Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

The ever increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudice or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

THIRTY GIRLS.--Rentz female minstrels, 30 of them, play at Tucker Hall Saturday night.

The Editor of this paper gives a free lecture to-morrow night at the court-house in this city. He proposes to tell truth and talk no fiction and charges nothing for the same. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock, and no reserved seats, all who have ears to hear let them hear.

TROUPES COMING.—Mr. Howard informs us the following troupes are heading for this city: Baker & Farrow troupe, due here the 20th. John Thompson under W. T. Powell's management, the 23d and 24th. And Mille Zoe who will play here the 10th and 11th of May.

A POSITION ABROAD.—Walter McDonald who has been clerking for some months in the Secretary of State's office will leave this city Sunday evening to take charge of a position on one of Cheek's line of steamers that plys between Memphis and Vicksburg. Walter is the son of Col. John A. McDonald, of Chatham county, and is an intelligent and upright young man.

MISS DICKINSON.—Miss Anna Dickinson to-night at Tucker Hall. We bespeak for her lecture a crowded house. The large clear eyes occasionally humid with emotion; the clarion voice, sweet and full of power and feeling; the quick, impassioned gesture; the thin, firm and nervous lips; the fine, good face, intelligent and animated, and the rather tall, full, and very graceful figure of this distinguished young lady, are attributes which Anna Dickinson certainly possesses and with which she acts upon an audience with wonderful power.

A TREAT TO THE MILITARY.—The boys received a right royal treat at Mosely's Confectionery yesterday. The martial music of the Cornet Band and the uniforms of the Light Infantry carried Mosely back to the days when he "wore the gray" and in the goodness of his heart he invited the company to partake of refreshments at his Confectionery on Fayetteville Street. They did so without even a second bid and a jovial good time they had. By the way the uniform of this company, the prettiest in the State, was ordered from Horstman Bros. & Allen 7 Bond Street, New York.

WAS THERE AND SAW IT.—We gave last week as the thing came to mind an account of a meeting at Appomattox between Gen. Custar of the Federal army and Col. John Lea of our own—they had been classmates and friends together at West Point. This morning a young man stepped in the office and asked for a copy of that paper for Col. Woodruff who command the camp at this city. It turns out that Col. Woodruff was chief of artillery for Gen. Custar at that time, was with him when the meeting occurred, and when he ran towards Col. Lea exclaiming, "Yonder comes old Gimlet," and he wanted the paper to send it to Custar. He got it.

The little pistol Hodgin Fentress a highly respected citizen of Randolph county, living near Cedar Falls, aged about 65 years, accidently shot himself in the back of the head and died instantly on last Friday week, by carelessly handling a pistol. THE LADIES.

"What a nuisance!" exclaimed a gentleman at a concert, as a young fop in front of him kept talking in a loud voice to a lady at his side. "Did you refer to me, sir?" threateningly demanded the fop. John Bingham was tried in the New Court of Quarter Sessions on Monday, on a charge of bigamy. Both his wives were in the court room. He pleaded guilty and refused to change the plea. The recorder asked him which he would prefer, to be discharged to live with his two wives, or sentenced to State prison for three years. The prisoner promptly expressed a preference to be locked up, and the judge sentenced him to State prison for three years at hard labor.

TESTIMONIALS:

The Medicinal properties of the Southern Pine have long been known to the profession and as the science of medicine advances, the development of this Wonderful Tree in the healing art, has gathered around it the confidence of the medical world. Growing in our midst and clothed in perpetual verdure, it stands the Emblem of Life and Health, and offers from its veins a balm for almost every human disease.

This combination was first prepared by the soldiers and sent to the army. Its wonderful development, and the increasing demand for it was a matter of surprise to its originator. Humanity, as well as interest demand that it go to the word. It gives relief at once. All who use it will endorse every testimonial that follows:
