R. A. Barrett, admr. of Thomas Everett, against Martha F. Barrett, wife of R. A. Barrett, Abner Carter and Sallie A. his wife, James T. Hill and wife Elizabeth T., B. Ferguson and his wife Virginia, Joseph Gilliam and Thomas Gilliam, defendants.

Summons in the above cause having been issued to the Sheriff of Hertford county and by him returned not to be found, as to Martha F. Barrett wife of R. A. Barrett, Jas. T. Hill and his wife Elizabeth T., Joseph Gilliam and Thomas Gilliam; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the said defendants reside beyond the limits of this State; it is therefore, ordered that publication be made in the Raleigh Sentinel for six weeks successively, notifying the said defendants of the filing of this petition and that unless they appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county, within the time specified and answer the petition the same will be taken pro confesso and heard ex parte as to them.

Witness: W. J. Gatling, Clerk of said Court, at office in Winton, this 8th of March, 1875.
W. J. GATLING,
Probate Judge, Hertford County.

Harpers Magazine.
ILLUSTRATED.
The ever increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators, as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its great popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.
The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

KELLY'S PATENT UMBRELLA HOLDER.
For Buggies, Wagons, Boats, Saddles and other open Vehicles. This exceedingly ingenious and useful invention supplies a want long felt by those who ride in open vehicles. It is so simple in its construction that a child can manage it after once observing the apparatus. It can be screwed down to any vehicle without inconvenience. It does not disfigure the appearance of any wagon or buggy. It can be placed at any elevation, or inclined in any direction with perfect ease in a moments time. When not in use it can be so disposed between the cushions, by the simple turning of a thumb screw, as to be entirely out of the way, and will not just persons riding to no inconvenience whatever. Any person of ordinary mind can adapt it to his vehicle without the aid of directions. Its price is within the reach of all. Every owner of an open vehicle should have one. Any kind of an Umbrella will adjust. They can be purchased, wholesale and retail, at JULIUS LAWIS & CO'S. Price at retail $2.

The City.

General W. H. F. Lee, of Virginia, is in bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. Cicero Harris, of Wilmington, forwarded one hundred dollars she had collected in that city for the Charlotte Centennial.

J. L. Petri, a Frenchman and candy maker in Richmond, who tried to blow his brains out at the Virginia Hotel, in Baltimore, was depressed for want of work.

PENITENTIARY—The Penitentiary board met this morning, but on account of the non arrival of Mr. Rhodes, of Wayne, and Pace of Chatham, the board adjourned over until to-morrow.

DIED SUDDENLY.—Mrs. Wesley Ferrell of Oak Grove Township, this county, was taken sick Sunday and died Monday morning. Mrs. Ferrell had been in feeble health some time but was not confined to bed.

GREENSBORO' COLLEGE.—Rev. A. W. Mangum of this city will deliver the sermon before the Greensboro' Female College, at their commencement the first of June, and Rev. J. O. Cranberry of Virginia will deliver the address.

THE LOVE MARKET.—The venerable Mr. William P. Johnston, of this county, aged 74 years, gallants to the altar matrimonial in a few days a lady of the ripe and matured age of thirty-five. Mr. Johnston got his license this morning and stepped out of town as buoyant as a boy.

FOR GREENSBORO.—Governor Brogden left for Greensboro this evening where he meets Messrs Armfield and Robinson, with whom he has been commissioned by the Legislature to attend to purchase of claims against the Western Railroad in case of Sibley and others against the road.

GUNGERS.—Refined people call them "ginger cakes" but be this as it may a wagon load of the real old fashion gingers is hauled into this city every Wednesday from fourteen miles in the country. The widow Maynard makes them and loads a wagon with them every Wednesday in the week. The wagon was unloaded this morning at Charlie Christopher's.

Speaking of the pneumonia and neuralgia now on the rest in different sections of this country, we know a literary young woman in the city who tied her jaw up after attempting to spell it neuralgia, when her father told her he had had a severe spell enough of the pneumonia to learn from the doctors that neuralgia was spelt the same way with a g in it. The young woman is now taking French lessons and the old man has advertised to teach a small class of boys.

