catawba White Sulphur Springs last week, and also a considerable number at the Cleveland Springs kept by Judge Brevard. We are pleased to see an increased disposition to patronize home places of resort for recreation.—Democrat.

Col. D. C. Saulsbury has resigned the position of Superintendent of the Western N. C. Railroad, and John W. Tate, of Burke county, has been appointed to fill the place. Tate is said to have been the best section master on the road and will doubtless make a good Superintendent.—Hickory Press.

GEN. ROBERT RANSOM.—This gentleman, who acted with conspicuous gallantry as a division commander in the Confederate States army, and on many a hard fought field displayed the talent of the skilled warrior and leader of men, has removed his residence from Northampton, N. C., and became a citizen of Chesterfield county, Va., having purchased the celebrated Drewry farm for $25,000, intending hereafter to pursue the quiet life of a Virginia farmer. We regard Gen. Ransom as a valuable acquisition to any community, and congratulate our Chesterfield friends on having him as a fellow citizen. The General is most favorably remembered by many a Virginia soldier.—Richmond Enquirer.

The Asheville Pioneer says: We learn from a private letter received on the 15th inst., that Deputy Marshal, W. A. Allman shot and killed Williamson Gunter, who resides on Scott Creek in Jackson county, on last Monday the 13th inst. It appears that Allman had capiases for the arrest of Williamson Gunter and his son, Andrew Gunter. That he went to Gunter's house to arrest them when they both attacked him, the old man with a rifle gun. A fight ensued in which Allman knocked down and Gunter mounted him. Allman drew his pistol and shot him three times while lying on the ground held by Gunter. Two of the shots took effect in the back and one in the head. Allman succeeded in getting loose and retreated back to Webster, from which place our informant writes.

We copy the following from the Greenville Register: Signor Silvano concluded his wonderful entertainment for three nights only, in James' Hall of our town on Wednesday. The Signor's gift as a magician, is certainly rare, and we do not hesitate to say that some of his feats are far superior to any we have ever witnessed and justly deserves to be remembered among the first performers of the world as a ventriloquist and magician. The distribution of gifts was upon the most fair and impartial conditions we have ever seen, and many of our citizens will long remember Signor Silvano's wonderful entertainment, and if he should return, as he speaks of doing, we are confident that our citizens will give him their most liberal patronage.

TOPICS OF TO-DAY.

Panting for fame—Dr. Mary Walker.

About this time look out for coal miners' strikes.

There are 127,500 names in the Boston Directory.

Just one Drink—Often the herald of sorrow, disgrace, and death.

A man died of hydrophobia, pure and simple, in New Orleans last week.

A Shining Mark—A bald-headed man when the putty-blowing boys are about.

Buffet has been slandered, which is something no man believed could be done.

This is said to be ministers' leap year. August their vacation month has five Sundays.

One hundred rifles per day is about the present working capacity of the Springfield Armory.

There has been a rush of mechanics to Chicago recently, and now there is an army of idlers there.

A Minnesota man set fire to his barn to drive out the musquitoes, but he hadn't time to get out his three horses.

Chicago has gone brick crazy now. A man was mobbed there recently for building a wooden dog-house in his back yard.

A general convention of life insurance agents is to be held in Virginia next month, and now if a tribe of Indians could only be induced to attend and scalp every one of them what a happy country this would be to live in!

Says the Denver (col.) News, of July 3 "A man who had been missed from his home, about sixty miles east of Cheyenne, was found on Saturday perfectly naked and nipping grass like Nabuchadnezzar. He is wholly insane."

Oxford linen dresses of all colors, ornamented with white laces or with laces to match, are pretty. I have seen one of this kind stripped white and blue, and covered with a profusion of cherry-colored bows, which was really charming.—Paris Letter.

A hard-working Nevada editor had this in his paper the other day: "For forty hours we have not slept, and it has just occurred to us that it is bedtime. Errors and omissions will be excused on this plea or charged up against us, just as our readers choose; we are going to take a nap."

The old Trent Base Ball Club, one of the finest amateur organizations in the country, is being reorganized under the name of the True Blues. Dr. Laler is President, and Lovett, the well-known pitcher of the old Olympics, of Philadelphia, has been engaged. Kulp and Puckler formerly members of the Baltimore Club, are also members.

A COTEMPORARY OF BLIND JIM.—Every one in the city recollects Blind Jim, the beggar, with his little stick. He was here with the colored troops the other day from Wilmington. He returned with them. His troubles have been great he told us since he has been in that city—for most of the time he had been anything but a Good Templar, though he was doing better now, acting upon the good advice of the "Mare" (Mayor) for he had 'lowanced himself to only two "shorts" per day.

If he was here, we would send him to Wilson, to join a cotempory, for

The Wilson Advance says: "A blind negro, hailing from Alabama, has been playing the fiddle and singing on the streets and begging alms. He met with some success while here and attracted a crowd as he went along. While singing in front of our office we were struck with the following words in one of his songs:

"'Beef stakes when I'm hungry,
Whiskey when I'm dry,
Greenbacks when I'm hard up,
And heaven when I die.'"

Chief of Police Rice, of Paterson, yesterday arrested John G. Gassedy for stealing a horse and wagon valued at $300 from John K. Halliday, of Jersey City. Gassedy had sold the horse to William H. Daniels, of Rutherford Park, for $100, and he also has been arrested. Both of the men were turned over to Inspector Murphy, of the Jersey City Police last night.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?
The best is the Averill Chemical Paint. Because
1st. It has been thoroughly tested by chemists, and over 200,000 owners of residences throughout the United States for the last seven years, and pronounced by them to be the most durable paint known.
2nd. For beauty and retention of color it stands far ahead of any other. Buildings have been painted with it in part, and partly with the best of other paints, both in the interior and on the sea coast, and in no case has it been excelled for beauty or permanency of color.
3rd. It is economical, and its cost is no more than the best lead and oil, and being far more durable (it wearing about twice as long as the best of our other,) and beautiful, warrants the assertion that for a period of twenty years it will save the consumer fully 40 per cent.
4th. It is in liquid form and all ready for use. Forest White, or any desired shade, can be obtained without mixing, the buyer to the annoyance of purchasing oil, pigments, coloring matter, dryer, etc. It is easily spread, flows freely from the brush, clings firmly to every substance it may be applied upon. For wood, brick, iron, or for any painting purpose where durability, beauty and preservative properties are requisite, it stands unrivalled. Though composed of the most indestructible materials known to science, an analysis of the Averill Chemical Paint shows it to be (unlike lead and most of the other paints) free from poison. It will not blacken or discolor by the action of the sulphurous gases so prevalent on our marshy rivers and coasts.
5th. Requires no skilled painter. Any one can apply it.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.
Having more real estate than I can, or desire to cultivate with such labor as I am able to procure, I offer for sale one of the most desirable farms in Johnston county. It is situated on the South side of Neuse River, in Ingram's Township, adjoining the lands of the late Maj. Williams and Col. John F. Sanders (dec'd). It is well adapted to the growth of both corn and cotton. Superadded to its present productiveness, the facilities for manuring are unsurpassed, there being an inexhaustible supply of rich decomposed vegetable mould convenient to every portion of the cleared lands. Open land enough for 6 or 7 horses. Upon it there is a fine orchard now heavily laden with the choicest varieties of both the peach and the apple.
As a stock farm the uncleared lands cannot be surpassed for either hogs or cattle. Hogs do well the entire year with only such attention as is necessary to keep them gentle. The most of the forest trees frequently make them sufficiently fat to be transferred to the smoke house. Cattle permitted to range the entire winter, keep in good plight; in fact thrive better than when confined, sheltered and fed on dry forage.
Notwithstanding its proximity to the flats of the Neuse, the cultivated portion of this farm is not subject to inundation. The tract contains about 500 acres.
If a sale is not effected, it can be rented or leased for a term of years.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MANUAL.
Published by authority and under the auspices of the General Assembly, will soon be issued under direction of the Secretary State.
The material for this work has been collected and prepared by John H. Wheeler, Esq., who has spent a great deal of time and labor in compiling it. As a hand book of reference, it will be the most complete and valuable work of the kind ever published in the State. No public man, or man of business, should be without a copy. It will be a book of about 300 pages.
Comprising a Map of the State; the counties and population of each, showing the Congressional and Senatorial districts; the Constitution of the United states, with late amendments; the Executive officers of the United States from the Revolution to 1874. An engraved diagram, showing the movement of population from 1789 to 1870; the area of each State in square miles and the population of each and of every square mile; the ratio of representation in Congress at each Decade. The Constitution of North Carolina with recent amendments; the population of each county from its organization to 1870. Executive, Judicial and Legislative Departments of North Carolina; Statistical tables of the popular vote in each county, for President, Governor, Congress; a special statement of the qualified voters from records of census, distinguishing white from colored; the counties of the State, origin of name, with a list of Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly from date of formation to present session; and much other statistical and interesting matter, with full Index to the same.
The price of the book is $3.00 in fine cloth binding. Postage to be added when sent by mail.
