City Intelligence.

THE CITY.

Cotton was sold yesterday at 14 1-2 cents.

Mrs. Blake of this city embalms flowers to keep as fresh as when they bloom in summer.

A countryman brought in three wild turkeys to-day and sold them to Parham of the Yarborough House for $4.25.

The merchants of the city are requested to close their stores at the funeral of the late Mayor to-morrow p. m. between 3 and 5 o'clock.

The two houses have appointed a committee to devise some other plan for heating the capitol than the old fire place system.

The members of Raleigh Hook and Ladder Company are by order of their Foreman, T. L. Love, requested to attend a special meeting this evening at 7 1-2 o'clock, at Firemen's Hall.

DEATH OF THE MAYOR.—Joseph W. Holden the Mayor of this city died this morning at the residence of his father, W. W. Holden, in the 31st year of his age. The City Hall is decked in crape and the bell was tolled.

TOBACCO IN THE BARN.—We hear of an old Reidsville tobacco planter who once said to a friend,

"I hate to see my tobacco leave the barn."

"Why so?"

"Because it seems to me I can always buy more with it in the barn than I can when it's out."

The old farmers can muse on this as they smoke their pipes; it is a text of much meaning.

The North Carolina Home Fire Insurance Company held their annual meeting of their Stock-holders at their office on Fayetteville street, on the 13th inst.

This Company is one of the most reliable, safe and successful Companies doing business in our State, is well officered and economically conducted, and pays its losses promptly, and has worthily won the confidence of the public; and this exhibit on yesterday shows the correctness of our statement.

Mr. Peterson Dunn was called to the chair and Maj. Seaton Gales appointed Secretary.

Maj. Gales read his report to the meeting—a most gratifying condition of the Company's affairs in its operations for the past year.

A dividend of five per cent on the par value of the stock was declared.

The old Board of Directors were re-elected. Mr. R. H. Battle, Jr., was re-elected President; C. B. Root, Vice President; Maj. Seaton Gales, Secretary, and Pulaski Cowper, Supervisor.

This Company paid promptly in losses the past year over $20,000 and issued over 1,600 new policies, and over 700 renewals. Its general management gives universal satisfaction, its officers are men of high character and standing, and have the entire confidence of the community. It is a North Carolina Institution, is managed solely by North Carolinians, its investments are made at home, and its loans (which are considerable) are made exclusively in the State, and we hope to see this Company rise still higher in the estimation of our people. State pride should stimulate to strive to secure the success of our meritorious Home institutions.

The Secretary has kindly promised us a statement showing the assets and liabilities of the Company, which we will take pleasure in publishing.

We learn the meeting was largely attended, and nearly all the stock represented.

Among the Stock-holders present were Judge D. G. Fowle, Col. D. W. Carter, K. P. Battle, Paul C. Cameron, R. H. Battle, Jr., C. B. Root, W. N. H. Smith, Dr. T. D. Martin, Capt. A. B. Andrews, W. G. Upchurch, J. J. Litchford, W. H. Bagley, J. C. Blake, Peterson Dunn, A. W. Shaffer, W. D. Jones, R. H. Jones, John Nichols and others.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor—I have heard with profound astonishment that there is a member of the Legislature who does not believe in the existence of a Supreme being. I should take such a member to be a dangerous lawgiver. Can you give any light on the subject. Yours,
VINDEX.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor:—Allow me through the SENTINEL to call the attention of the public to the fact that the State or railroad or corporations pay lawyer's fees on both sides. I thought in law each party paid its own attorney; but the practice is now changed and the State or corporations pay the lawyer who appeared against them. How is this. Yours,
JUSTICE.

An anecdote of Mr. Gerrit Smith relates that on one occasion, when a visitor had outstayed his welcome and had become a preternatural nuisance, Mr. Smith in the morning prayed for a blessing to descend upon "our visiting brother, who will this day depart from us." And he departed. Such a pin as this was sharp enough to be felt by the most pachydermatous of bores.

SENATE.

January, 21, 1875.

GOLD IN MONTGOMERY.

Senator LeGrand, Montgomery county, showed reporter this morning a piece of surface gold picked up near a branch in his county the other day that was worth forty-four dollars. They found a piece Saturday evening in that county that weighed sixty pennyweight, and two other pieces that weighed forty each. Mr. LeGrand and the member from Montgomery will apply for a charter to work the mines.

Senate called to order at 11 a.m.

President Armfield in chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Rich.

Clerk read journal of yesterday.

Mr. Jenkins stated that Senator from Burke, Mr. Mills, was confined to his home by sickness and applied for indefinite leave. Granted.

Mr. Linney, a memorial from citizens of Alexander, asking to pass a Convention bill. Referred.

Mr. Peebles, petition to prohibit sale of liquor near Robert's Chapel. Referred.

Reports by different Committees.

Mr. Bell, bill to repeal private laws of 1871. Referred.

Mr. Bell, bill to amend charter of Beaufort. Referred.

Mr. Bell, bill to amend Battle's Revisal. Referred.