RELIGIOUS.
"Christ is enthroned in me as my precious wife and children never were, and never can be, and if you have Christ dwelling in you you will be consistent. If a man says he is a Christian and is not straightforward in business I should say, 'Bear with me, my dear fellow, but you are a liar.'"—Henry Varley.

We bear the image and superscription of God in these our immortal souls, intellect and natural endowments. They are God's gifts; the stamp of His current coin; hold them not back, for they are the Lord's. You are bound to give Him your soul, intellect, morality. The man who pays his earthly debts to his fellow creature and cheats God of His does is not honest. Bitter sectarians, unjust citizens, ask to learn to know how to render to God the things which are His.—Dr. Deems.

Episcopalians in Mexico. Bishop Lee of Delaware recently visited Mexico and preached last Sunday in New York on the result of missionary labor in that country. He said that the Rev. Henry Chauncey Reiley of that city was induced to take charge of a little flock in Mexico left shepherdless by the death of their Priest Aguilla. Secretary Seward opposed the mission as too hazardous. Now there are in Mexico thirty-nine congregations, with a membership of between 2,500 and 3,000 persons and a large attendance of non-members. Then there are seventeen places where occasional services are held. The main body of the members are of the humble class, a large portion being native Indians. Villages that were haunts of robber bands are reformed, and in some small villages the majority are members of the Mission church, while in some the Bible reader has been elected Alcalde, a chief magistrate.

PERSONAL.

"You jist ought to have been over to our house last night!" shouted one small boy to another on the Campus Martius, yesterday. "Why—making pictures?" inquired the other. "Naut much! Humph! No, sir; our folks went away, and we had pop corn, two kinds of sweetened water, milk and camphor, drew the dog around in the table cloth, and the hired girl told us eight ghost stories."—Detroit Free Press.

THE LADIES.
Beecher says he never likened Mrs. Moulton to "a slice of the day of judgment;" she seemed to him more like "a bank of spring flowers."

Two little newspapers in Santa Barbara, Cal., are edited by two women, and they quarrel. One says that the other is cross-eyed, and the other retorts that her rival is an old maid. No blood shed as yet.

The Empress of Japan has decided on the erection of a college for young girls who wish to devote themselves to teaching, and has given a liberal sum from her private purse toward the expense of construction.

"Hair getting a little thin, sir," said the barber. "Young man," said John Henry, looking down upon him from the height of a solemn experience; "young man, when you are married you will never allude, in that thoughtless manner, to domestic afflictions. No; don't apologize. My feelings are blunted. But is there not some mysterious unguent—some soft, seductive compound—that makes the hair more slippery to the grasp?"

A new American prima donna, the daughter of E. L. Davenport and sister of Fanny and May Davenport, has made a decided hit in opera in Italy. A Turin paper thus speaks of her debut in "Traviata:" "Her seductive features, her elegant bearing, the musical perfectness and freshness of her voice, and her intensely dramatic execution;" and in conclusion the critic writes: "La Blanche has conquered the loftiest difficulties, and we predict for her a splendid future."

All the members of a family in Philadelphia were poisoned on Sunday evening by eating canned fruit. They were seized with frequent and violent purging, but were soon relieved by medical aid. It is believed that the effect was produced by copperas, which had been found in the sealed can.—Ledger.

The pistols won by Major Pitcairn, at Lexington, and from one of which the first shot of the revolution was fired, are in the possession of the widow of the grandson of Gen. Putnam, and will be exhibited at the approaching centennial exercises at Lexington. They were given to General Putnam when he joined the army at Cambridge, and were used by him during the war.

Sir Walter Scott, in one of his notes to Marmion, states it to be an article of popular faith, that those who are born on Christmas or Good Friday have the power of seeing spirits and even of commanding them. He adds that the Spaniards imputed the haggard and downcast look of their Philip II. to the disagreeable visions to which this privilege subjected him.

