Cotton market very dull. Middlings 12; low middlings 10@11; clean stains 10; deep stains 8@9.

The penitentiary board of directors were in session to-day. Only routine business was transacted.

J. J. WOLFENDEN & Co., dealers in grain. Corn a specialty. Newbern, N. C. 3m.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of this city, preaches the annual sermon at the Chapel Hill commencement, June 1.

Mr. Turner speaks at Durham Thursday night, and at Flat River, Saturday. He will tell us by letter what he says.

Woods' pine at $3.50; seasoned oak at $4.00; field pine at $3.00. Call on J. D. Whitaker near Citizens Bank for supplies.

Let all corn buyers ask for corn that has been fanned and cleaned at the City Granary expressly for this market. feb 2-1w.

Yesterday afternoon, the penitentiary received 11 more republican voters; 4 from Wayne county and 7 from New Hanover.

The roster of North Carolina soldiers in the revolutionary war, lost for many years, has been discovered among the archives of the auditor's office.

The Oak City Pleasure Club will give a grand hop at the National Friday evening, Feb. 18, and then suspend operations until after the lenten season.

Light trade in petty crimes and misdemeanors at the police court this morning. Henry Austin, darkey, got 10 days on the streets for disorderly conduct.

If you want to be sure to double your crops of cotton, corn, wheat, tobacco, &c., call on A. C. Sanders & Co. for a pamphlet telling you how to do it, and then buy some of their guano.

The case of State vs. J. Q. Bryant, convicted of robbery in this city some months ago, was argued in the supreme court to-day. The general impression seems to be that Bryant will get a new trial.

"E. H. POGUE & Co. will have their first grand special sale of Leaf Tobacco at Webb's Warehouse" Hillsboro, on the 8th and 9th of February. They claim that Hillsboro is at present the best market for all grades. d9t.

Hon. C. M. Cook, of Franklin, late senator from the 7th district, is in the city, attending the supreme court. Mr. Cook is the law partner of our congressman, Hon. J. J. Davis, and is one of the soundest and clearest-headed democrats in the state.

The Washington "What-Next," of Feb. 9, says: "R. W. Best, of the Raleigh Sentinel, who has been sojourning with us a few days, left Monday for Greenville. A more clever and sociable gentleman we never met. May his shadow never grow less.

The report that reached city a few days ago, that a convict working on the Western North Carolina railroad had been shot and killed, turns out to be false. The gun of one of the guard accidentally went off and wounded one of his companions. The wounded man is rapidly recovering.

The fifth and last section of the United States signal line between Norfolk and Wilmington, N. C., was finished on the 3d, with the exception of cabling Hatteras Inlet, which is expected to be finished in a few days, when direct communication will exist between Wilmington and the chief signal office at Washington, a distance of 550 miles.

MARRIED.—In Washington, N. C., Feb. 2, by Rev. E. M. Green, Mr. H. F. Harris, of Halifax county, and Miss Annie B. Fowle. The attendants were Mr. S. T. Nicholson and Miss Mattie B. Fowle, Mr. S. R. Fowle and Miss Caddie Sparrow, Mr. J. E. Crabtree and Miss Lillie Telfair, and Mr. J. B. Blackwell and Miss Annie Lucas. The fair bride was the recipient of many handsome presents; Mrs. D. G. Fowle, of Raleigh, being among the donors. In a short time after the ceremony, the young newly-made husband and wife left for Plymouth, where they took the steamer for their future home in Halifax. The love and good wishes of a multitude of sympathizing friends attend them.

LOWER TAXES.—The board of county commissioners held a meeting to-day, and the main feature of the proceedings was the adoption of a resolution directing the clerk of the board to instruct township assessors to observe the same scale of taxation as last year, and that the tax for county purposes on the $100 worth of property shall be 30 cents, being 8 cents lower than last year, making this year's tax, for county and state purposes combined, 68 cents instead of 76 as last year. Owing to the judicious management of our present board of commissioners the county is better off than it has been since the war. Always careful of the people's pocket, they take every opportunity to institute a practical and judicious economy.

STILL THEY COME.—Another would be dweller in our glorious land of promise, land of the fig and the vine, of the myrtle and pine, of the honey and wine, of climate most fine and women divine, where joys never decline and no one can whine about his life's line not having fallen in pleasant places, except some chronic grumbler and malligrubber, who would have surrounded himself with prickly-pears and nightshade in primeval Eden. This time the seeker for a home in our Carolina Canaan hails from Sprague and Anthony's little cotton-mill patch. We trust some of our land owners and agents will read and respond:

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND, February 5th, 1876.

EDITOR SENTINEL.—Dear Sir: Please send me one of your papers that will give me some idea about your state, climate products, &c., and oblige

Yours truly,
O. B. WEEKS,
306 Cranston Street.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—This reliable home company is the recipient of the appended handsome and deserved tribute from the Piedmont Press of Feb. 5:

The North Carolina State Life Insurance company, paid off last Friday, a $1,000 policy to the heirs of Hiram P. Crawford, of Lincolnton. The company was entitled to ninety days' time, but when informed by Dr. Michal, the district agent, that the circumstances of the family were such as to make a prompt payment an act of kindness, the money was paid at once—there being only six days from the time the evidences of death were sent until the payment was made; and this too, without asking any discount, which was certainly magnanimous.