Mr. McMillan, bill to protect sheep. Referred.

Colored Mr. Paschal, bill to educate adults. Referred.

HOLDEN'S DISABILITIES.

Bill for removing disabilities of W. W. Holden was reported against by the Committee. Mr. Cantwell stated that Mr. Holden was now suffering under severe domestic affliction and he trusted the resolution would be passed by for present. So done.

NIGHT SESSION.

Mr. Albright's resolution for night sessions on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, was amended by Mr. Hargrove to evening sessions on those days. Mr. Standford preferred the night sessions, Mr. French preferred night sessions. The original resolution was adopted.

MR. PEEBLES

asked for suspension of rules to take up bill incorporating Albemarle & Roanoke R. R. Co. Rules suspended, and Mr. Jernigan moved to re-commit bill to committee. Mr. Peebles spoke strong against it. The bill was re-committed.

Colored Mr. Tucker, bill concerning public bridge in Craven, and to raise tax for same. Referred.

Mr. McCauley, memorial from citizens of Anson to prevent wanton destruction of game. Referred.

Mr. Jenkins, bill authorizing sale of certain streets and alleys in town of Shelby. Referred.

Bills incorporating Light House Hunting Club in Currituck, and bill incorporating Statesville Male Academy passed 3rd reading.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Cook, resolution in favor of sheriff of Granville. Referred.

Mr. Busbee, resolution to pay Moses A. Bledsoe money due him on judgment of Supreme Court. Referred.

WAYNE COURTS.

H. B. for two additional terms of Superior Court in Wayne county came up with amendment giving the Judge $200 for each term. Mr. Kerr thought the sum too much—other good judges only received $100 for such terms. Messrs. French and Smith also opposed the amendment, and Mr. F. stated there was now a bill before the judiciary committee for regulating such pay. On motion of Mr. Graham the bill as to time of the Courts was accepted and the amendment voted down.

SAVING COTTON TO THE SELLER.

Mr. Graham's bill forbidding the tax of two pounds of cotton to the buyer came up as special order. Mr. Graham advocated the bill. He wanted this bill passed to let farmers see that this evil they complained of, "the break of the scales," as they called it, was remedied.

Mr. Busbee suggested to Mr. Graham to alter the verbage. He had been among the farmers and weighers this morning and the farmers all said, "You may pass or kill this bill, if you like, if they don't take off our cotton they'll take it off from the price." The gist of Mr. Busbee's alteration was that nothing should be taken off the cotton except what was agreed on between the buyer and seller.

Mr. Cantwell, offered an amendment making the farmer indictable for putting in any water, sand or dirt or any other foreign substance in the cotton. (Mr. Bell in the chair.) Mr. French opposed Mr. Cantwell's amendment. The law on this subject is as stringent as we possibly can make it—$500 fine and imprisonment. Mr. Kerr earnestly opposed the amendment. The buyer is the man to make toe the mark. The law was sufficiently adequate to those who fraudulently pack cotton. Mr. Cantwell would like to have such law produced—he had never seen it—had presented amendment at request of Wilmington merchants. Mr. Shaw opposed the amendment. The laws were already stringent enough against farmers.

Mr. Cantwell's amendment was lost, and Mr. Graham's bill passed the third reading.

Adjourned.

RELIGIOUS.

A Patterson, N. J., clergyman skates three miles to church this winter.

Luther used to say: "I have had so much work to do to-day that I have been compelled to pass three hours in prayer."

Life is full of temptations; they are found everywhere; in the club room, in the ball room, in that holy of holies, the household; they are stamped on our lives, on our bodies and souls, yet it is our duty to stand before God pure men. Can you do this alone? No. We want help. In a stand up contest sin will prove the victor in the end unless we are sustained by a power which comes at call. In the midst of temptation prayer is a shield, enabling you, when an enemy steals upon the soul, to say, "Get thee behind me, Satan." Prayer enters into every question of right or wrong; it enters a mysterious force into the spiritual life.—[Talmage.]

Mr. Talmage has collected his sermons on theatres, bad books, strong drink, &c, which Harper & Brothers will soon issue in book form. A sermon on the "Social Evil" in Brooklyn, including a review of the Beecher-Tilton case, will be added to the volume, and will be delivered from the text, "A lock of Delilah's hair." "Sports that Kill" is the title of the volume.

PERSONAL.

The ice season North is a success. The ice between Troy and Albany is thicker than known for fifteen years.

The House of Representatives Monday passed a bill appropriating $25,000 to defray the expenses attending the visit of King Kalakaua to the United States.

A useful and much needed invention has been patented, a fountain pen, which by the pressure of the thumb on a small rubber ball, projects a stream of ink through the holder and into the face of the person who is looking over your shoulder while you are writing.

In excavations made for the Lyons Railroad near Fourvieres, France, they have come upon important Roman ruins. An entire Gallo-Roman city was swallowed up in that neighborhood by an earthquake in the year 800. It is thought these ruins may be some part of that city.
