Prof. Allen Pollack, prominent lecturer, writer and community leader, now lives in Israel where he serves as Educational Consultant of the United Israel Appeal of Canada and the United Israel Appeal of the United States.

Born in New York, he was educated at Columbia University, the University of Stockholm (Sweden), and Princeton University. He was a Duke Foundation Fellow and under a Ford Foundation Grant, was a visiting Fellow at the Marx-Engels-Lenin Institute of the University of Leningrad. Prof. Pollack's field of academic specialization is Russian History and the role of the Jews in the Revolutionary Movement of Czarist Russia. He has taught at Brooklyn College, the University of Pittsburgh and Yeshiva University.

Long active in Jewish communal affairs, he was a member of the Executive Board of the World Zionist Organization and the Board of Trustees of the UJA, of which he was the former Chairman of its Young Leadership Cabinet. Prof. Pollack also served on the boards of numerous other Jewish organizations, including the labor Zionist Movement, of which he was the National President.

Prof. Pollack was instrumental in establishing the American Professors for Peace in the Middle East, an organization of 17,000 academics on some 600 campuses. He was its National Chairman and participated in its study missions which were invited to visit Israel, Jordan, Syria and Egypt as guests of their respective governments.

Pot of Gold

"Celebration" in order to win. Cochairing the "At the End of the Rainbow Celebration" are Meg Goldsteir and Nicki Levine. Committee members are Lynne Sheffer, Marilyn Swimmer, Margi Goldstein, Sheila Kritzer, Lila Josephson, Scott and Carolla Swimmer, Carol Shafranek and Susan Sachs.

Many thanks go to the following who have assisted in making this endeavor take place: the law firm of Petree, Stockton and Robinson for their help and assistance in production; Belk for the free loan of their decorations; Larry Farber of East Coast Entertainment for his help and support in securing the band; and Janet Lefkowitz for the food and catering.

Join in on the fun Dec. 6 and help support the JCC. Who knows, that "pot of gold" might be waiting there just for you!