Mr. James Belk, who is now living in Buford Township, in this county, is 106 years old, and was for 37 years a Justice of the Peace. He has had 34 children, 93 grandchildren, 200 great-grandchildren, 170 great great-grandchildren, and there are also children of the fifth generation, but the number is not known. The whole number, children, grandchildren, &c., as above is 567.—Monroe Enquirer.

Grasshoppers out West are said to take a stand at the depots these warm spring mornings to see who "gets off" to buy his seed wheat.

The SENTINEL did not say the case of infanticide occurred either "in" or "near Hillsboro," it said "in Orange county," which was correct.

"Yes, this is the place," said he sadly, and six men gathered around him on the sidewalk and asked: "What place?" "This is the very place," he said, more plaintively still, and ten more men came up and made inquiries. He waited until there were about twenty-five anxious faces around him, and then said he: "The place where I slipped on a coal hole cover last Saturday." He walked away, but the air was of a lavender color in that vicinity for half an hour.

More than 50 years have elapsed since Johnson's Anodyne Liniment was first invented, during which time hundreds of thousands have been benefitted by its use. Probably no article ever became so universally popular with all classes as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

CURE THAT COUGH!
Dr. C. T. McMannen's
AMERICAN TAR MIXTURE
PRICE ONE DOLLAR.
THE GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.
For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and all Lung Diseases; especially recommended as a Family Medicine for Children as it arrests, at once, every symptom of Croup, or attacks of Colds, such as children are subject to, particularly in the relief of Whooping Cough. Its combination with Sugar and other ingredients makes it not unpleasant to the taste, and no danger whatever in its use. Taken in portions of half a teaspoonful at a time whenever there is a disposition to cough, and at night when you lie down. It acts freely on the Kidneys and the Liver.
Manufactured and sold Wholesale and Retail by the Proprietor, Durham, N. C. Liberal discount to wholesale dealers. Orders solicited.
JNO. A. McMANNEN,
General Business Agent.

TESTIMONIALS:
The Medicinal properties of the Southern Pine have long been known to the profession and as the science of medicine advances, the development of this Wonderful Tree in the healing art, has gathered around it the confidence of the medical world. Growing in our midst and clothed in perpetual verdure, it stands the Emblem of Life and Health, and offers from its veins a balm for almost every human disease.
This combination was first prepared by the soldiers and sent to the army. Its wonderful development, and the increasing demand for it was a matter of surprise to its originator, humanity, as well as interest demand that it go to the word. It gives relief at once. All who use it will endorse every testimonial that follows:
But for one bottle of Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture, I obtained while in the army, I should have been in my grave.
R. R. BRIDGERS,

Goldsboro, N. C.
After spending eighteen months in a southern climate to restore my Lungs, I gave up in despair, and came home to die with my children in Goldsboro, N. C. While there I obtained a box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture. Its first effect was to enable me to sleep; my strength began to return; hope revived; my cough gave way. After using six boxes, I was restored to health. I now weigh 140 lbs. I owe my life to this mixture, and wish this published to the world.
R. E. ROBISON.
I have been afflicted with a cough for thirty years. I have used all the popular remedies for coughs. I have never found anything to remain on the stomach or give any relief, until I used Dr. McMannen's American Tar Mixture. Its use enables me to sleep well; my lungs have regained their strength, and I find myself entirely free from a distressing cough that attacked me in the morning. I am rapidly recovering.
MRS. POTTER PASCHAL.
My Lungs gave way while on my circuit. I was forced to retire from my work, and had but little hope of recovery. I used one box of Dr. McMannen's Tar Mixture, my cough improved, my strength returned, and I was soon able to resume my work. I recommend it to all who have a cough, or weak lungs.

I was taken with an alarming cough; was afraid of its results; suffered for want of sleep. I used one box of the American Tar Mixture. From the first day I used it, I felt its good effects. I slept sound, and my strength increased; a few weeks I was myself again. I can conscientiously recommend it to all who are afflicted with consumptive symptoms or weak lungs.
W. K. STYRON.
Durham, N. C.
I have used Dr. C. T. McMannen's American Tar Mixture myself, and in my family. I do not hesitate to recommend it as a remedy to be used in all cases of Cough, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Lung diseases.
