City Intelligence.

Bishop Atkinson was on the floor of the Senate to-day.

The firm of Grier and Alexander at Charlotte has failed.

Polk county sent three negroes to the penitentiary.

Pinchback's case is postponed to next December.

A hen built her nest in a young man's boot in the town of Monroe.

Rev. Alfred J. Morrison and bride are the guests of Gen. Hill in Charlotte.

The military company in Charlotte are uniformed as zouaves.

If you want a good suit of clothes call on D. S. Waitt & Bro's 54 Fayetteville St.

The Observer records the death of Mrs. Ella B. Lemley, at Jackson, Mississippi, formerly Miss Ella Carson, of Charlotte.

Clara Wildman to-night at Tucker Hall. Give her a good house, she deserves it, and is as popular as little Katie herself.

A body of Texans headed by a sheriff took some prisoners out of the hands of a United States Marshal at Waco the 14th inst.

IMPROVEMENT.—We learn the old dwelling house on Fayetteville street known as the Farrior house will be torn down in a few days and a handsome dwelling house for W. S. Primrose of this city will be erected in its stead. Mr. Atkins is the excellent architect.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.—A gravel train ran off the track near Greensboro and the boiler of the engine turned over and scalded engineer Blake, who now lies in a dangerous condition, besides killing a Mr. Womble, or Womack, who was the agent at Greensboro and at the time was sitting with the engineer in his cab. Two negroes on the train were killed. Mr. Blake is an excellent gentleman and the best engineer on the road.

Napoleon lost an emerald at Waterloo. We noticed a sandy haired young man from the country wearing it to-day on a ruffled shirt bosom.—Sentinel.

We confess that we are not intimately acquainted with the local editor of the SENTINEL though we thought "his hair was of a dark-brown color."—Robesonian.

You may be korrect. The girl that used to wear it was wont to call it Orbun, but it's been under a broomstick since then you know. How we all do fade.

CONVENTION GARBLED.—It is 1:30 and the House has been considering the Convention bill since 12 o'clock. The republicans are throwing amendments in the way and calling the ayes and nays. The galleries are crowded with ladies, and senators and citizens pack the lobbies. The democrats sit quiet in their seats, and only respond to vote down all amendments, sometimes a white republican or two voting with them. The vote will be close, but every minute points to the final success of the bill.

Joy to the world, convention is carried. At three o'clock it passed second reading by a vote of 81 to 31. It only needed 80 votes, and Mr. Candler, republican, from Buncombe, made the 80th man. Mr. Mendenhall, of Guilford, voted against the bill. At 3:20 the bill was put on third reading and passed, ayes 81, nays 33.

Messrs. Glenn and Foote voted with the democrats.

GREENSBORO LOTTERY POSTPONED.—Says the Patriot: Owing to the changing of the guage on the railroads and the great storms, the managers deem it advisable to defer drawing to-night; but the concert will be given and the committee selected by the audience to superintend the drawing, which will be postponed only a few days. Numbers of agents are reporting by telegraph, and a vast amount of mail and express packages are known to be in Charlotte and Salisbury. The town is filled with strangers who hold tickets, best of feeling prevails, and implicit confidence in the enterprise manifested.

INSANE ASYLUM AT WILMINGTON.—The Senate last night by a vote of 26 to 12 passed the bill on third reading to establish an asylum at Wilmington for the insane negroes in the State. There is an appropriation of ten thousand dollars a year and a support of $200 a year for each inmate. Dr. Grissom with the same board of directors will manage the asylum. The colored insane from this asylum will be removed to Wilmington. The representative of the colored people, Mabson, opposed the bill and rambled off into a tirade on civil rights, tho' we daresay the sensible portion of the negroes at Wilmington will see in it a generous opening of the hand from the white men to the colored race. At any rate it has been the unwearied work of their senator Cantwell to secure this appropriation, and for ourself, we are glad of his success because of the independent and patriotic stand he has taken in favor of convention.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

The bill appropriating $7,500 annually, passed the House yesterday by 48 to 51, thanks to Strong who really gave all his strength to the bill, Mebane, Pinnix, Walker and others of the sons she once graduated, and also thanks to Mr. Isler, of Wayne, who changed on the final vote and influenced two others to change with him, thus securing the passage of the bill. NORTH CAROLINA RAIL ROAD.

Bill to amend the charter of the North Carolina railroad gave place to a substitute of Mr. Hargrave, which was reported favorably by the committee.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 10 a. m. Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

Senate resolution concerning the funeral expenses of the late Gov. Caldwell was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill in regard to the registration of deeds was taken up as the special order of the hour. Pending definite action the second special order, was announced.

THE CONVENTION BILL

Mr. Wheeler offered several amendments to the bill providing that the Convention, if called should not do certain things, all of which were voted down by over a two-third vote.

Mr. Dula offered an amendment submitting the question of "Convention" or "No Convention" to a vote of the people. The amendment was rejected by a vote of ayes 78, nays 33.

Mr. Candler offered numerous amendments, all of which were voted down.

The question recurred on the passage of the bill on its second reading, and it passed, ayes 81, nays 31.

Mr. Moring moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its third reading. The motion was carried, and the bill passed by the following vote:

AYES.—Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Anderson, Atwater, Barnhardt of Caldwell, Bernheardt of Rowan, Barrett, Bennett, Bettis, Bizzell, Bryan, Bryson, Candler, Davis of Haywood, Davis of Jackson, Dortch, Eatman, Erwin, Etheridge, Fields, Finger, Foote, Freeman, Gaither, Gash, Glenn, Green, Griffin, Gudger, Hanner, Haymore, Hicks, Holt, Hooker, Hurley, Isler, Jessup, Johnston, Kendall, King, Latta, Martin, McCalop, McCubbins, McIver, McRae, Means, Mebane, Mitchell, Mock, Moring, Mosley, Mullen, Oakesmith, Page, Parrott, Patton, Pinnix, Preson, Proffitt, Reid, Richardson, Shackelford, Sharpe, Smith of Anson, Smith of Hyde, Spears, Staton, Stedman, Stephenson, Stowe, Strong, Tate, Thompson of Beaufort, Thompson of Lincoln, Walker of Richmond, Walker of Tyrrell, Wells, Whitley, Wiley, Woodhouse and Young—81.

ALL ABOUT.—Only $120,000 in the Virginia Treasury Tuesday morning.—Mr. John Cosby lectured last night in Petersburg before the Young Men's Christian Association, can't our young men hit him here!—A hen about Longstreet in the sheep raising business in Georgia, he lives still in New Orleans.—Charlie Woodson a boy in St. Louis threw a brick and it killed a little son of Robert M. Boatright, while they were trying Charlie, a son of Mr. Boatright walked in court, and exclaiming, "You killed my brother and I will kill you," he plunged a butcher knife to the handle in the boy's abdomen and he fell dead on the floor.—Mayor Wickham of New York gets $12,000 salary.—Carl Schurz will practice law in New York and has already been engaged counsel for Hamburg Steamship Company at a salary of $10,000.—The Ohio Legislature will adjourn the 29th.—By latest census the population of New Orleans is 207,000.

Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is, without doubt, the safest, surest, and best remedy that has ever been invented for internal and external use. It is applicable to a great variety of complaints, and is equally beneficial for man or beast.

We have seen it stated in papers throughout the country that agents for the sale of Sheridan's Cavalry Conistion Powders were authorized to refund the money to any person who should use them and not be satisfied with the result. We doubted this at first, but the proprietors authorize us to say that it is true.