This action on the part of the North Carolina State is in striking contrast to that of a number of foreign companies in our midst, who not only take advantage of every possible means of delay, but seize every opportunity to contest and defeat ultimate payment. The company is a home enterprise and does not draw money away from our people to build up other states.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—Tuesday evening the Young Men's Christian Association held its regular monthly meeting in the handsome rooms in the Briggs building. The meeting was full and very pleasant, and the officers declare themselves greatly encouraged as to the future efficiency and usefulness of the association. The following is the list of distributors for the several districts, into which the city has been divided:

1st district, John Armstrong; 2d district, W. C. Stronach; 3d district, A. D. Taylor; 4th district, J. P. Gulley; 5th district, A. M. McPheeters; 6th district, E. R. Stamps; 7th district, S. W. Whiting; 8th district, W. S. Primrose; 9th district, W. J. Young; 10th district, Wm. H. Crow; 11th district, J. B. Burwell; 12th district, B. B. Harding.

The distributors appoint their own assistants whenever occasion requires it, and no distributor is empowered to exercise any authority outside of his immediate district. The association adjourned to meet Tuesday evening, Feb. 12.

PLEASANT.—The tea-party, festival, supper and sociable, all combined, of the ladies of the Person Street Methodist church, last evening, was a very enjoyable affair. The attendance was not as great as it should have been, but there were plenty to give the hall a brilliant and animated appearance. The tables were beautifully decorated, and bountifully laden with everything that epicurean genius and skill could devise to tempt and tickle eye, lip, tongue, palate and heart. Prominent among the lady managers were Mrs. Belo, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Ballard, and Misses Laura Nixon and Lizzie Gooding. They have entertained their friends to-day with a dinner, and will continue the festivities this evening, where we hope to see a big crowd present. The editor of the Sentinel is indebted to the fair managers for a lavish and elegant lunch, embracing luxuries of earth, sea and air, sent in at noon to-day. All who shared in it unite in a small prayer-meeting for the health and success of the belles who are laboring to purchase a bell.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met at 10 o'clock this morning, all the justices present.

The argument in the case of the State vs. J. B. Bryant, from Wake, begun on yesterday concluded.

J. C. L. Harris, solicitor, petition to the court for writ of mandamus. Leave to issue notice, of a motion for certiorari and mandamus to Judge Watts, granted. Smith & Strong appeared for the state.

Jordan Womble, Sr., vs. Little and Mordecai, from Wake; (5 cases.) argued by A. M. Lewis for plaintiff and Jones & Jones for defendant.

Samuel Beavan & Co., vs. R. A. Speed, from Franklin; argued by Davis & Cook for plaintiff and J. B. Batchelor for the defendant.

State vs. J. Q. Bryan, from Wake; argued by Attorney General Hargrove and T. M. Argo for the state and Busbee & Busbee, Smith & Strong and Badger & Devereux for the defendant.

State vs. Cephus Hudson, from Granville; argued by Attorney General Hargrove for the state; no counsel for the defendant.

State vs. Charles Talley et al., from Granville; argued by Attorney General Hargrove for the state and Busbee & Busbe for the defendants.

State vs. Warren Yancey, from Granville; argued by Attorney General Hargrove for the state and Wm. H. Young for the defendant.

State vs. Richard D. Jones, from Granville; remanded for want of judgment. Attorney General Hargrove for the plaintiff and W. H. Young for the defendant.

State vs. W. E. Norwood, from Granville; argued by Attorney General Hargrove for the plaintiff and A. S. Peace for the defendant.

"HE THAT HATH EARS TO HEAR, LET HIM HEAR."—In the treatment of the ear and eye, and the other organs of sense, and Chronic diseases, it becomes necessary to have a good knowledge of everything pertaining to medicine and surgery. What are called regular physicians may have graduated in either the old or the new school college, and can boast of a one-sided education. Dr. Jones has had a thorough education in both the old and the new school colleges, and in an Eye and Ear College, and in the Eye and Ear Infirmaries and Hospitals of America and Europe, and his diplomas from the same hang in his office. It is impossible for a physician who has but the usual medical education to successfully treat the Eye, Ear and Throat; therefore, Dr. Jones has availed himself of all the advantages the world affords to fit himself for his natural and chosen profession; and of his success the reader may judge by the following testimonials:

Names of Medical gentlemen through whose examination Dr. Johannes A. Jones has gone, and who testify to his ability in the strongest language possible, by placing their names to his diplomas, which are suspended in his office, open to the inspection of the interested: Valentine Mott, M. D., LL.D., Alexander Mott, M. D., John W. Francis, M. D., LL. D., A. Clark, M. D., Prof. Geo. Sayres, M. D., Prof. J. W. Green, M. D., Prof. B. F. Baker, M. D., Prof. Isaac Wood, M. D., Prof. Joun J. VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

By virtue of a mortgage executed to A. J. Bynum & Bro., on the 11th of September, 1872 by I. N. Clegg, and by virtue of a second mortgage executed by the aforesaid I. N. Clegg to A. J. Bynum on 2-th of March, 1875, the undersigned will sell on the premises at public auction on the

for cash, that valuable farm on Deep river, in the county of Chatham, opposite the town of Lockville, known as the Clegg farm, containing FIVE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-THREE acres. The Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line railroad divides the tract, and Deep river is navigable for steamboats about 30 miles above and 12 miles below Lockville. The farm is about 30 miles from Raleigh and 42 miles from Fayetteville by rail. The tract contains 100 acres of Deep river low ground; 50 acres of branch land and 100 acres of long leaf pine. Is well adapted to the raising of grapes, cereals, cotton and vegetables, and can be divided easily into three excellent farms. The railroad depot is within 150 yards of the farm and Merchants' mills, saw mills and foundry within 75 yards. The state geol. Kerr, state geologist, describes this farm as within the rich coal and iron formations of the Deep river basin.
